POWERS INTERESTED IN SPAIN'S BEHALF.

Representations to Madrid from Alfonso's Diplomats at Various Capitals Made Public.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Associated Press has been placed in possession of the following dispatches, which have never before been published, and which are unquestionably authentic. They comprise the particular telegram of the Spanish government to its representatives at several of the European courts, and excerpts from the replies:

MADRID, March 25, 1898.

"The Spanish representative in Washington has just reported that he is informed by the United States government that on Monday next the representation of the American commission on the Maine catastrophe will be brought before Congress without previously communicating the same to us or having the Spanish report communicated to them.

For the reasons stated in my telegram of yesterday, and in view of the fact of the submission of that matter to a popular chamber, thus taking it out of the jurisdiction of the executive power—a step which, in our opinion, may provoke a conflict between the two nations—the Spanish government deems it a duty and considers it to be in accordance with the principles governing international relations between Christian powers to communicate these facts to that government and to request its friendly offices (to induce) the President of the United States to maintain, within the jurisdiction of the Executive, everything bearing on the questions of differences with Spain, in order to bring them to an honorable settlement.

And so convinced is Spain that reason is with her and that she is acting with prudence, that if the above-mentioned end is not attained, she does not hesitate to ask the advice of the great powers, and in the last term their arbitration for the settlement of the difficulties now pending and those which may, in the near future, disturb the peace which the Spanish nation wishes to preserve, as far as compatible with her honor and the integrity of her territory; this not only for her own sake, but also for the consequences which the war, once begun, might have for the other countries of Europe and America.

You will read this telegram to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of that country.

[Signed] GULLON.

The following is Castillo's reply:

PARIS, March 23, 1898.

This afternoon I have had a long conference with the Minister for Foreign Affairs, and have communicated to him your circular telegram concerning the last verbal note presented by the Minister of the United States. . . . I told him that, as the crisis has reached its highest point and demands rapid action, I thought that, besides actively cooperating to obtain European concert, the most efficacious thing in these moments would be that France should address England, invoking the traditions of international politics regarding Cuba from the beginning of the century, and proposing that both nations act in common with a view to peace.

The Minister for Foreign Affairs accepted this indication in principle, and asked me to give him time to think and to submit the matter to the council of ministers.

[Signed] LEON Y CASTILLO.

ROME, March 25, 1898.

I have communicated to Cardinal Rampolla your telegram of last night relative to the declaration received from the Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States. His Eminence expressed himself much impressed by the statements which I made to him. . . . He approves of the answer which you intend to give the American government; praises the calmness and moderation of our government, and recommends that we endeavor to induce the European cabinets to use their influence in Washington to avoid a war. He is convinced that France, whose form of government cannot inspire suspicions to the United States, is animated by the most friendly sentiments toward Spain. He will inform the Pope of my manifestations, and assures me we have the affection of the Holy See. . . .

[Signed] MERRY.

This was received from London:

LONDON, March 26, 1898.

The Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs writes me that Mr. Balfour has taken into earnest consideration your telegram and peaceful purposes of the Spanish government; that the British Cabinet sees with regret that any incident may unnecessarily disturb the relations between Spain and the United States. . . . Mr. Balfour telegraphs to the British Ambassador in Washington and directs him, if he finds an opportunity, to inform the Minister (the Secretary of State) of the conciliatory attitude of the Spanish government. . . .

[Signed] RASCON.

VIENNA, March 27, 1898.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs believes it necessary that the report of the Spanish Commission on the Maine be published as a counter-position to the American report, and in order to facilitate arbitration. . . . He considers the maintenance of peace to be one of the most important questions in Europe today, and thinks that diplomatic action should be principally based thereon. . . .

[Signed] HOYOS.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 27, 1898.

I have just held a long conference with the Minister of Foreign Relations. . . . He expressed great sympathy for Spain and for the Queen, and assured me that the Emperor of Russia was animated by similar sentiments.

[Signed] VILLAGENZALO.

Ambassador Maso at Rome sent the following:

ROME, March 27, 1898.

I have just had a conference with the Minister for Foreign Affairs, to whom I have explained in detail the inconceivable conduct of the government of the United States as compared with the prudence and moderation of the Spanish government. I then read to him a French translation of your telegram. He answered me with visible conviction that the Italian government, being animated by the most friendly sentiments toward the Queen Regent and the Spanish nation, will immediately act in the direction you indicate. He supposes that our government will have addressed all the great powers in the same manner and considers that Italy should reach an understanding with them. . . . On leaving, he repeated his affectionate sympathy and good-will toward our country. . . .

[Signed] MASO.

ENGLAND HELD IN CHECK.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The following statement is made by an official who held a very high position during the early days of the Spanish-American War, and it is undoubtedly authentic:

"The Spanish government believed that Queen Victoria would support any step taken with a view to preventing the war and coming to the aid of the Queen Regent. It attributed at that time, perhaps, too great importance to the intervention of the Queen in the councils of the British government. It was not ignorant of the fact that Mr. Chamberlain was in agreement with Lord Salisbury in the desire to endeavor to render the United States a signal service, but information of a very confidential character which reached it conveyed to the Madrid government the idea that any mission of pacification would be well received by England. English society entertained the most hostile spirit toward the United States. It had not [illegible] forget the [illegible] London [illegible] to support the Spaniards.

"Thus the principal diplomatic effort of Spain was brought to bear on the Central European powers, and more particularly Russia. France and Germany were first well disposed to the Austrian proposal, and an accord of the continental powers would have undoubtedly been possible had Russia given her support.

"England was not, therefore, called upon to declare itself. The sympathy of certain statesmen in the Conservative Cabinet were certainly for the United States, but they were not required to display them. They afterward insinuated that their role had been to hold Europe in check, to the advantage of the United States. As is seen from the foregoing, they did nothing of the kind."

GERMANY ATTACKS ENGLAND.

LATTER HOSTILE TO AMERICA.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS. P.M.]

BERLIN, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The German Foreign Office confirms the substantial accuracy of the subjoined statement which the Kreuz Zeitung prints today, relative to Germany's course toward the United States during the war with Spain. The correspondent of the Associated Press understands that the article was prepared by Prof. Schiemann, professor of history at the Berlin University, who enjoys special official sources of information. After a preface quoting the statement made by a British Foreign Office official to a representative of the Associated Press, January 21 last, it says:

"Almost exactly four years ago, the Spanish Ambassador her asked Germany whether Germany would lead in action against the United States for the protection of the monarchic principle. The answer was a definite refusal, and the same answer was given a month later, or about the middle of March, when the invitation reached Germany to participate in the intervention undertaken upon the initiative of Austria. This was in the weeks following the sad catastrophe of the Maine, when it was believed intervention would facilitate an understanding between the United States and Spain. Nevertheless, our government commissioned Herr Von Radowitz, the German Ambassador to Spain, to inform the Madrid government that Germany was not in a position to prevent the Spanish-American War.

"After that, several attempts were made to win Germany, or the Dreibund, for intervention, in which the Pope was especially active. The final result was that Dr. Von Holleben (German Ambassador to the United States,) was instructed to join in the step proposed by Austria, only in case all the other five great powers participated.

"We are unable to state the details of how the united action came about. At any rate, the collective note was handed to the officials at Washington, April 7, advising a peaceable settlement, and was signed by England, France, Italy, Austria, Russia and Germany. It was believed for a week that the war would be averted. Gen. Blanco received orders from Madrid to offer the Cuban insurgents an armistice, for Spain was resolved to give them far-reaching autonomy and to arrive at a settlement of the Maine question through arbitration. Diplomatic circles, however, entertained no illusions, and when England, April 14,

Four Public Building Bills are Competing in Congress.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The situation regarding the Los Angeles public building is somewhat peculiar and liable to become complicated, unless a definite policy shall be decided on. The Treasury Department for several weeks has been approving material for improvements to the building under the old appropriation, and the contractors in charge have been sub-letting contracts in the usual manner, without regard to the fact that there is now before Congress a bill increasing the appropriation for this work. Supervising Architect Taylor said recently that his office could do nothing other than proceed with the work under the present appropriation and contracts until it has received word from somewhere to stop, and up to this time no one had requested the Treasury Department to stop the work.

Some progress is being made toward getting Congress to consider the bill for a larger appropriation for the building, but it is too early in the session yet to say [illegible]

In [illegible] wrote to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, asking it to express itself upon the matter to the California delegation in Washington.

A member of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds said this evening that his committee had commenced consideration of building bills in a general way, and had informally reached the conclusion that it would give but one public building to each State at this session of Congress. He said that this action would authorize an appropriation for but one public building there.

At the present time there have been introduced bills appropriating money for four public buildings in California. The Los Angeles bill calls for $1,000,000; that of San Francisco for $1,500,000, and this bill has already been passed by the Senate; a bill for Fresno for $150,000, and for Eureka for $150,000. If the present intention of the committee is to stand, three of these bills will never get through Congress. Of course the choice will lie between San Francisco and Los Angeles. The bill for San Francisco is for building a new customhouse in place of the present structure.

BABCOCK THE BLOCKADER.

FIGHT AGAINST TAX REPEAL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Babcock of Wisconsin, author of the bill reducing the duties upon steel, is being pressed tremendously to withdraw the bill. Today final pressure was applied him in the form of a two-hour's interview between Speaker Henderson and himself, in which the entire ground was covered. Mr. Babcock emerged from the interviews with somewhat shaken nerves, but his determination to withstand the majority of his party in the House was still firm. As a consequence of his attitude, it has been decided to postpone action on the War Revenue Bill until it is certain the rule for its consideration can be adopted without question. If it can be arranged that a rule can be adopted providing for debate in committee of the whole, but without the privilege of amending the bill, such rule will be presented. If this cannot be done, a rule will be presented to consider the bill in the House as in the committee of the whole, which will leave with the Speaker the privilege of recognizing debaters, and Mr. Babcock will not be recognized.

If it should develop that neither rule can be adopted, the War Revenue Repeal Bill will not come up in the House this session. To afford time to get the sense of the House, the Legislative Appropriation Bill will tomorrow displace the Oleomargarine Bill. For several days debate will be allowed on it, and then two days more on the Oleomargarine Bill. Other bills will come up, if necessary, and no rule will be brought in for consideration of the War Revenue Bill until it is assured that the bill will be adopted.

A member of the Ways and Means Committee summed up the situation tonight as follows: There never has been so universal a demand for any action by Congress as there has been for the repeal of the war revenue tax. When the original bill passed, in the beginning of the war, it was given out and understood that the measure was temporary, and a solemn promise was made to repeal the tax as soon as it appeared they were unnecessary. Last Congress, when a partial repeal was made, the people were informed that at an early day Congress would repeal the balance. Hence, at the opening Congress, a universal demand was made that it should carry out the promise. No man had been so clamorous as Mr. Babcock, who claimed to be the special champion of some of the interests involved.

When the bill was ready to be repealed, like a clap of thunder out of a clear sky, came Mr. Babcock's proposition to open the entire subject of tariff discussion and to revise the Dingley schedule and throw the business of the country into chaos during a tariff debate in Congress. A repeal bill nevertheless was reported, and now he is holding it up. He demands as a condition to the repeal of the war revenue tax that the House shall go into a tariff debate, with a free hand to every one to demand an opportunity to amend any schedules of the Dingley law.

The Ways and Means Committee has asked the Committee on Rules to bring in a rule to provide for taking up the repeal bill; its ample consideration in the House, and its final passage, but preventing amendment, and thereby avoiding the danger of a long-drawn-out tariff discussion. Of course, the repeal bill will not be taken up until a rule can be adopted, and the merchants of the country interested in the repeal of the war taxes will soon know what the trouble is, and where the blame lies.

RECIPROCITY TREATIES.

WILL BE TAKEN UP.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today had a special meeting for the consideration of the question of taking up the reciprocity treaties negotiated by Commissioner Kasson and acting upon them. The majority of the members of the committee decided in favor of taking up the treaties, and they will accordingly be considered soon. This decision brings again into view the Jamaican reciprocity treaty, which is opposed by the Southern California fruit growers. It is quite probable that this treaty will be made a test of action, and if it fails, no other will be considered.

MARSHAL OF ARIZONA NOT YET ESTABLISHED.

DANIELS IS TOLD TO KEEP HANDS OFF THE OFFICE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The case of H. S. Daniels, nominated by the President for Marshal of the Territory of Arizona and whose nomination has been reconsidered by the Senate after being confirmed, was again discussed in secret session of the Senate for a couple of hours today. This morning Senator Hoar, chairman of the Senate Judicial Committee, went to the White House and had a talk with the President about the nomination. At Senator Hoar's suggestion the President started an investigation of the charges against Daniels by telegraphing to friends in Wyoming and Colorado, where Daniels has lived, to ask them to look up the man's record. When the case came up in the Senate this was all explained by Senator Hoar, who said that if the President had made a mistake in nominating Daniels, he would rectify it.

It developed, even, in the Senate that Daniels will still get the appointment if the charge of stealing cannot be substantiated against him. There are other charges, but the Senate will disregard these. One of them is that Daniels killed a man at one time, but it developed today that he had to kill the man or be killed himself.

It was explained in the Senate today why the President appointed Daniels. When Roosevelt and Daniels were climbing San Juan Hill together and bullets were flying thick, there was discovered, near the crest of the hill, a little band of Spanish sharpshooters, hidden behind bushes, and picking off American soldiers. Col. Roosevelt found out just where the sharpshooters were located, and, calling Daniels, whom he knew to be absolutely without fear, said: "Daniels, can you get some men with you and drive out those sharpshooters from behind those bushes?"

Daniels said he could. He gathered a few daring men and started. It was about ten to one that Daniels and his little band would all be killed, but they were not. They made a Wild West rush at the Spaniards and killed several of them. The rest fled.

When that story of daring was told, the Senators quit discussing the case. As one Senator said, "Maybe the President has made a mistake, but he has shown us again by this appointment that he himself has red blood, and that he admires it in others."

DANIELS NOTIFIED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—In the executive session of the Senate today the nomination of Benjamin Daniels to be Marshal of the Territory of Arizona was continued. Senator Hoar, as chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, which reported favorably on the nomination, explained that Daniels's commission already had been issued, rendering it impracticable to adopt Senator Teller's motion to reconsider the vote by which he had been confirmed.

Further explanation was made to the effect that the President had begun an examination into the case on his own responsibility by wiring to Cheyenne for particulars concerning the man who was imprisoned there and who is supposed to have been Daniels, and by telegraphing to Daniels himself, instructing him not to enter on

PILLARS OF FLAME.

Gas Main Bursts in Chicago.

Thirteen Lives Lost and Scores Injured.

Explosion Follows Explosion Shooting Up Manholes.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Thirteen lives were lost, many persons slightly injured, two buildings at No. 37 Twenty-second street were wrecked, and $50,000 damage done by an explosion of gas tonight at the intersection of Twenty-second street and Archer avenue. The dead:

OTTO TROSTLE, 39 years, butcher.
MRS. OTTO TROSTLE, 30 years.
OTTO TROSTLE, JR., 2 years of age.
LENA TROSTLE, 7 years of age.
ANNA TROSTLE, 9 years of age.
MAMIE TROSTLE, 11 years of age.
FRED TROSTLE, butcher, nephew of Otto Trostle, 23 years of age.
SOPHIE KNIGHT, domestic in Trostle family.
MRS. M. KAUFERT, No. 374 Twenty-second street.
EDWARD KAUFERT, 14 years of age.
ANDREW KOLB, roomer with Mrs. Kaufert.

Among the injured are:

MRS W. J. M'LEOD, cut and badly bruised.

TIMOTHY MERNAHAN, fireman, hands badly burned.

J. P. COLLINS, street car conductor, blown through car from end to end, cut and slight internal injuries.

A. BARNES, street car conductor, blown from car into street, badly bruised.

The list of injured may be extended to seventy-five or 100, as there were many persons in the neighborhood who sustained slight injuries from flying glass or slight bruises caused by falls, but whose names have not been reported.

Only one of the bodies of the dead, that of Bitie Lena Trostle, has been recovered. All that is known of the fate of the other twelve reported dead is that they are thought to have been—most of them are known to have been—in the demolished houses, and since the explosion no trace of them has been found.

The cause of the explosion is unknown, and it has not yet been determined whether it was sewer gas or illuminating gas. Mains filled with the latter were instantly ablaze after the explosion, and a succession of explosions followed the flames, shooting up through the manholes in the street. It will be difficult to ascertain whether illuminating gas exploded, or whether the mains were broken by an explosion of sewer gas.

Many people living in the vicinity believe that the first explosion was in a main at Twenty-second street and Archer avenue.

Two other explosions of gas followed so quickly that it was hard to distinguish them. The first to explode was a main at Twenty-second street and Archer avenue. Then the manhole half a block south on Archer avenue was thrown into the air by a loud explosion. Flames leaped and roared from the hole. The fire spread below the street, and smaller manholes were blown into the air. The flames from the first gas main shot high into the air, and reached, with the aid of the wind, the Trustle butcher shop. The building was a three-story frame structure, and it had been weakened and nearly wrecked by the shock. It is supposed that the occupants of the building were knocked unconscious or were too panic-stricken to rush from the place.

The flames caught the weather-worn timbers. The dry and rotting wood was food for the fire, and in an instant the flames had enveloped the structure. With a roar the buildings collapsed, and the occupants, with one exception, were carried with it to the basement.

Window glass throughout the neighborhood was broken, and bottles and glassware in the dwellings and stores were thrown to the floor and broken.

Many persons in buildings near the explosions were knocked down. Scores of men and women many of them carrying children, rushed to the streets. They were greeted by the glare of the fire from the manholes. Fearing further explosions, the people rushed down the street, many of the women screaming with fright. On several street cars near the place the windows were smashed and the passengers severely shaken up. When people in the cars saw flames gush from the ground, all hands rushed for the doors. A number of persons were bruised and knocked down in the excitement. One car filled with passengers was thrown from the tracks.

Adjoining the Trostle building was a two-story frame building, in which John McLeod had a saloon. It vanished in the same second as the meat market. It was reported that one or two people were killed here, but the story could not be substantiated.

In the ruins of the building occupied by Trostle and McLeod the flames burned so fiercely that even though the inmates had not been killed by the first force of the explosion they must have met a quick death by fire.

Close to the Trostle building stood the People's Hospital, a small affair, which had a few patients. The building was badly racked, and every window in it blown out, but none of the patients were injured. One of the hospital attendants sustained slight cuts, caused by flying glass. The patients were hastily removed to safer grounds.

OTHER BODIES RECOVERED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5.—At 5:30 o'clock this evening, the searchers in the ruins uncovered the dead bodies of Thierry, Krenning and McBride, the last in the ruins. All three bodies lay close together. Apparently they had been caught in the crash as they started to ascend the stairs to rescue their imprisoned companions on the upper floors.

BAILEY RESIGNED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HELENA (Mont.) Feb. 5.—A crisis was reached in the Wool Growers' Convention, when a resolution was adopted indorsing the manufacture and use of oleomargarine, and pledging the support of the association to assist in the defeat of the McCleary Oleomargarine Bill now pending before Congress. As a result of the passage of the resolution, Secretary Bailey tendered his resignation, and immediately left his desk. Secretary Bailey is dairy commissioner of Oregon.

DYNAMITED BANK AND KILLED SHERIFF.

UNAIDED THE BRAVE OFFICER ATTACKED BAND OF OUTLAWS.

Trail of Blood Indicates That His Heroism Was not Altogether Ineffective, but When Help Arrived His Lips Were Sealed Forever.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

EORT SMITH (Ark.) Feb. 5.—Robbers at 2:30 o'clock this morning, at Clarksville, Ark., blew up the safe of the Bank of Clarksville with dynamite, secured a sum estimated at $5000, killed John Powers, Sheriff of Johnson county, who attempted to capture them, and escaped before the citizens were aware of their presence.

There appears to have been from four to six men in the gang. They tied their horses on the outskirts of the town, and made their way unobserved to the bank, which is situated on the north side of the public square. After gaining an entrance they destroyed the safe with dynamite, secured what money was not destroyed, and made their way to the street. There they were confronted by Sheriff Powers, who opened fire upon them. The robbers returned the fire, using both revolvers and Winchesters. Powers stood his ground, and emptied two revolvers before he was killed, although it is believed he was mortally wounded by the first volley from the robbers. When citizens arrived a little later Powers was dead, and there was no trace of the robbers except a trail of blood that indicated that the Sheriff had wounded one or perhaps more of his assailants.

Powers roomed on the second floor of an adjoining building, and had been awakened by the explosion.

The bank officials today were unable to give the exact amount of plunder secured, but stated that the bank was insured against loss. As late as 11 o'clock today no attempt had been made to arrest the robbers except to wire all adjoining towns to be on the lookout for them.

Powers had been Sheriff of Johnson county for twelve years, and was known to be a fearless man and a crack shot.

MANAGER GOT THE COIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Clara Morris and her husband, Frank C. Harriott, were relieved this morning from an embarrassing situation by the arrival of funds from Omaha. The disappearance of Thomas Broadhurst, manager for Miss Morris, with all the cash, was responsible for the difficulty. The absence of Broadhurst caused Miss Morris to break her engagement to lecture at Omaha, last night, as she could not get there. Harriott tried every way to raise money to pay the bills and buy tickets to Omaha. He even offered to pawn some of Miss Morris's jewels, but being unable to make any satisfactory arrangement the lecturer and her husband had to await the arrival of funds.

Miss Morris and her husband put in two very miserable days after the discovery of Broadhurst's disappearance. The actress appeared here Monday night; the proceeds were turned over to Broadhurst, and he has not been seen since. Not trace of him can be found.

Word from Chicago says F. Wright Newman, under whose management Miss Morris lectured in Chicago, was not greatly surprised when informed of Manager Broadhurst's disappearance.

"My dealings with Mr. Broadhurst were not of a very satisfactory nature," said he. "Miss Morris experienced the same difficulty. We could not locate him while he was in Chicago. Miss Morris's embarrassment can only be temporary, as her husband is wealthy, being a relative of the Havemeyers of New York."

Kitchener Captures His Last Gun.

Hard Lines for Noted Boer Commander.

Field Cornet Wessels Falls in Battle—Other British Successes.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The British pursuit of Gen. De Wet has been successful to the extent that his last gun has been captured, and Commandant Wessels, one of his principal lieutenants, has been routed. Lord Kitchener sent the news in a dispatch from Pretoria, dated Tuesday, February 4, as follows:

"Byng's column, while proceeding toward Liebenburgviei, after a night march, attacked and routed a considerable force of the enemy under Commandant Wessels. We captured a fifteen-pounder and a pompom taken from Firman's column, and also a Boer pompom that was the last gun De Wet had, and three wagons of ammunition, 150 horses and 100 mules. The Boer casualties were five men killed, six wounded and twenty-seven men captured.

"Among the killed was Field Cornet Wessels. Among the prisoners is Capt. Mulier of the Staats Artillery. The enemy was scattered. Our casualties were slight.

"The National Scouts, near Middleburg (Cape Colony) captured thirteen prisoners.

"Plumer, near Amersfoort (Transvaal,) captured seven prisoners and 500 head of cattle.

"Gen. Gilbert Hamilton captured twelve prisoners."

"Maj. Leader's force surprised De la Rey's commando, killing seven and capturing 131. The British casualties were slight, no British being killed."

HOPEFUL VIEW OF SITUATION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Montague White, representative of the Boer republics in America, commenting upon the unfavorable action of the British government in the peace negotiations, said:

"The reply of Lord Lansdowne does not close the door to peace negotiations, but simply points out that these should be concluded in South Africa and not in Europe. It must, however, be understood that as a condition precedent to any effective negotiations, the Boer authorities in Europe and the Boer leaders in the field must be placed in communication with one another. President Steyn will not be a party to a settlement without the consent of President Kruger and vice versa. The offer of the delegates to proceed to South Africa to confer there and then return, involving a delay of at least three months, is convincing evidence that the Boer situation is much better and more hopeful than the news from British sources would lead one to believe.

"With regard to the statement that the plenipotentiaries have no letters of credence later than March, 1900, this does not, in the least, imply that their powers are invalid, for these remain in force until canceled. They are in constant communication with the leaders in the field—that is, as constant as the means of locomotion will permit, for the mails and cable are entirely in British control. The refusal of the British government to accept foreign intervention is wholly irrelevant to the question. The Dutch government would not, after the elapse of two years and three months have approached the British government with peace proposals unless the latter had first signified its consent. This is a well-established principle in diplomacy. The action of the British government is not a real refusal, but, on the contrary, a very direct encouragement to the friends of peace to persevere in their efforts to bring about an equitable settlement. The situation is very hopeful and I reiterate what I have said so often and what I convincedly believe, that no country could use its oral influence in a more friendly and effective way to bring about an end of this terrible war than the United States of America."

CAUSE OF BOER WAR.

STERNBERG'S VIEW OF IT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Count Adelbert Sternberg, who took part in the Boer campaign, and who declares that the treatment he has received from the British press and official and non-official Englishmen leaves him no cause to be an Anglophobe, has written a letter to the London Times, says the London correspondent of the New York Times, in which he says that, while England is hated, the Englishman is respected and loved.

"The economic advantage to be derived from the gold fields, says Count Sternberg, was merely a contributory cause of the South African war. The real cause, making action imperative, was the English principle, the essence of which is free trade and straightforward competition. On the continent this feeling is not understood, because the continent does not enjoy the blessings of civilization and a government based on the word "straight."

Count Sternberg says he always thought England was the enemy of the continent until he visited the United States and studied the economic conditions there. He now believes that the continental hatred of England is ungrateful, and that the continent ought to awake and recognize that its true enemy is arising in the West, like a great sun of gold whose first rays already have been projected across the Atlantic. Germany and all Europe should join with England.

THAT "HORSE EXPERT."

MAJ. LEE'S EXPLANATION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Maj. Arthur Lee, formerly British military attaché at the Embassy at Washington, who announced in the House of Commons Monday night that the British army officers purchasing horses in the United States could have had the services of the "chief horse expert" of the United States army, said to a representative of the Associated Press today that Adjt.-Gen. Corbin was quite accurate in saying that he (Maj. Lee) never had any communication with the adjutant-general's department on the subject of horse buying. At the same time, said the major, he had nothing to withdraw in his statement, as cabled to the Associated Press.

"The expression used," said Maj. Lee "the indefinite term of 'chief horse expert of the United States army,' as I had no intention of indicating any more closely the individual referred to. My only object in mentioning the matter was to criticise the English government for its neglect of opportunities."

BOTHA PUNISHED SMUTS.

FARM BURNING INTERDICTED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] In accordance with the promise of Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, to Parliament, the letter recently captured in South Africa has been published. It is from Gen. Smuts to Gen. Botha, and is dated September 2, 1901. Gen. Smuts protest against his dismissal for burning farms at Bremensdorp. The writer of the letter admits that farm burning violates Boer principles, but contends it was justified in this case because Bremensdorp was outside the Boer borders. Gen. Smuts pleads his military prowess as a reason for the mitigation of his punishment. In the course of the letter he shows that at Botha's orders the Boers drove their women unwillingly into the British lines to force them into the concentration camps.

The Conservative papers point to this latter as proving Boer brutality and treachery, while the Daily News points out that, although Smuts was a successful general and a personal friend of Botha, the latter was inexorable in punishing him for farm burning.

THANK DUTCH PREMIER.

BOER LEADERS IN CONFERENCE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

THE HAGUE, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] As an outcome of the conferences held here, the Boer delegates have issued a communique thanking the Dutch government for its efforts toward bringing about peace in South Africa, and denying the British statement that they have had no instructions from South Africa since March, 1900.

The delegates affirm that they possess plenary powers still in force, and declare that the reply of Great Britain to the Dutch note proves that the only object of the former country is the extermination of the Boer nation, and is a further obstacle to any idea, on the part of the delegation, of applying to the British government for safe conducts, or anything else.

It is understood that the Boer delegates with Dr. Leyds, the European representative of the Transvaal, will have another conference with Kruger today. It is rumored here that Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch Premier, will request the use of the cables in order to sound Steyn, former President of the Orange Free State, respecting the waiving of independence, and to induce Steyn and Schalkburgher to issue a proclamation recognising the right of the delegates in Europe to represent the republics in any negotiations.

Mr. Wessels, in an interview, insisted that there could be no valid negotiations without the concurrence of the Boer delegates in Europe, and, like the other Boer leaders here, he seemed convinced that neither Steyn, Schalkburgher nor the Boer generals would approach Lord Kitchener with peace overtures.

REGULATES WORK IN MINES.

PARIS, Feb. 5.—The Chamber of Deputies today, after a long discussion, by a vote of 238 to 219, adopted a bill regulating the period of daily work in the mines. This bill provides that a nine-hour day shall be instituted at the coal pits at the end of six months from the day the measure is adopted. At the end of two years a day's work shall be reduced to eight, and one-half hours, and at the end of another two years it shall be reduced to eight hours.

HANFORD, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive dispatch.] Mrs. Patrick Tallant, a well-known lady of this city, was terribly burned this morning at her resi... She had been engaged in superintending some work in her yard, and in some manner her clothing ignited. When the remains of a brush fire which... thought to be out. A Chinaman who was working for her heard her scream and tried to tear her burning clothes off. Before the flames could be extinguished, however, she was terribly burned. From her knees to her... she was burned almost to a crisp. Her condition, about two-thirds of the body being burned off.

Medical aid was immediately summoned, but little hope is entertained for her recovery. Her husband, who is on his way to Butte, Mont., has been telegraphed for. The Tallants, who are wealthy people, came here from Los Angeles, where they are well known.

The gardener was severely burned while attempting to extinguish the flames.

It is Expected That Within Months All the Canals and Lat... Will Be Run—Tuolumne River is Source of Supply.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MODESTO, Feb. 5.—The board of directors have finally completed all arrangements for the completion of the entire canal system, which will open $0,500 acres to irrigation under the district system. All litigation has been compromised, and the bondholders and the land owners in completing the system by remitting the defaulted interest and refund the bonds for 5 years in a new issue at 5 per... Rights-of-way committees are now securing rights, and bids will be received for the completion of the system by March 4 next.

Headworks and heavy tunnel grading and fluming have been nearly completed, and all that remains is the construction on the level land, and repairing of the upper works, which have deteriorated during the past few years, while the question was in litigation. The entire system will be completed for $285,000, as estimated by engineers. But six months will be required to run all canals and laterals. All the necessary surveys and estimates have been made, and bids will be advertised for in a few days.

The land in the district is all level and but little grading will be necessary. Where water has been used all kinds of semi-tropical fruits and products can be raised in abundance. Many people from a distance have already secured land in the district, and are preparing to improve it in time for water.

The source of supply is the Tuolumne River, and a mammoth irrigation dam has been constructed across the river which has withstood the flood waters for ten years. It is the highest overflow dam in the United States, and cost $600,000.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A...

STOCKTON, Feb. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Foster, who conduct the Repeller Ho... at San Francisco, where Mrs. Ha... mond Moore stopped, visited the morgue here today an d took a long look at the remains of the woman who committed suicide here. Both declined to talk about the matter, and refused to say whether they believed the body was that of Mrs. Moore. They also looked at her effects, and asked to see a long coat worn by Mrs. Moore, but this was not found with her effects here.

Chief of Police Briare advanced the theory that the dead woman here was Mrs. Aiken, the first wife of the Sacramento man, the one now being held there being his second wife. Investigation convinces the Chief of Police that Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Moore are one and the same person. He states that during her stay in Stockton she told her history to a lodging-house keeper, declaring that she had been married to a man named Moore, who had committed suicide a year and a half ago.

FIRE CAUGHT HER CLOTHING.

Mrs. Patrick Tallant Fatally Burned.

Formerly a Resident of Los Angeles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HANFORD, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Patrick Tallant, a well-known lady of this city, was terribly burned this morning at her residence. She had been engaged in superintending some work in her yard, and in some manner her clothing ignated from the remains of a brush fire which was thought to be out. A Chinaman, who was working for her heard her screams, and tried to tear her burning clothes off. Before the flames could be extinguished, however, she was terribly burned. From her knees to her waist she was burned almost to a charred condition, about two-thirds of the skin being burned off.

Medical aid was immediately summoned, but little hope is entertained for her recovery. Her husband, who is on his way to Butte, Mont., has been telegraphed for. The Tallants, who are wealthy people, came here from Los Angeles, where they are well known.

The gardener was severely burned while attempting to extinguish the flames.

WILL RENDER FERTILE THOUSANDS OF ACRES.

ALL LITIGATION OVER MODESTO'S BIG DITCH SETTLED.

It is Expected That Within Six Months All the Canals and Laterals Will Be Run—Tuolumne River is the Source of Supply.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS, P.M.]

MODESTO, Feb. 5.—The board of directors have finally completed all arrangements for the completion of the entire canal system, which will open up 30,500 acres to irrigation under the district system. All litigation has been compromised, and the bondholders will aid the land owners in completing the system by remitting the defaulted interest and refund the bonds for forty years in a new issue at 5 per cent. Rights-of-way committees are now securing rights, and bids will be received for the completion of the system on March 4 next.

Headworks and heavy tunneling, grading and fluming have been nearly completed, and all that remains is the construction on the level land, and the repairing of the upper works, which have deteriorated during the past few years, while the question was in litigation. The entire system will be completed for $285,000, as estimated by surveyors. But six months will be required to run all canals and laterals. All of the necessary surveys and estimates have been made, and bids will be advertised for in a few days.

The land in the district is all level, and but little grading will be necessary. Where water has been used all kinds of semi-tropical fruits and products can be raised in abundance. Many people from a distance have already secured land in the district, and are preparing to improve it in time for the water.

The source of supply is the Tuolumne River, and a mammoth irrigation dam has been constructed across the river, which has withstood the flood waters for ten years. It is the highest overflow dam in the United States, and cost $800,000.

IDENTITY OF SUICIDE.

PROBING THE MYSTERY.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

STOCKTON, Feb. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Foster, who conduct the Repeller Hotel at San Francisco, where Mrs. Hammond Moore stopped, visited the morgue here today an dtook a long look at the remains of the woman who committed suicide here. Both declined to talk about the matter, and refused to say whether they believed the body was that of Mrs. Moore. They also looked at her effects, and asked to see a long coat worn by Mrs. Moore, but this was not found with her effects here.

Chief of Police Briare advanced the theory that the dead woman here is Mrs. Aiken, the first wife of the Sacramento man, the one now being alive there being his second wife. Investigation convinces the Chief of Police that Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Moore are one and the same person. He states that during her stay in Stockton she told her history to a lodging-house keeper, declaring that she had been married to a man named Moore, who had committed suicide a year and a half ago.

EXHIBIT IN LOS ANGELES.

TULARE COUNTY CONTRIBUTES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VISALIA, Feb. 5.—The Tulare County Board of Supervisors has agreed to give $25 per month for six months toward the support of the San Joaquin Valley exhibit at Los Angeles. An order was also passed giving the local Knights of Pythias $325 with which to make an exhibit of Tulare-county products at the meeting of the Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias in San Francisco next August.

WORLD'S FAIR.

EXPEE WILL SPREAD ITSELF.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—The Southern Pacific Company intends making an elaborate exhibit at the St. Louis fair of the resources of the States and Territories through which the road passes. The display will be in charge of W. H. Mills, land agent of the company.

Referring to the proposed exhibit, Mills says: "What we would like now is for counties to make appropriations to boom their districts. Should they spend money in this way we will have so much the more left to spend in other channels. Several counties have already communicated with me, and have appropriated handsome sums toward the exhibition. I am also very anxious to get horticulturists and others to make donations."

GEODETIC SURVEY.

COPPER RIVER GOLD FIELDS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Feb. 5.—Because of recent promising gold discoveries in the Chestanaca country in the Copper River basin, Alaska, the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey has detailed a party of its men to leave Seattle to make an extensive topographical and geological survey of the country early next spring.

D. C. Witherspoon, assistant topographer of the service, arrived in Seattle last night. He will purchase provisions here and start for Valdes next week. His intention is to get supplies into the interior in advance of the party. F. C. Schraeder, who made a partial survey of the Copper River basin in 1900, will be in charge of the survey.

LOS ANGELES WOMEN TAKE PROMINENT PART.

READ INTERESTING PAPERS BEFORE WOMEN'S FEDERATION.

Mrs. Prior Presents Report on Club Extension and Mrs. Porter Discusses the Influence of the Press Upon Education—Appointments Announced.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Disagreeable weather did not affect the attendance upon the club women's convention today. President Burdette called the meeting to order.

Mrs. J. Lowenberg, the recording secretary, in her report, announced that at present the federation was composed of ninety-five clubs, with a membership of 7567.

The growth has been principally in the Los Angeles district, which has thirty-six clubs, with a membership of 2188, having had an increase of eleven clubs, with a membership of 368. The San Diego district stands second in growth, having fourteen clubs and having gained six clubs, with a membership of 251, the total membership of the district being 873.

Mrs. Solomon Jewett of Bakersfield presented her report as treasurer. It showed that since the organization of the State Federation, the receipts had amounted to $1529; the disbursemets were $991 and the balance on hand was $838.

Mrs. F. E. Prior of Los Angeles read the report of the Committee on Club Extension. She read the figures of increase in clubs and membership, and urged upon all club members the advisability of reciprocity meetings in all districts where the larger clubs should invite the smaller clubs to unite with them in discussion of club topics.

Mrs. Florence Collins Porter of Los Angeles read a paper on the "Influence of the Press on Education." She said in part:

"The newspaper is an every-day cyclopedia of the present. The newspaper is the literature of the masses. 'As a man readieth in the newspapers, so is he.' There is yet much to condemn in modern journalism. Does the press create public sentiment, or does public sentiment direct its policy, is a question that is freely asked. It is easier to criticize than to do. Yellow journalism can have no defense. It panders to the depraved taste of those who want that class of literature, and the people who buy it are equally responsible for its existence."

Mrs. Burdette announced the following appointments: Mrs. Mary Darling, vice-president pro tem. of the San Diego district; Mrs. W. T. Lewis to the same office in the Los Angeles district, and Mrs. G. G. Greenleaf of Redlands, to the Committee on Resolutions.

At tonight's session, the "property rights of women" were discussed by Mrs. Martha Strickland Clark, Miss Mabel Craft and Mrs. Lou V. Chapin of Los Angeles.

ACCUSED OF SWINDLING.

ELK GROVE POSTMASTER.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Joseph Hasman, postmaster at Elk Grove, Sacramento county, has been arrested by United States Marshal Shine on a warrant charging him with swindling the government out of $18.

The warrant was based on an indictment found by the grand jury on information, which alleged that on October 2, 1900, Hasman reported in his "stamps-canceled" account, on which his compensation is based, $194.93, whereas the amount actually canceled is alleged to have been only $176.05. After his arrest he furnished bonds in $1000, and was released pending a preliminary examination.

NEEDS MORE REST.

NORDICA CANCELS DATES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Mme. Lillian Nordica, acting on the advice of her physician, will cancel all local dates, rest at least ten days longer and then probably fill her engagement in Portland, Or. After that is possible she may return to this city, and be heard. This, however, is uncertain. Her condition is not serious, it is stated, but she has not recovered from the shock to her system sustained in a railroad accident and requires rest.

NO CHANGES TO MAKE.

WELLS-FARGO EXPRESS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Dudley C. Evans, the new head of Wells, Fargo & Co., has returned to San Francisco to assume his duties as acting-president. In an interview, he said:

"I have no innovations or changes to make. Everything will be carried on as it was under the presidency of Mr. Valentine. There will not even be a change in the office force of the president. Nor will there be any changes in the salaries in the various departments."

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE CLUBS.

DELEGATES APPORTIONED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—The formal call for the State Convention of Republican Clubs, to be held at San José, April 14 and 15, has been issued from the headquarters of the league. The apportionment of delegates is as follows:

"Each Republican club in California shall be entitled to one delegate-at-large; one delegate for each twenty-five members upon the rolls, and its president, secretary and treasurer, ex-officio. Other ex-officio members are all officers of the National League in California, officers of the State and Congressional leagues, and the president of the American College League of California. Alternates should be chosen for each delegate, and they will be accorded seats in the convention with their respective delegations."

Reduced railroad rates will be granted to delegates.

INJURIES KILL RILEY.

M'INTOSH UNDER ARREST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLIFTON (Ariz.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Thomas J. Riley, formerly of San Francisco, who has been running a photograph gallery in Clifton, died this evening at a hospital, from an assault made on him Monday night by J. O. McIntosh, a gambler.

The trouble occurred in the Richelieu saloon over a remark made by Riley to McIntosh's wife, who dealt a crap game in the house. After knocking Riley down, it is alleged, McIntosh jumped on Riley with both feet, from the effects of which death followed.

McIntosh is under arrest closely guarded, and an autopsy will be held on the body tonight, and the Coroner's inquest tomorrow. McIntosh is a native of Arizona and well known. Riley was from Northern Arizona, having been here only a few months.

BIG MAIL SUBSIDY.

CANADIAN PACIFIC STEAMERS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Feb. 5.—A five-year contract has been entered into between the British government and the Canadian Pacific Railway for the conveyance of troops, mails and stores between Halifax, Quebec, Montreal and Hongkong, for which service the Canadian line will receive £60,000 as a subsidy yearly, on which the Canadian government will contribute £15,000. A stipulation is made that the liners of the Canadian Pacific Railway are liable to war service, and are to be constructed under admiralty supervision.

BARD WILL HELP.

ANTI-DEBRIS APPROPRIATION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—Robert T. Devlin, attorney for the State Anti-Débris Association, has received a letter from Senator Bard that he will do all in his power to secure an appropriation of $150,000 from Congress for building restraining works for the débris. The prospect is that Congress will make the appropriation, and work will begin in the near future, as instructions have been received that the work may proceed.

NATIVE SONS' HALL BURNED.

COSTLY BLAZE IN SANTA ROSA.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 5.—A fire broke out in Native Sons' Hall at Occidental about 10 o'clock tonight, and for a time threatened to wipe out the little town which was almost entirely burned down a few years ago. From Native Sons' Hall the flames quickly spread to the general-merchandise store of Joseph Asti and McCandle Bros', blacksmith shop, all of these places suffering severely. The Franchesci Hotel and the Occidental newspaper office narrowly escaped destruction. The total loss is estimated at $10,000.

SENT UP FOR LIFE.

FOOTPAD JOHN MURPHY.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Another footpad received the limit in Judge Cook's court today. John Murphy, an old offender, was convicted yesterday of having held up and brutally beaten Harry Lawrence at Powell and Geary streets on the morning of December 2. Today he was sentenced to San Quentin for life.

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 5.—A copy of the Nome Nugget received today states that Rev. Father Jacquet, who is well known all over the Pacific Coast, has been committed to the Oregon Insane Asylum. Father Jacquet has been engaged in missionary work in Alaska and on the Pacific Coast for twenty-eight years. He formerly lived in California.

Ten Prisoners Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Ten of the military prisoners confined in the stockade in one of the camps at the Presidio escaped last night and have not yet been traced. Their exit from the inclosure in which they were confined was made by a tunnel through the ground, which they had evidently been secretly constructing for several nights.

Fatal Quarrel Over Billiards.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 5.—A negro named Watson early this morning assaulted with a rock and probably fatally beat a Mexican by the name of Arce. They had quarreled over the settlement of a game of billiards. Watson is in custody, together with three Mexicans, believed to have had something to do with the row.

WIFE'S SISTER BILL AGAIN.

Fifteenth Appearance in House of Commons.

Cecil Family Leads the Opposition.

Son of Premier Thinks it Would Disrupt Many Happy Families.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The perennial wife's sister bill reappeared in Parliament today in a form identical with that of last year. On fourteen occasions the House of Commons has affirmed the principle of the bill, which, however, has always met with insurmountable obstruction, generally from the bishops, in the upper house. The advocates of the measure today brought forward all the old arguments especially dwelling on colonial legislation, which is considered to be an unanswerable argument in favor of the bill. The loyalty of the colonies during the South African war is advanced as an additional reason for the removal of the injustice which the present law inflicts on a large number of children, who are the fruit of colonial marriages.

The Cecils, as usual, appeared in the forefront of the opposition to the bill. Lord Hugh Cecil, fifth son of Lord Salisbury, and Conservative member of Greenwith, and Evelyn Cecil, also a family connection of the Premier, and Conservative member for Aston Manor, drew harrowing pictures of the disturbance which the passage of the measure would bring about in the happy relation of many a sister-in-law, and how the comforts the latter was capable of rendering the husband when he had lost his wife would be withdrawn, should a Parliamentary hint be given that such consolation would be a step toward further matrimony. Sir William Gordon, Liberal, reminded the Cecils that the bill did not provide for compulsory marriage with a deceased wife's sister, and he convulsed the House by reading a letter from a woman friend telling him of a man who had married the eldest of seven sisters.

"What a terrible thing it would be," said the writer, "if this bill becomes a law, and this man's wife died. He would have to marry all his seven sisters-in-law at once! It would be no better than a harem."

Before the vote was declared, there was an angry anti-Cecil demonstration. Both Lord Hugh and Evelyn Cecil used every parliamentary trick to delay reaching a vote within the time limits of Wednesday, and when they returned to the House from the lobbies both of Lord Salisbury's relatives were greeted with angry cries of "Shame, churlish," and similar epithets.

CHAMBER OF SHIPPING.

WANTS OUR LAWS MENDED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] At the annual meeting of the Chamber of Shipping of the United Kingdom, today, several points interesting to the United States were raised. Col. Emil Ropner, M.P., president of the organization, referred to "crimping" and "blood money" in the United States. He said the chamber earnestly hoped the British Ambassador at Washington would succeed in inducing the United States government to pass legislation making "crimping" a criminal offense.

Regarding ship subsidies, Col. Ropner said the United States would probably pass a ship subsidy bill with the result that there would be a rapid extension of the United States mercantile navy and keener competition, which would require all the energy and enterprise of British ship owners to meet.

The chamber unanimously passed a resolution urging their government to make an effort to secure the exemption of British ships from the payment of tonnage tax levied at United States ports, and use its good offices to induce the United States, pending further legislation, to enforce the present Federal and State laws in regard to the desertion of seamen, and the payment of "blood money."

The president read a letter from the British Consul at San Francisco saying that seamen are not obtainable without "blood money," but Col. Ropner explained that this was because there was always a superabundance of seamen during the first few months of the year.

SHOOTING OF COWAN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VANCOUVER, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chinese soldiers, 200 in number, fired on the steamer Nanning on the West River, wounding the chaplain of H.M. Flagship Glory, and slightly injuring another officer. The shooting took place at midday on the 13th ultimo., when no trouble of any kind was suspected. The affair was reported to Hongkong by Rev. E. J. Hardy, military chaplain at the city, and he said the soldiers concerned, though native troops, were mutineers. The two men wounded were Rev. Charles E. L. Cowan, chaplain, and an unknown European customs officer, whose name Hardy was unable to obtain, and who had his leg grazed.

The Nanning met the gunboats Sandpiper and Robin and reported what had occurred. The Robin proceeded at once to investigate and Cowan was brought to Hongkong on the Sandpiper. The latest details before the Empress of China left for this city, did not throw any further light upon the identity of the mutineers.

IRISH ARE WORSE THAN ARE THE BOERS.

SALISBURY AGAIN GLOOMY OVER NEXT-DOOR SITUATION.

The British Government Means Business With the Burghers, But the Maintenance of Its Position in Hostile Ireland Requires Strenuous Exertions.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Lord Salisbury, the Premier, unveiled a life-sized marble statue of the late Queen Victoria, at the Junior Constitutional Club tonight. Speaking at a dinner after the unveiling, the Premier referred to the recent Dutch note in a tone, for him, of unusual flippancy. He said that doubtless some of his auditors thought it a bit of luck to catch a Cabinet Minister and extract from him some information concerning that abortive crisis which had lately filled columns in the newspapers. He doubted, however, if they would extract much. For himself, he was unable to imagine the object of the Dutch government, for whose friendly feelings he had the greatest admiration, but he could not see the precise object they hoped to gain by his curious step.

"It was clear that the Dutch," continued Lord Salisbury, "had no authorization from our enemies on the continent, since from the moment this action on the part of The Netherlands government was announced these enemies vied with each other in declaring the Dutch action to be undesired.

"His Majesty's government certainly knew noting of the genesis of this movement. The fact that such a step was taken, however, reminds me that we have arrived at a condition of things which, in a critical period of this character, always occurred—a period when there would be many persons attempting to bring numerous people of different views together, and when there would be many suggestions which it would be neither easy nor desirable to notice."

The Premier explained that his only reason for alluding to such things was that a time was coming when the people must think more of the suggestions of their intelligence and less of the suggestions of their emotions.

"There is no longer any question of sentiment," continued Lord Salisbury. "We have entered upon a matter of business which we must push through. What we are now seeking is security. Any peace which recognizes fully the rights of the sovereign and gives us security for the empire we would accept, not only with willingnes, but with delight.

"It is useless to tell us to behave so as to leave a pleasant recollection in the minds of those with whom we are fighting. The only result that can compensate for the sacrifice of blood and treasure is that for the future there shall be security in that part of the empire upon which the ambition of Mr. Kruger has poured this abundance of sorrow and desolation."

Lord Salisbury said he had no misgivings for the future, and that he believed the war had made the country more confident in its external policy, more convinced that its opinions would receive due consideration from the "comity of nations," but when the present strain had passed away, continued the speaker, there still remained duties which could not be shirked. The existence of hostile feeling in Ireland was a signal that the efforts upon which depended in no light degree the glory and continuance of the empire must not be relaxed.

"The maintenance of our position in Ireland is the most vital object the empire has, and it can only be attained by strenuous exertions," said the Premier.

He asked if the Irish people loved the government better than they did formerly, and replied himself that they did not. He said the feelings of hostility which had been expressed were more uncompromising than any expressions which had ever issued from the lips of Parnell or O'Connell. An Irish government with power to accumulate arms and ammunition would constitute a more serious threat than had the Boers.

The Premier concluded with saying that the conspicuous duty of the Unionists was to maintain a permanent junction between England and Ireland, and that it was by sustaining this junction that they would maintain the greatness of the Constitution and the splendor of the British empire.

Most Excellent Hosiery At Little Prices.
A word first. You have had trouble with hosiery. Haven't you said to yourself time and again that you would never invest another penny in hosiery about which you had no guarantee? The volume of our hosiery business is increasing, we might say, every hour. Our persistence in years gone in selling only reliable qualities is now bringing its harvest. We are as careful as ever, perhaps more so. Because our stock is so complete and large, because it contains such well-selected novelties, such standard grades, and because Hale prices are all and always low, these reasons bring you here when you want hosiery.
Women's brilliant black hosiery made with a double sole and heel, nicely knitted, well shaped and you would almost pay 25c for such a quality.
At 25c
Women's standard black hosiery, extra heavy weight, double feet—that means double wear—full fashioned, quite silky in appearance. We don't believe you would dispute it if we said 35c was the value.
At 50c
Women's cashmere hose, fine strong ribbed, made with firm double sole, high spliced heel, and most excellent in every particular.
At 15c
The strongest and best Children's hosiery a mother could ask for. Made with double knee, high spliced heel and toe, and the color is guaranteed fast. The real retail value is 25c. Such an inducement on standard goods is indeed tempting.
At 12½c
We don't hesitate to say that these are the very best hosiery we ever sold. They are perfectly stainless, one by one rib, extra fine and strong with double knee. Just worlds of wear in them. We might just as easily ask 17½c.

THRILLING ESCAPES.

St. Louis Firemen Who Eluded Death.

All of the Injured on Road to Recovery.

Skillful Fight Against Flames Prevented Disastrous Conflagration.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5.—Four of the bodies of the seven firemen killed in the Chestnut-street fire have been recovered. All the six injured men will recover.

According to Chief Swingley, one of the most skillful battles against flames in the department's history was fought. A conflagration that threatened a whole block at least, and might easily have extended farther, was restrained.

The building, which was nearly fifty years old, was weak and the water with which it had been flooded loosened its joints, and soaked its walls. When the pipemen entered the walls were already tottering, but there was nothing to warn them of their peril.

William O'Donnell, John Purcell and William O'Connell, of salvage corps, No. 1 were covering material on an upper floor when the walls started to fall. They were carried outward with it, and landed safely in the street.

William Wann, foreman of engine company No. 13, was on the second floor when the collapse came. Falling plaster warned him of the danger, and he slipped down the bannister to the first floor, and ran into the street.

Patrick F. McCarthy and William Juelich, who were about to enter the building to assist in the rescue of their comrades, were struck by falling débris and severely injured.

Fifteen persons were thought to have been in the building when it collapsed. Only a roll call could tell how many had escaped. Darkness handicapped the rescuers, for all the electric wires were cut, and the débris smothered what little fire remained in the building just before the collapse. The groans of the firemen in the débris were at first the only guides their comrades had. Calcium lights were brought on the scene, and by their glare the work of rescue proceeded. A force of negro roustabouts were procured from the levee to aid in the work. Wives, children and other relatives of the firemen gathered around the scene, and awaited tidings of their loved ones. As it became certain that all who were buried there were dead, these were led away by friends.

At 1 o'clock this morning the groans from the débris ceased, and Chief Swingley said that he had no doubt that all who had been caught were dead. It was not until 3 o'clock that the first body was found. It was that of William Dundon. A spark of life was discovered, and the mangled body was taken to the hospital. Before reaching there, however, Dundon died. Between four and five o'clock the bodies of Daniel Steels and Michael Kehoe were recovered.

For some time Patrick D. Bergin, pipeman of No. 12, was supposed to be among the missing. Later he turned up safely. The fact that yesterday was Bergin's day off probably saved his life, for his company was right in the thick of the fight.

At 8 o'clock the first shift of laborers was relieved by a new force. The work was hard and tedious, for everything was covered with several inches of ice.

A fund for the relief of the relatives of the victims started by the Post Dispatch now amounts to several hundred dollars, and that of the Merchants' Exchange reaches $3000 for a similar purpose.

FOUR MEN DEAD.

TOWBOAT EXPLOSION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 5.—In the explosion of the boilers on the towboat John W. Alles, this morning, four men were killed and of the injured four will probably die. The Alles was completely destroyed. The loss is placed at $25,000.

The boat was considered one of the best owned by the coa combine, and its boilers had been inspected but a few days ago. The surviving members of the crew claim that they were not carrying a greater pressure of steam than the government allows.

OGDEN'S INJURED.

THEY ARE OUT OF DANGER.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OGDEN (Utah) Feb. 5.—Assistant Chief Rogers, who was injured in yesterday's fire and explosion, is resting easy, and there is now no doubt of his recovery. The burns were not as bad as first reported, and the physicians say there will be no resulting disfigurement. The others injured, including Fireman Lowe, are able to be around, and their complete recovery is only a matter of a little time.

NEW SECRETARY'S POLICY.

EASURY TO BUY BONDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive patch.] So much anxiety is felt in money circles of the country about attitude and policy of the new Sec- of the Treasury toward the marthat the New York correspondent secured a statement which will not questioned in any authoritative rter. Secretary Shaw is laying his se with great care, fully appreci- g the wisdom of Secretary Gage's servatism, and he fully realizes the tion between our treasury system the money market. His first act entering office was to give notice the policy pursued by his predeor as to bond redemption would be tinued by himself. The doors still d open, and will remain open, to all earances, for an indefinite time. only will the treasury buy bonds ctly from the holders, but the Asant Treasurer at New York is still horized to purchase, at the figure en in the actuarial tables prepared the Secretary without consulting quarters here.

uring the last few weeks of his adinistration, Secretary Gage, not wishto embarrass his successor, perted applications of new banks for nission to the list of government detories to accumulate, till their numr amounted to twenty or more. retary Shaw, on looking the ground r with some care, decided that, for present, he did not wish to increase treasury's bank deposits. There already some 445 depository banks, ding about $112,000,000 of government ds. FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—SENATE.—n the conclusion of the routine busiss in the Senate today, consideration as resumed of the Urgent Deficiency ppropriation Bill. Mr. Hale, in charge the measure, made an appeal to the nate to permit the bill to come to a te. He hoped the "scandal in Alaska" would not be permitted to interre with the progress of the measure. e said the "scandal" had no relevancy an appropriation bill, and while he as powerless to prevent the discussion hoped it would not be prolonged.

Mr. McCumber of North Dakota said e had no desire to prolong the discusn, but most villainous charges had en made against men, charges which e personally knew to be unfounded d absolutely false. He declared that rtain mining syndicates had desired obtain control of the whole (Alaska) untry. He believed it would be prenature for the Senate to render a verct for or against Judge Arthur H. oyes and Alexander McKenzie before he courts had had opportunity to pass pon the merits of the case. He venured the opinion that the Senator from outh Carolina (Mr. Tillman,) who repesented a chivalrous people, and who ad reflected so seriously upon Judge oyes and Alexander McKenzie, who ad no opportunity to defend themelves, would not have made the harges against them if he had known lexander McKenzie and had been faniliar with the facts. He declared that o person could put a finger upon a ingle instance where Alexander McKenzie or Judge Noyes ever had wronged any man of a dollar. He paid high tribute to both McKenzie and udge Noyes, and, in answer to an inquiry, asserted that "not one scintilla of evidence is contained in the entire record of the case that will support he charge of conspiracy against Alexander McKenzie."

Mr. McCumber then entered upon an extended statement of the case against McKenzie, going into minute details. He maintained that the order of the Circuit Court of Appeals of San Francisco went outside of the statement of fact made to it in ordering McKenzie to turn over property of which he was the receiver. He asserted that McKenzie's lawyer advised him that the court's order was void. McKenzie, therefore, did not comply with the writ, inasmuch as if he had he would be in contempt of an order of Judge Noyes. He therefore was between two fires. In such condition it was held by able lawyers that McKenzie ought not to be adjudged guilty of any offense.

Referring to the opinion of the Circuit Court of Appeals, Mr. McCumber asserted that four-fifths of it was devoted to the discussion of an alleged attempt at conspiracy between Judge Noyes and McKenzie, the greater portion of the information concerning which came from San Francisco newspapers. He insisted that no man could conceive of a more heinous judgment than this. The parties were not convicted of conspiracy, but of contempt, and, in his opinion, ought not to have been punished to such an extent as were McKenzie, Noyes and Dubose.

The members of the Court of Appeals for the ninth circuit, he said, might be honorable men, but he was obliged to judge them by their acts. That court had convicted Judge Noyes while he was 2000 miles away, and had arraigned him in most remarkable language without an opportunity of a hearing.

Reverting to the situation as Judge Noyes found it in Alaska, Mr. McCumber declared that the mining syndicates had made every effort to bribe him, $20,000 being offered to him in one sum. Finding it impossible to bribe him, the syndicate hired, Mr. McCumber asserted, a man to make a perjured affidavit that Judge Noyes had accepted a bribe. These facts, he said, had been reported to the Attorney-General of the United States and for reporting these matters, to the United States Judicial Department, Mr. Frost, he said, had been sentenced to jail for one year, because his work had come in conflict with the Circuit Court of Appeals. That was the reason for Frost's conviction. He simply would not be a creature of the syndicate.

Mr. McCumber read the orders issued by Judge Noyes—known as the statu quo orders—upon which, he said, the judge had been convicted of contempt. Why, he asked, was Frost sent to prison and Judge Noyes only fined, if both were guilty of conspiracy? He opined that it was because Judge Noyes's character would be sufficiently blackened by a fine, and then, too, out of prison he could not be reached by a writ of habeas corpus. He referred to what to his mind, was appalling corruption in Alaska.

Mr. Tillman, interrupting, inquired whether Mr. McCumber did not think he owed to the Senate to give it all the facts concerning the "damnable corruption" of certain United States courts, to which he had referred.

Mr. McCumber replied that he had not accused the members of the San Francisco Circuit Court of Appeals of anything worse than prejudice and bias. He urged that he had proved this prejudice from the record.

TILLMAN GETS IN.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Mr. McCumber denounced the decision of the Court of Appeals as forty-eight pages of segregation of testimony out of 3000 pages of closely-printed matter. The conclusions of the court, he said, were based for the most part on evidence which the Senator from South Carolina (Mr. Tillman) would not give the least credence to. He asserted that Mr. Tillman had cast serious aspersions upon a man as honorable as he (Mr. Tillman) was—a man whom the South Carolina Senator might meet outside the chamber, and there, if he saw fit, call the vile names he had applied to him.

Mr. Tillman disclaimed any intention to reflect improperly upon anybody, his remarks, he said, being directed to the Department of Justice especially, for not doing its duty in promptly investigating and acting upon such a scandal as had developed in this, whoever were the guilty parties. He insisted that either the judges of the Circuit Court of Appeals of San Francisco were guilty of some infamy, or the Noyes party was. He felt it his duty, as he had some respect for the judiciary of the United States, to defend judges who had been arraigned so seriously and to see that their side of the controversy should go into the records.

Mr. Tillman said he appeared in the role of a defender of United States courts, when he was on record as having made many scathing criticisms of the Federal judiciary, but he remarked facetiously that he would not be doing his duty by his clients—the three judges of the San Francisco Circuit Court of Appeals, whom he had gotten into hot water—if he did not attempt at least to cool the water a little. Incidentally the South Carolina Senator, saying that the debate had been precipitated by the reading by him of a clipping from a newspaper, read a dispatch printed in a newspaper charging Benjamin Daniels, whom the Senate had confirmed as United States Marshal of Arizona, with being entirely unworthy to hold that office. Mr. Tillman made some scathing comments upon the Judiciary Committee for passing such a nomination favorably. He supposed that Senators from the State from which Daniels hailed now would be called upon to criticise him for introducing this newspaper clipping, but he did it simply to "hold up the mirror in order that the other side might see themselves as others saw them."

With this parting shot, Mr. Tillman contented himself with having printed in the record the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals in the Noyes case, Mr. McCumber having withdrawn his objection.

Mr. Stewart criticised Judge Noyes's conduct of his office. He said that he had been familiar with the law practice in mining cases for more than half a century, and that he knew the policy of the American people was to protect the locators of mines, whereas, Judge Noyes, immediately upon his arrival at Nome, had appointed receivers to take possession of at least six new mining claims, following these appointments by others of a similar character. He declared there was no precedent for a receiver in a placer mine from which gold was being constantly taken. If Judge Noyes was honest in his action, then he was utterly incompetent. Consideration of some of the amendments to the Urgent Deficiency Bill, which had been passed over, was resumed.

The first amendment, one appropriating $500,000 for the establishment at Manila of a military post, including the construction of barracks, etc., was agreed to after Mr. Hale explained that the appropriation was put upon the pending bill because it was desirable that the work should begin at once.

A bill providing $459,052 (Mexican) to reimburse the Philippine insular funds for small gunboats and ordnance stores turned over to the navy by the military authorities at Manila, caused Mr. Tillman to make some inquiries.

Mr. Hale replied that the Secretary of the Navy had made estimates for the purchase of the vessels and stores on the recommendation of a board of officers.

Mr. Tillman insisted, however, that the record did not show where the vessels came from, and what had been paid for them.

"It does not appear from the record," he said, "that the money was honestly expended. This whole business is entirely too slip-shod and slack-twisted for an honest government."

It was explained by Mr. Hale that the vessels were small craft, acquired probably from private parties, and had been converted into gunboats. They were being used for patrol duty among the islands.

Mr. Bacon of Georgia urged that the item be held up temporarily until definite information was furnished.

Mr. Teller of Colorado said there probably would be a degree of looseness about all the accounts coming from the Philippines, but he was not particularly opposed to the pending amendment, as it did not appear at all doubtful that the money actually had been expended. The amendment was agreed to.

The committee amendment striking out the House paragraph reducing the number of land offices in Alaska to one, to be located at Sitka, aroused much discussion. Mr. Cockrell said that at only one of the offices were the receipts of any importance. At one the expenses of which were in excess of $4000 annually, the receipts were only $10. He contended that the House provision ought to stand.

After a long discussion the House paragraph was stricken out and another was substituted, reducing the number of land offices and land districts in Alaska to one, the location of which shall be fixed by the President, the President to establish an additional land office for the land district of Alaska, when, in his opinion, the public service demands it. The bill was then passed.

The Senate, at 5 o'clock, went into executive session, and at 5:50 o'clock adjourned.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—House.—At the opening of the session of the House today, Mr. Hemenway of Indiana, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill and gave notice that he would call it up tomorrow.

Mr. Henry of Connecticut, in charge of the Oleomargarine Bill, thereupon asked unanimous consent that an arrangement be made to close general debate on that bill at 5 o'clock today and that the final vote be taken at 4 o'clock tomorrow. To this several members objected, and Mr. Henry then moved that general debate close today.

Mr. Williams of Mississippi protested against the proposition to close debate. Upon his request, it was unanimously agreed that the general debate should continue for two days, after which there should be one day's debate under the five-minute rule, the arrangement, however, not to interfere with the consideration of other privileged measures. The debate upon the bill was then resumed.

Mr. Allen of Kentucky, the first speaker today, opposed the bill and advocated the adoption of the substitute.

Mr. Moon of Tennessee said he did not think the substitute offered by the minority went far enough, while he considered the majority bill fatally defective. Mr. Klutz of North Carolina favored the majority bill and Mr. Scott of Kansas opposed it.

The House, at 5:05 o'clock p.m., adjourned.

SHAWS COMMENT THEREON.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Secretary Shaw's first communication on financial legislation is contained in a letter to Representative Sulzer of New York, concerning the latter's bill to deposit government funds at interest in national banks throughout the country. The letter says:

"I find on my desk awaiting my arrival, your letter of January 17, referring to House joint resolution 112, and asking information as to the amount of interest which the government would have realized had the proposed law been adopted as a part of the national banking law.

"If the surplus of money in excess of fifty millions working capital had been deposited in clearinghouse cities in proportion to the relative capital of each bank therein, with no other security than a prior lien upon the bank's assets, the government would have lost nothing, and if the government had realized 2 per cent, upon the funds so deposited, it would have received $52,- 000,000. Aided in this way, the banks referred to, would have been able to increase credit accommodations to the people in the sum of $200,000,000.

"This computation was made at the instance of my predecessor (one year ago,) and was based upon quarterly, rather than daily, balances.

"I think some provision for the deposit of surplus funds belonging to the United States government with national banks upon security other than government bonds, would be wise, though I doubt the limitations as to the amount of capital and surplus contained in the bill. I also question the wisdom of mandatory provisions of law. On the contrary, I think there should be a fair latitude of discretion. Authority to act in a given line is generally sufficient.

THE NATIVE FILIPINO A QUEER CHARACTER.

WOMEN MORE THAN MEN MANAGE GENERAL AFFAIRS.

Male Shows Capacity for Skilled Labor, but is Negligent of Machinery and is not So Thrifty as a Chinaman. Crowds are Well-behaved and Polite.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—In his statement before the Senate Committee on the Philippines, Gov. Taft today dwelt especially upon the relationship of the military and civil authorities in the Philippines, and his explanation was received with much interest by the members of the committee. The day's session began with the understanding that there should be no interruption by the members of the committee until the presentation of this entire branch of the subject was completed.

Gov. Taft said that there had been some difference of opinion as to the method of administration, and that naturally the natives were more favorably inclined toward the civil government because they were represented by men of their own nationality in that branch of the service, while on the other hand, the army was principally concerned in bringing the war to an end. He thought, however, the military authorities were coming to look with more favor on the civil institutions.

In reply to a question, Gov. Taft said there are thirty-four organized and fifteen unorganized provinces. In answer to a question by Senator Patterson, Gov. Taft said it was not true that a majority of the people can read and write.

As to the position of women in the islands, he said that the women of the Philippines hold a superior position. They are active managers in general affairs, and the Spanish archbishop had said to him that if it were intended to confer any political authority upon the Filipinos, it should be conferred upon the female sex.

NATIVE CHARACTERISTICS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—"Is it not true," interrupted Senator Dietrich, who has visited the Philippines, "while the women are engaged in conducting the affairs of the family, the men are generally engaged in attending cockfights or going about the country with roosters under their arms?"

Mr. Patterson, in answer, read from the War Department report to the effect that the Tagalos are industrious, courteous, artistic, quiet and orderly. Gov. Taft said that he had never met a Filipino who was not a musician, and he added: "All Filipino crowds are well behaved and polite, and the people are courteous. The Filipino also shows capacity for skilled labor, but he is negligent of machinery. I wish it were true that the Filipino is as industrious as it is claimed, but he is not. Indeed, there are many of them who might secure work who do not seek it. This condition leads to a demand for the bringing in of Chinese."

This statement led Senator Hall to make inquiry concerning the presence of Chinese. The witness replied that the contractors and business men generally contend for the necessity of bringing in the Chinese labor. The importation was, however, generally resented by the natives, not so much because of the competition of the Chinese as laborers as because of their competition as merchants. The Chinamen generally saved his wages, and in a few months would establish a mercantile establishment, the result being that the next-door neighbor, a native, would be driven out. He said, further, that, under the present regulations, no Chinese are admitted.

Replying to other questions, Gov. Taft stated that in the islands there are about five million acres of land held by private persons, and that of this, 403,000 acres are owned by the Catholic friars. Of these 402,000 acres, 250,000 are the best lands in the islands.

As to the honesty of the native Filipino, Gov. Taft said that many exaggerated and extreme pictures had been drawn. They were neither so bad nor so good as they had been reported. Many were arrested for theft, and there also were charges of treachery and duplicity. That some are dishonest and others double-faced, was true, but that all presented these characteristics was not true. Hence, no general characterization was possible. Referring to the order of concentration in Batangas, Gov. Taft said he had been misunderstood yesterday in saying that he had advised Gen. Bell against it. He had recommended that the order should not be made so wide in its scope as it was.

The committee adjourned to meet tomorrow, when Gov. Taft, at the request of Senator Lodge, will discuss the tariff question as applied to the Philippines.

VENEZUELAN SITUATION.

SERIOUS EXCEPT FOR AMERICA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Very little information has been received by this government in regard to political disturbances in Venezuela, but the situation there is regarded as serious. No immediate outbreak that will endanger American interests is expected, however, and the government appears to be satisfied that the danger, recently reported, of a mutiny among Venezuelan troops at Caracas has passed. The reports printed this morning that the Venezuelan forces had met defeat at the hands of the insurgents created some surprise here, in view of the recent assuring advices which led to the withdrawal of the battleship Indiana from Curacao and the North Atlantic squadron from Culebra.

The training ship Prairie sailed today from Martinique for the Gulf of Para, at the mouth of the Amazon. She will be held in readiness to proceed to La Guayra if the Venezuelan situation shall become more acute. The government apparently has reason to believe that Germany does not intend to make any hostile demonstration against Venezuela at this time. After an exchange of views between President Roosevelt and Von Holleben, the German Ambassador, over Germany's proposed naval expedition to Venezuelan waters to collect claims due the subjects of the Kaiser, it was supposed that the expedition would proceed at once to La Guayra. In the mean time, however, insurrection against President Castro began, and Germany expressed her intention of postponing the execution of her purpose until internal disturbances had passed.

BELLINGHAM BAY PROJECTS.

ELECTRIC LINE OVER CASCADES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is announced today that P. B. Cornwall and other San Francisco owners of the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia Railroad have decided to spend several millions in carrying out two gigantic enterprises. One will be the development of the water power of Nooksack Falls, in Whatcom county, and the conversion of the same into electric power.

The other project is the extension of the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia Railroad from Maple Falls, in Whatcom county, across the Cascade Mountains to Winthrop, in Okanagon county. Fifteen miles of the road will be built this year to Nooksack Falls. If possible, the railroad across the Cascades will be operated by electricity.

Work on a 145-foot tunnel at Nooksack Falls is now under way. It will convey three pipe lines to the powerhouse, fifteen hundred feet below, giving water power in triplicate, with electrical machinery in duplicate, for the generation of 10,000 horse power.

ANTI-ANARCHIST BILL.

PROTECTS AMBASSADORS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The anti-anarchist bill, which will be reported to the House in a day or two, contains one feature not heretofore alluded to. This is a provision giving to foreign ambassadors and ministers accredited to Washington, protection against assaults and punishing with death any such assault which results in the death of a foreign Ambassador or Minister.

The section providing severe penalties for conspiracies in this country against foreign rulers does not, however, embrace ambassadors and ministers as Chairman Ray of the Judiciary Committee, who is drafting the report, feels that great care is necessary not to exceed the constitutional right to punish crimes originating within the States. The protection of foreign rulers against conspiracies is considered justified by the law of nations, but it is not deemed expedient to extend this to ambassadors and ministers residing here.

LAND FOR MISSION INDIANS.

BILL IN BOTH HOUSES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Needham introduced in the House today a bill appropriating $100,000 for purchasing lands for the Mission Indians now on Warner's ranch in San Diego county. This bill is the one prepared by the Interior Department and sent to Congress for introduction by Secretary Hitchcock after the Indian agents had made investigations in California regarding what ought to be done for these Indians. The same bill was also introduced by Senator Bard.

NEW DISTRICT COURT.

DENIAL CONCERNING NEEDHAM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports are being circulated in California that a new United States District Court is to be established in California by Congress, and that Representative Needham is a candidate for appointment as judge of the new court. Mr. Needham denies this. No denial is needed, however, from the fact that an appointment of a member of Congress to a judicial position created while he is a member of Congress is forbidden by law.

TARIFF IN TREATIES.

GIVES HOUSE NO POWER.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, which had been giving especial attention to the legal aspect of the reciprocity treaties, today reported its findings to the full committee, and Senator Spooner was authorized to prepare a written report on the subject.

The committee concludes that the power to make commercial treaties rests with the President and the Senate, and that the fact that they involve questions of tariff, does not render it necessary that the House of Representatives should have equal opportunity to consider them.

REV. BALDWIN'S ARGUMENT.

CHINESE EXCLUSION UNJUST.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Rev. S. L. Baldwin, secretary of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was heard by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs today, in opposition to the Mitchell-Kahn bill for Chinese exclusion. He took the position that general restrictions on immigrants should govern all nationalities alike, and that discrimination against the Chinese alone was not to the public interest.

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor continued his statement in support of the bill. He exhibited fac similes of the instructions sent by the Chinese to their friends in China, pointing out the way they get into this country. Mr. Gompers also stated that Maxwell Evarts of New York, who advocated an extension of the Geary law, had attacked that law in the United States Supreme Court, and that the contention of its invalidity was still before the courts. The hearings continue tomorrow.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE RATES.

BILL TO AID COMMISSION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Senator Nelson today introduced a bill prepared by the National Millers' Association, providing for the amendment of the Interstate Commerce Law. It empowers the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates for transportation and abolishes punishment by imprisonment.

With reference to the fixing of rates, the bill provides that "if the commission, after full hearing upon petition, determine that the defendant is in violation of any of the provisions of the act in respect to any rate, relation of rates, whether between localities or commodities, classification of freight or other practice, it shall be its duty to determine what rate, relation of rates, classification or other price should be observed for the future, in order to correct the wrong found to exist, and it shall order the defendant to observe the same."

Power is given to fix joint rates where necessary. The order fixing such rates is to be served twenty days before taking effect. Review of all cases by the Circuit and the Supreme courts of the United States is provided for. The commission's rate orders are made binding for two years. Circuit courts are given authority to enforce the orders of the commission.

Every carrier, who transports traffic at any other than the published rates, or under other conditions not in consonance with Interstate Commerce law, is made amenable to a fine of not less than $1000, nor more than $20,000.

NOT A FORCE BILL.

THAT RESOLUTION ON SUFFRAGE

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Representative Crumpacker of Indiana, author of the resolution presented to the Republican caucus, Monday night, and to be further considered at a caucus next Monday night, authorizes the following statement as to the general purposes of the movement to correct any impression that it is in the nature of a "force bill."

"The resolution submitted to the caucus was designed to secure full investigation of the suffrage question, not only in the South, but in all the States that have imposed material restrictions upon manhood suffrage. There is a general belief that a number of States have disfranchised a large portion of their citizens, that the colored population, by the operation of State laws, is entirely eliminated as a political quantity, and yet it counts in apportioning Representatives among the States. It is the general belief that the Southern States have at least thirty-five Representatives in the House and the Electoral College, resting upon a fictitious basis. If this be found to be true in fact, and representation be reduced accordingly, as the Constitution imperatively requires, it would go a long way toward settling the race question. Such a method would have none of the characteristics of a 'force bill.' It would require no force for its execution. Disfranchising States would suffer a reduction of political power, which they could regain by educating their citizens and admitting them to the privilege of the ballot. The whole question would rest with those States.

"But the caucus is asked simply to authorize a thorough investigation of the whole question, through a Congressional committee, especially appointed and equipped for that purpose, and when the facts as they really exist are laid before Congress and the country, such action may then be taken as the situation requires."

EL CAPITAL (N. M.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George L. Musgrave and his gang of outlaws are at large again in the Territory, with a posse headed by the Sheriff of Lincoln county in pursuit, five hours behind, on a hot trail. The gang called at the Block ranch this morning, commandeered all available stock, saying they had robbed Goode & Co.'s pay car and the Santa Rosa Bank, and were headed for the mountains to escape the vigilantes. The condition of the horses proved they had had an exhausting ride, for the animals were staggering as they reached the Block ranch.

There is scarcely any doubt of the identity of the leader, as the story of the double robbery is just the kind of work that Musgrave delights in. With deputies an hour behind, he has boasted of plundering, and he is known throughout the Territory as a robber who never concealed a crime, or who failed to pay ranchmen for stock taken in his seeking strongholds in the mountains.

LOW RATES TO PACIFIC

Western Lines Enthuse by the Outlook.

Conventions in Golde State Responsible.

Line Across the Cascades to B Operated by Electricity, if Possible.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The passenger men of the western lines believe that, through the means of conventions, there will be a rates in effect all summer between Chicago and the Pacific Coast. There are now five large conventions which have been granted this rate, and the last effort of the passenger officials to have the conventions "double up" has failed. Recently the Christian Union Society of the United Presbyterian Church asked for a rate of $50 for the annual convention to be held at Tacoma, July 22 to 27. While the chairman of the Western Passenger Association was trying to get the leaders of the society to change the date to June 3, when the traveling men are to meet on the Coast, the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern gave notice that they had decided to grant the $50 rate for the original date.

Some of the passenger agents, however, believe that it is a good thing to have a $50 rate during all the California season. In this connection it is stated that the cheap rates which prevailed last year for Colorado and Utah common points will be placed in effect this season.

DENVER RATE CASE.

HEARING CONTINUES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today continued its hearing in the Denver case on the supplemental questions which have arisen in connection with the enforcement of the commission's order affecting east-bound traffic from San Francisco. William Sproule freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific, and E. C. Chambers, general freight agent of the Santa Fé, testified.

Sproule continued his remarks in behalf of his contention that higher tariff rates against Denver than against Missouri River points are justified in view of the greater competition on goods shipped to points on the Missouri River than to Denver. Chambers took a position similar to that of Sproule.

TRAIN ORDER SCHOOL.

TEACHING ASSOCIATION CODE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—More than a score of northwestern division superintendents, conductors, train dispatchers and engineers, are attending a train-order school here.

The purpose of the work is to make it certain that when the code of the American Railway Association is established, every man on the system will be perfectly familiar with the rules, so that train operation will be as safe as it is now under the present rules.

COMMERCE WITH CHINA.

American Commissioner Expresses the Opinion That There Will Be No Obstacle in Way of Commercial Treaty.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VICTORIA, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In an interview with the North China Daily News, Gen. Sharretts, United States Trade Commissioner, who is conducting negotiations in regard to the tariff question and the new commercial treaty, said: "It seems well settled there will be no obstacle in the way of speedy adjustment of the question."

He has had interviews with Sir Ernest Satow and Sir James Mackay and was satisfied the tariff would be prepared at Shanghia by the British representatives and commissioners already appointed for other countries, in conjunction with the resident merchants of those countries interested. A matter of far greater importance, he continued, was the commercial treaty, in the negotiations of which many conflicting interests would be brought into operation, rendering a unanimous conclusion on part of commissioners very difficult. He expressed doubts as to the willingness of the Chinese authorities in the matter, and their ability to enforce the drastic measures which might be agreed upon. Hence he admitted that he had been remiss to act for the United States, but had yielded to pressure from the President. As to what he thought would be the fundamental features of the new treaty with China, Gen. Sherretts said:

"Efforts will be made to open up great treaty ports, to secure to foreigners the right to build and own property, to work mines, construct railways in the interior, and generally to secure better trading facilities."

STANDARD OIL'S OPPONENT.

Houston Company Enters the Beaumont Field, Not Only as a Producer, But as a Distributor on Large Scale.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was learned today that the Houston Oil Company, which was organized several months ago with a capital of $30,000,000, has perfected its plan for entering the oil trade as a competitor of the Standard Oil Company. In addition to producing oil in the Beaumont field, this corporation proposes to become a distributor of the product on an extensive scale. It will have tank steamers, cars and pipe lines.

John H. Kirby, who is at the head of this company, is also president of the Kirby Lumber Company, known in Texas as the lumber trust. The two corporations have many interests in common.

Prima Donna Thinks Lace Manufacturer Ought to Wait Ten Years for Payment of Bill.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Fr., 5.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Civil Court today heard the claim of a Parisian lace manufacturer against Miss Sybil Sanderson for f.18,951 for lace purchased in 1899. The defense of Miss Sanderson was that she had been promised all the time she wanted in order to pay this amount, and as her income was only f.50,000, she wanted ten years. The defendant also declared the prices on the lace to be exorbitant. The court will render judgment next week.

SPLENDID APARTMENTS FOR PRINCE HENRY.

ENTIRE FIRST FLOOR OF WILLARD HOTEL ENGAGED.

It is Furnished on the Same Magnificent Scale as the Waldorf-Astoria, and the Prince Will Be Able to Enjoy Complete Privacy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Negotiations have been concluded between the officials of the German Embassy and the management of Willard Hotel to secure the entire first floor of that hostelry for the occupancy of Prince Henry of Prussia and his suite during their stay in the national capital.

The Prince will occupy the apartments of the hotel Thursday afternoon and the night of February 27, and Friday night and Saturday morning, February 28, and March 1. It is probable he may also occupy them Monday afternoon, February 24.

This is another evidence of the lavish preparations which are being made to receive and entertain the brother of the German Emperor. The appointments and general finishings of the first floor of the Willard Hotel are far superior to those of a majority of the castles and palaces of Europe. This floor, directly above the office and lobby, contains about eighteen sleeping apartments, and a magnificent separate dining room. The rooms are divided into several suites comprising bedrooms, baths, libraries and private parlors. Besides this, there is a large reception parlor on the southeast corner of the first floor overlooking both Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenues.

Each of the apartments is furnished on the same scale of grandeud and upon the same elaborate system as the Waldorf-Astoria, New York. Not only will the Prince be accommodated in these apartments, but also his whole suite can be quartered near him where they can be summoned at a moment's notice. The Prince can have his own retinue of servants and attendants, and be entirely secluded from the throng of guests in other parts of the hotel.

ARRIVAL AT ST. THOMAS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. THOMAS (D. W. I.) Feb. 5.—[By West Indian Cable.] The German imperial yacht Hohenzollern, which left Kiel January 18 and touched at Gibraltar, January 23, arrived here this morning.

Admiral Count Von Baudissin, the commander, was seen on board the yacht. He said that the Hohenzollern had had an unusually fine voyage through the North Sea over the Bay of Biscay and the Atlantic, and that no incident of importance occurred during the trip. The Hohenzollern will coal here Thursday, and will leave next Saturday for Bermuda, where she expects to arrive after a run of about two and one-half days. At Bermuda the yacht will coal, and remain one day and a half. She will then leave for New York, and hopes to make the run from Bermuda to that port in forty hours, or she may await fine weather at Bermuda. Admiral Von Baudissin expressed pleasure at his approaching visit to the United States.

The Hohenzollern is a magnificent boat. Her rooms are finished in bird's-eye maple and rosewood, and are beautifully papered and decorated with quantities of the pictures, photographs and sketches collected during the tours made by Emperor William. It appears that the Hohenzollern never fires salutes.

Admiral Van Baudissin visited the Governor of the Danish West Indies at noon. He will dine with the Governor tonight. When the admiral landed, he was saluted by the shore battery. The Governor visited the admiral on board the Hohenzollern this afternoon. The report that Prince William Ettel Frederick is on board the Hohenzollern is untrue.

Mrs. Rebecca Evilsizer, who would have been 100 years of age March 12, committed suicide at the home of her son near South Whitley, Ind. She choked herself to death by stuffing a large handkerchief down her throat. She was thought to be sleeping when found dead.

At a great United Protestant demonstration held in London resolutions were passed against the confessional and the celebration of mass within the Church of England, the growth of which was alleged to be mainly due to the abuse of church patronage by the government and the episkopate.

SUNDAY SALOON BILL.

ALBANY (N. Y.) Feb. 5.—Dist.-Atty. Jerome of New York today submitted to the Democratic leaders of both the Senate and Assembly an excise amendment, permitting the opening of saloons between 1 p.m. and 11 p.m. on Sunday. It was decided that the bill would be introduced by "request."

Rancher Held Up.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 5.—A rancher of Glendale, ten miles from here, reports that three men on horseback followed him from Phoenix to his home a night or two ago, and as he entered his house held him up and relieved him of $60. He had a check cashed in a Phoenix saloon, and believes the highwaymen saw the incident and followed him.

Two Men Asphyxiated.

VICTORIA (B. C.) Feb. 5.—Chief Engineer Smith and James Stelker, a deck hand and son of the captain of the steamer Iroquois, were found dead in their room on the steamer at Sydney this morning. The pipe of a coal stove in the room had fallen down during the night, and both men were suffocated by the fumes.

No Argument Needed.

Every Sufferer from Catarrh Knows that Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything, at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty-cent. box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long-looked for catarrh cure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The permit granted to the Yosemite Athletic Club by the Board of Supervisors may be rescinded by that body at the next meeting. The discovery has been made that Jim Kennedy, stigmatized by Supervisor Braunhart as the "Prince of fakers," is negotiating in the East as the matchmaker of the Yosemite Club, and as the assurance was given that Kennedy was in no wise connected with the club when the board issued the permit, several Supervisors think they were imposed upon, and they are in favor of revoking the permit next Monday.

CUTS SIGOURNEY OUT.

SCHMITT HAS WITHDRAWN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. S. Norris of New York found Charles Threshie of Boston an easy mark in the evening game of the class A billiard tournament, in progress at the Knickerbocker Athletic Club. Norris won by a score of 400 to 232, after a rather uninteresting contest. Dr. A. B. Miller, a former Knickerbocker Athletic Club champion, won the afternoon game from John A. Hendrick of New York, the former champion of Connecticut, by a score of 400 to 335. It was the slowest game in the tournament thus far, requiring eighty-one innings to finish. Both men played far below their usual form. Dr. Miller's run of thirty-three was the only good spurt.

Charles S. Schmitt of Boston has withdrawn from the tournament on account of illness in his family. This cuts Sigourney's credit out of one game already won.

BIDDY BISHOP ILL.

IS IN A BAD WAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Biddy Bishop, the well-known boxing promoter, is in a bad way at his home in Berkeley. Bishop has been sick abed since last September, and the doctors fear he will be a cripple if he ever gets well. He is a native of Kentucky, but came to the Coast in 1884. He was formerly manager of "Young Peter Jackson," Al Neill, Perry Queenan and other well-known pugilists.

BERKELEY, Feb. 5.—In a practice throw on the campus, Alfred D. Plaw, of the University of California, hurled the 16-pound hammer 187 feet and 4 inches from a seven-foot circle. The world's record, held by Flanigan of New York, is 171 feet 5 inches, and the American intercollegiate record, held by Plaw, and made in 1900, is 165 feet 9 inches. Plaw will go East with the university track team this spring.

PUBLIC WENT HOME IN A HAPPY MOOD.

FIVE FAVORITES GO UNDER THE WIRE IN FRONT.

Esternell the Only Outsider to Break the Slate—Defeats Montoyo and The First Choice Lass of Langdon—Plunger Lewis Ruled Off.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Five favorites won at Oakland today, and the public went home in a happy frame of mind. The only upset occurred in the third race, where Esternell won from Montoyo and Lass of Langdon, the latter being the favorite. In the two-year-old event, Hudson won by a neck from Amoruna, while Nigrette, a 40-to-1 shot, was a close third. O'Connor and Jackson each rode two winners.

Harry Lewis, who attracted so much attention through his plunging tactics, was today ruled off by the stewards as a "welcher," he having failed to appear and pay markers' bet on Lass of Langdon last week. Summary:

One mile, selling: Bob Palmer, 109 (Hoar,) 13 to 5, won; Monda, 114 (Jackson,) 4 to 1, second; Courtier, 109 (J. Woods,) 9 to 2, third; time 1:45½. Kastaine, Talma, Rey del San Juan, The Gaffer and Grayiette also ran.

Three and a half furlongs, selling: Hudson (O'Connor,) even, won; Amoruna (Ransch,) 2½ to 1, second; Nigrette (J. Daly,) 40 to 1, third; time 0:43¼. Montezuma, Dismay, Annie F. and Minnie Drossel also ran.

Five and a half furlongs, selling: Esternell, 107 (J. Woods,) 5 to 1, won; Montoyo, 107 (J. Burns,) 7 to 1, second; Lass of Langdon, 102 (Ransch,) 11 to 5, third; time 1:10. Baltest, Arthur Ray, Knockings, Sleeping Child, Armado, Clear Sky and Mike Murphy also ran. Chaddoo excused.

Mile and fifty yards, selling: Diderot, 106 (O'Connor,) 3 to 5, won; Pat Morrissey, 110 (Bullman,) 16 to 5, second; Quadra, 94 (Jackson,) 7 to 1, third; time 1:46½. Norford, Montana Peeress and Sachtel also ran.

Six furlongs, selling: Scorpio, 109 (Jackson,) 1 to 2, won; Bard Burns 104 (Hoar,) 7 to 1, second; Huachuca, 97 (Birkenruth,) 5 to 1, third; time 1:15¼. Mission, Ned Dennis, Isaline and Forbes also ran.

Seven furlongs, selling: Eonic, 99 (Jackson,) 11 to 20, won; Gusto, 107 (Burns,) 8 to 1, second; Bragg, 98 (Ransch,) 20 to 1 third; time 1:30. Commissioner Forster Captivate Bab Lady Sterling and Lento also ran.

New Orleans Sport.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5.—One mile and seventy yards, selling: Philma Paxton won, Swordsman second, Prince Real third; time 1:53.

Five furlongs, selling: Barney Seal won, Ed Gartleand II second, Billiardist third; time 1:14½.

Steeplechase, handicap, full course: W. H. Dixon won, Coley second, Dagmar third; time 5:05.

One mile and an eighth, handicap: Ida Tedford won, Malay second, Henry of Franstamar third; time 2:00.

Mile and an eighth, selling: Beana won, Strangest second, Pay the Fiddler third; time 2:05¼.

One mile, selling: Garter Ban won, Rose of May second, Cast Iron third; time 1:47½.

Vote Against Increase.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—There will be no large increase in the board of managers of the Metropolitan Association of Amateur Athletic Unions during the coming year. The result of the mail vote, which was called for a month ago, has been announced by John J. Dixon, secretary of the local association, and it shows that only eight clubs voted for the individual club representation out of a total of thirty-five.

POWERS INTERESTED.

through her Ambassador, proposed a new collective note, in which the powers should declare that Europe regarded America's armed intervention in Cuba as unjustifiable, the other Ambassadors telegraphed to their home governments asking for instructions. The step failed through Germany's positive refusal. This gives, as it appears to us, a picture essentially different from the English statement. A fortnight later war was declared.

"Afterward, in June and July, while the United States was making great progress in the Philippines, England tried to induce the Spanish commission in England to ask for peace proposals, for to no power was the American encroachment in the Pacific more annoying than to England.

"The above is the historical connection of events. We hope that in giving the same we have thoroughly exposed the absurdity of the English legend."

A BLOOMING DENTAL.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Associated Press has the highest official authority for denying the story printed by the Kreuz Zeitung of Berlin today, as to the part taken by Lord Pauncefote, the British Ambassador at Washington, in the Spanish-American War intervention, in spite of the confirmation of the story by the German Foreign Office.

Rock Pile for Tramps.

SALINAS, Feb. 5.—Owing to the large influx of tramps the Board of Supervisors today instructed the Sheriff of Monterey county to put county prisoners at work upon a rock pile, and to do other work. It is thought this measure will keep an undesirable class away.

STRICTLY RELIABLE.

Advanced Methods of Curing Men.

Powerful drugs and harsh measures are gradually giving way to mild and gentle influences in the treatment of disease. To attempt to force nature by the use of strong remedies seldom, if ever, results in permanent good to the patient. Such treatment can but disorder the natural recuperative forces, while it is only by aiding these forces that a cure can be accomplished. My treatment is all cases is mild and harmless, and promptly effective because in exact accordance with natural requirements.

No Surgery for Varicocele.

I cure varicocele in one week. I do no cutting whatever, nor do I employ ligature or caustic. I have replaced these harsh methods by a mild and gentle treatment that accomplishes the work thoroughly, without pain and without detaining the patient from business.

No Surgery for Stricture.

My treatment for stricture is entirely independent of surgery. A complete cure is accomplished without cutting or dilating. All growths and obstructions in the urinary passage are destroyed, the membranes cleansed, and all irritation or congestion removed throughout the organs involved.

No Surgery for Piles.

Though I have seldom made mention of this distressing ailment in my advertisements, here cases come to me day for treatment as a result of recommendations from those I have cured. I positively cure all cases of piles by this use of soothing and healing remedies. I can guarantee a complete cure in every instance.

No Tonics for "Weakness."

In treating so-called "weakness," I employ no tonics or stimulants. "Weakness" in all its phases and in practically every case that comes to me for treatment, is merely a symptom resulting from a state of chronic inflammation existing in the prostate gland. This inflammation may be a lingering result of some contracted disease, or may have been brought on by early dissipation, excesses, etc. In by far the greater number of cases the general health of the patient is perfect, there being no lack of either physical or nervous energy. No stimulants or tonics are needed, and if employed would only result in temporary excitement of the functions and positive injury to the tender and already disordered prostate. My treatment is a local one entirely. It removes all inflammation, swelling and tenderness from the prostate gland, establishes normal circulation throughout the parts and restores permanently and completely all natural functions. By this method alone is it possible to bring complete restoration of strength and vigor.

My colored chart will instruct you in male anatomy and men's diseases. Sent free upon application. Consultation free at office or by mail.

MYSTERIOUS "HELLO" MEN.

New Telephone People Still Under Cover.

Subscribers for 'Phones Being Enrolled.

Eastern and Local Capital to Give the Sunset Company a Race.

There is a good deal of mystery about the new telephone company which has started out with the avowed purpose of giving Los Angeles a better and cheaper "hello" service than is furnished by the "Sunset."

Who are the people behind M. Adrian King, the purchaser of the franchise to establish and operate a competing telephone system in this city?

This question was put to several persons who are supposed to know a great deal, if not all, about the project, yesterday; but noncommittal answers were given.

It was tacitly admitted by all that King is merely a promoter or agent, but it was asserted that he had succeeded in interesting people who are financially able to put in a telephone system which will eclipse the efforts of the powerful Sabin corporation, known as the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company.

All that could be ascertained about the financiers of the scheme was that they are capitalists of Toledo, O., who, it was alleged, are successfully operating independent telephone lines in the East. It was also asserted that local capital would assist the enterprise, and that the names of the incorporators of the new company would probably be made public in a few days.

WHAT MR. TRIPPET SAYS.

Oscar A. Trippet, Esq., one of the legal representatives of the mysterious "hello" people, vouchsafed the information that active steps are being taken to carry out the terms of the franchise obtained by Mr. King. He said solicitors had been started out to canvass the city for subscribers, and are meeting with much encouragement. People seem anxious for the new service, and if no unexpected obstacles are encountered, Mr. Trippet said, the new company will expend $500,000 in the installation of an up-to-date "hello" plant in this city within the present year. The success of the enterprise, he admitted, depends in a measure on the amount of encouragement received locally, but he had every reason to believe that the plans of the company would be carried out. The new 'phones would be so perfect and cheap as to practically put the old company out of business, he said. The equipment would be far superior to that now in use in this city, and the cost to subscribers would be cut just about in half. "Party" lines and the complex system of numbering would be done away with, and no "hello" girls that talk back to the irate subscriber would be employed.

LOCAL CAPITAL.

A. B. McCutchen, Esq., another of the legal representatives of the embryo "hello" concern, also spoke enthusiastically and confidently of its plans. He said he was not at liberty to name the capitalists interested, at present, but he believed that they were acting in good faith and had the means to carry out their project. Contracts are taken, for the time being, in the name of the Home Telephone Company, a California corporation, but the name under which the new company would operate had not yet been definitely decided upon. However, final incorporation would probably be completed within the next few days, when the names of the incorporators would be made public. Mr. McCutchen said considerable local capital would be invested in the project. As an earnestness of the company's intentions, he pointed to the fact that an outlay of about $30,000 had already been incurred, representing $3000 cash paid for the franchise, a bond of $25,000 which was filed and approved, as a forfeit to the city in case of failure to comply with the terms of the franchise, and several thousand dollars for attorneys' fees and incidentals.

MR. FISHBURN NOT "IT."

Both Mr. Trippet and Mr. McCutchen referred the reporter to J. E. Fishburn, vice-president of the National Bank of California, for information as to the personnel of the company. Mr. Fishburn, when interviewed, said he was not personally interested in the new telephone enterprise, but the gentlemen interested had chosen his bank as the intermediary for conducting its financial transactions, and he was satisfied that the company meant business and had the capital to do it with. Further than this, Mr. Fishburn had nothing to say for publication.

OLD COMPANY SAYS "NAY."

Officials of the Sunset Telephone Company do not seem to be dismayed at the prospect of opposition. They say it is impossible for the new company—granting that it means business and is not advancing a mere hold-up proposition—to secure any better equipment or furnish any better service than the Sunset company has and is supplying. They point to the fact that it required enormous expense and years of experience to bring the service up to its present standard, which, they claim, is as good and in some respects better than anywhere else in the United States. Independent exchanges wherever established in opposition to general companies, they allege, have invariably proven failures and have not succeeded in reducing rates. Sacramento and Portland are two Pacific Coast cities which have rival telephone companies, but the opposition has never resulted in a cut in prices by the principal company, nor have the smaller concerns, they aver, been able to give so good a service.

ONE 'PHONE ENOUGH.

Inquiry among citizens generally develops the fact that not all telephone subscribers take the view that competition in the "hello" business would be an unmixed blessing. Some persons there are, who contend that it is bad enough to have one telephone bell jangling in the house, and that to have two centrals would be simply unbearable. While no one would object to lower rates, it is admitted that telephone service in Los Angeles costs less than in almost any other large city in the country, and the quality of the service is as good here as found anywhere.

The most serious objection urged against a competing company is that it would divide the subscribers, so that the people on the lines of one company could not communicate with those on the other, for comparatively few people would patronize both companies. A strictly local company would also be at a great disadvantage on account of having no long-distance connections.

FAILURES IN OHIO.

Recently there have been a number of failures of local telephone companies in Ohio, chief among these being the Federated Telephone Company, operating as a rival concern in Columbus and various other Ohio cities. It quit owing $3,500,000, in consequence of which two Cleveland banks were obliged to close their doors. The United States Telephone Company, an affiliated corporation, doing business in the States of Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, was also involved, all of which gives comfort to companies which have no opposition and do not desire any.

"If there is any such thing as a justifiable monopoly," said a man well versed in the telephone business, yesterday, "it is a well-equipped general telephone company, provided it keeps abreast with the times in the matter of improvements and is liberal with its rates, and takes pains in giving good service."

SCHOOL INTERESTS.

Board of Education Alarmed by Big Bank of Earth on Olive Street—High School Events.

The dangerous condition of the towering banks of earth near the Olive-street school was the chief subject of discussion at last night's adjourned meeting of the City Board of Education. Because of excavations being made by adjoining property owners, the earth is likely to cave in on the playground, or even onto the building itself. Giffen thought it a shame that the lives of the school children should be continued in danger week after week, while the board was trying to decide what remedy could be applied at the least cost. The committee appointed at the last meeting to look into the matter, reported last night, recommending several different kinds of retaining walls, and estimating the cost of the best of them at $5000.

It was decided to refer the report to the City Engineer to decide what kind of a wall would be best, and the secretary was ordered to advertise for bids according to specifications made out by the engineer.

The members of the board received an invitation to attend the class exercises of the Senior B class of the High School, to be held this afternoon in the High School Auditorium at 1:30 o'clock, and also to the exercises of the Senior A class at the Los Angeles Theater tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Giffen-avenue and Custer-street schools will immediately be supplied with an ungraded room, which is an institution for the coaching of backward pupils.

The following are the boundaries fixed last night for the new Twentieth-street school district, with minor changes in other districts: Beginning at corner of Ninth street and Central avenue; thence south on Central avenue to Pico street; west on Pico street to Griffith avenue; south on Griffith avenue to Twenty-fifth street; east on Twenty-fifth street to Central avenue; south on Central avenue to Thirty-sixth street; east on Thirty-sixth street to Hooper street; north on Hooper street to Twentieth street; thence on Tarlet street to Sixteenth street; west on Sixteenth street to Tennessee street; north on Tennessee street to Ninth street; west on Ninth street to Central avenue.

The eastern boundary of Sixteenth-street school district is changed to Santee street, between Twelfth street and Twenty-third street.

The eastern boundary of the Ninth-street school district is changed to Central avenue, between Twelfth and Ninth streets, and the southern boundary to Ninth street, between Central avenue and Tennessee street.

The western boundary of Stauntonavenue district is changed to Compton avenue, between Twentieth street and Sixteenth street, and to Tennessee street, between Sixteenth street and Twelfth street.

The San Pedro-street district boundary on the west is changed to Santee street, and on the east to Griffith avenue.

The Twenty-eighth-street boundary on the east is changed to Central avenue, between Twenty-fifth street and Thirty-seventh street; to Griffith avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets; and on the south to Twenty-fifth street, between Central avenue and Griffith avenue.

The board adjourned to meet Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to receive the report of the Teachers' Committee, which was not ready for presentation last night.

G. W. A. PALLETT DEAD.

Pioneer Rancher of Los Angeles County Passed Away in South America—Son Here to Settle Estate.

W. A. Pallett has returned from South America to settle up the estate of his father, G. W. A. Pallett, who died at Alijo Ledesma, province of Cordova, Argentine Republic, several months ago.

The elder Pallett was one of the pioneer ranchers of Los Angeles county. He and his sons formerly owned and cultivated some of the finest walnut groves in the famous Rivera district; they also engaged extensively in stock raising. A few years ago they sold most of their possessions in this county, and on September 29, 1900, the old patriarch and his descendants, composing a party of about twenty souls, emigrated bodily to the Argentine Republic to engage in stock raising there. They purchased a large body of land in the province of Cordova in the fertile valley of the Parana, where they have extensive herds of live stock, and are prospering.

The father of the Pallett boys was over 80 years old when he died, surrounded by his children and children's children in their far-off home. William A., the son who has come here to settle up that portion of the old gentleman's estate remaining in this county, will return to his folks in South America as soon as his business here is concluded.

STRONG'S CONDITION CRITICAL.

Ralph Strong underwent an operation at the California Hospital yesterday for a supposed affection of the ear, and is now in a critical condition, not having recovered consciousness. The physicians say that there is a general inflammation of the brain, and it is feared that death may result at any hour.

Elegant Ease After Many Years at Six-dollar-a-week Graft.

Michael J. Wade yesterday took a dizzy leap up the social scale—from dishwasher to capitalist.

The transformation occupied just about two minutes, and ever since then the lucky heir has kept busy trying to make "Coal Oil Johnny's" record resemble a miser story.

"Mike Wade has come in for $30,000," was the news passed about in awed tones by members of the restaurant fraternity around First and Main streets, and it created several kinds of a sensation. And brethren in good standing did not have to wait long for confirmation of the news. "Mike" was not renouncing any friendships, and when he drifted around there was was food, drink, or "any old thing" free for all "the boys."

MICHAEL J. WADE.

Everybody in the restaurant business in Los Angeles and scores out of it know "Mike" Wade. He has worked at almost every eating house in town during the past six years, generally in the capacity of dishwasher, although he is equally familiar with pots and frying-pans and understands how to fix vegetables up for the cook. The salary of such a kitchen worker is not more than the ordinary man is able to use. It is generally $6 a week and "keep."

Through years of humble toil Mike Wade never told his companions that he was a member of a wealthy family, nor did he bemoan his lot in life. He just kept plugging away, and his cheerful ways won him the friendship of all who knew him. Yesterday cooks, waiters, barkeepers and others fairly exhausted the dictionary with their laudation of Wade.

Yesterday Wade rose at his usual romantic hour of 4 a.m., and went down to his sinecure. It was after the morning dishes were done that the letter came or somebody else would have washed that china. The letter contained $1000, and the sign "Dishwasher wanted" was out in about five seconds.

Wade then assumed the role of capitalist, although his interpretation was not entirely true to real life. Just by way of starting right every one in sight was invited to have a drink. The afternoon was spent in getting himself a "front." He ordered the tailor around as if he had done nothing else for years. Then a visit was paid to a jeweler's, where a solid gold watch, chain and ring were acquired. A haberdasher supplied shirts, neckties, collars and the first hard hat worn by the dishwasher in a decade.

The evening was given over to pleasure unrestrained and unlimited. The spender took a crowd along with him big enough to fill any saloon so as to prevent lonesomeness. Wade certainly proved himself to be no quitter. Whenever any one suggested that probably the beer would keep until tomorrow, or assured him that there was no chance of them stopping brewing it, Wade would sing the Orpheum ballad: "My Money Never Gives Out." When bedtime came the spender went to a strange room, just to show that he could support two rooms, and get away from the alarm clock.

Yesterday afternoon a Times man found "Mike" in a Main-street barrel house. He had just returned from the Chutes, and three friends hovered close about to brush dust from his clothes as soon as it blew on. There were only seventeen others waiting for the next round, so the reporter rung in. Everybody but the three bodyguards called him Mr. Wade.

The simple truth is that Wade is a sensible and manly fellow. He is about 45 years old, over 6 feet tall and built in proportion. He at first refused to talk of his good fortune, saying that he dislikes notoriety.

"Oh, no, I have always had plenty of friends," he said, when asked whether his newly-acquired wealth had brought him the friendship of the crowd about him.

"My inheritance amounts to only about $28,000, which is one-fifth of the estate left by my father, who just died at Key West, Fla. He was a big government contractor there during his lifetime. A brother and two sisters of mine now live in Key West, and my married sister lives in Tortugas.

"I can't tell now what my plans for the future will be. I shall go east next Monday to settle up affairs, but expect to return to Los Angeles soon. I may turn to mining when I come back. I used to go to sea, and haven't been home for twenty years."

These few facts, told in a modest way in answer to questions, was all Wade would say.

BEET-SUGAR INTERESTS.

Chamber of Commerce Requests Congress not to Oppose Them—Directors Elected for Coming Year.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution, bearing upon the petition presented to Congress by the Chamber of Commerce of Cuba asking for tariff concessions between the United States and Cuba, was unanimously adopted, the Los Angeles chamber urgently requested Congress not to adopt any legislation that would injure or discourage the American beet-sugar industry. It was pointed out in the resolution that the manufacture of beet sugar in the United States is an industry of great actual, and still greater, potential importance, giving employment to many thousands of farmers and laborers, and which promises, under proper encouragement, to produce within ten years all the sugar consumed in this country, thus retaining at home over $100,000,000.

A communication was read from Hon. Thomas R. Bard, acknowledging the receipt of the chamber's resolution in relation to the national quarantine law, and the establishment of a citrus experimental station at Riverside, and stating that he would use his best efforts to bring about the result.

A communication was read on the same subjects from Hon. George C. Perkins stating, however, that the National Quarantine Bill seems to be opposed by eastern fruit growers and nurserymen, and it was his opinion that it would be difficult to pass a bill this season unless the fruit interests could agree.

The following members were elected to act as directors for the ensuing year: J. S. Slauson, Charles Forman, R. J. Waters, I. N. Van Nuys and A. W. Skinner.

The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of several sacks of valuable seeds from the Horticultural Department in Washington. Persons wishing to experiment with the different varieties may secure them from Secretary Wiggins, provided they promise to exhibit the products in the chamber.

POOR AGED WOMAN WRAPPED IN FIRE.

BURNING TO DEATH THE FATE OF MRS. ROSE MILLER.

Blaze of Mistakenly-used Oil and Flames of Her Home Reduce Body to Horrible Crisp—Granddaughter's Escape Narrow.

Mrs. Rose Miller was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her humble home, a three-room cottage at No. 814 Griffin avenue, near Mission road, at 8:45 o'clock last night. The tragedy was the result of her own thoughtless use of coal oil in the kitchen stove. The victim of the accident was 72 years of age, very feeble and at times childish, and it is supposed that she did not realize the danger. Miss Mary Grant, her seventeen-year-old granddaughter, tried to save her life, and herself narrowly escaped.

The aged woman and her granddaughter lived alone, the former having limited means, and the latter earning her living by working in the Broadway Department Store.

Last night when the fire in the kitchen stove had burned itself almost out, Mrs. Miller remarked to Miss Grant that the night was cold and she would replenish the fire. Suddenly Miss Grant heard a scream, and saw her grandmother holding a coal-oil can over the stove, with re clothing a mass of flames. She had opened the stove and started to pour oil in, when it ignited, and the blaze shot up and enveloped her. The young woman ran to her assistance, but seeing that it was impossible for her to extinguish the fire, rushed from the house screaming for help. The heat was so great that her hair was singed.

As she ran from the house she heard an explosion. The can had burst, throwing oil all over the aged woman and the room.

Ben Miller, a member of the family in an adjoining house, was awakened by the explosion. He ran to the burning house, and tried to enter the room in which Mrs. Miller lay, but the flames were pouring from the building, and the heat was intense. Others responded to Miss Grant's calls, but could do nothing. When the fire engines arrived, the frail structure had been practically destroyed.

What remained of Mrs. Miller was found on the floor of what had been the kitchen. The body was burned almost to a crisp, and bore no resemblance to that of a human being. The arms were burned off, and of the legs below the knees nothing remained but the blackened bones. The ribs were exposed.

The Coroner was notified, and the charred body removed to Garrett's undertaking rooms, where an inquest will be held, probably today.

Everything in the house was burned. Miss Grant was cared for by the Miller family. She is prostrated by the shock.

Mrs. Miller had lived in Los Angeles about eight years. Before that she was a resident of Tacoma. She was the mother of Mrs. Ed O'Rourke, who lives on Pierce's ranch. With her another granddaughter, a sister of Miss Grant, resides. She had relatives in the East, but their addresses are not known.

The house was the property of Charles Hahn, wine merchant, at No. 229 East Main street. The property loss will not exceed $500.

"ADVERTECT" RODGERS.

Harry Rodgers, who has made a great success in San Francisco as an "advertect," or designer of advertisements, is in Los Angeles for the purpose of establishing a similar business here. "Advertect" Rodgers employs a large staff of advertising writers, artists, etc., and publishes "Returns," a magazine devoted to the advertising business. He is at present erecting a large building in San Francisco, to be used exclusively in his publicity business, and it is his intention to build a similar structure here. His Los Angeles branch office will, for the time being, be located in the Copp building on South Broadway. Mr. Rodgers is the guest of J. B. Lankershim during his temporary stay in this city.

LOCAL SPORTING RECORD.

TEN-PIN TOURNAMENT CONTESTS AT CHUTES.

TWO COURSING STAKES ARRANGED FOR NEXT SUNDAY.

Bradner Beats Berry at Billiards—New Yacht Club Organized—Hemphill Signs With Morley—Match Horse Racing at Park Today.

Four teams contested in the two-man tournament at tenpins last night at the Chutes alleys, and Fred Simpson and Brown carried off the honors of the night, winning seven games of the nine they played. Fred Simpson made high scores of 223 and 222. Each team in the tourney is to play three games with every other team, but in some cases this was not done last night.

The results were as follows:

COURSING.

TWO STAKES.

The usual sport will be furnished at Coursing Park next Sunday, the card to consist of a class stake and a reserve stake. Drawings held last night for these resulted as follows:

Class Stake—Pinto B. and Warship Rock Island King and Chicago Boy, Reward and Red Hind, Arcadee and Dingwall Die, Mollie Hankins and Goldie Mac, Crawford Lass and Bowery Boy, Ben Kirby and Lady D.

Reserve Stake—Cicely Boy and Kansas City, Racy Rose and Dick L., Bill Nye and Border's Best, Madeline Foilard and Jack the Bum, Royal Flush and Victor King, Wildmere and Angie Mac, Young Fleetfoot and Dan, Lady Edith and Bobby Burns, Panamas and Miss Revenge, Jolly Nash and University Boy, Miliana and Mola, Mountain Belle and St. Ives, Black Flush and Saw Buck, Lady Bob and Matchless, Try Me and Becky Sharp.

YACHTING.

NEW CLUB SAILS ON.

Incorporation papers will be filed today for the Los Angeles Yacht Club Land Association, and as soon as this business is completed the yacht club proper will be organized, but independent of the land association. The directors of the corporation are Willard Stimson, Jack Bushnell, C. B. Boothe, E. T. Earl, Harry Chandler, Milo Baker, W. H. Hoeger, T. G. Mossin and Ben Mansfield. Ample funds are assured for the erection of a clubhouse, which will probably not be built until the summer months.

BASEBALL.

HEMPHILL SIGNED.

Manager Morley yesterday signed Frank Hemphill to play in the Los Angeles ball club this season. Just what position he will play is not known, but he will probably be assigned to his old place in left field. Morley said yesterday he had also signed Charley Reilly in addition to Toman and Waddell.

Morley is now engaged in preparing a schedule for the games this season, and may have it completed next week. Sunday morning games will be played here this year.

Rifle Practice.

Match Race Today.

The Los Angeles Driving Club will manage a match race to be trotted at Agricultural Park this afternoon, between Primrose, driven by Fred Taylor, and Sweetheart, driven by E. T. Earl.

Billiards.

There was but one game in the three cushion tournament last night at Berry's, and this was between Bradner and Berry, the former winning easily by a score of 21 to 3. The game was a very even one for the first twenty innings, the score standing 5 to 4 in Bradner's favor. In the twenty-first round, however, he made a run of four and kept up his lead from that time on, winning in the fifty-second inning with a fine run of five. Berry did not make over one at a time.

Novel Challenge.

Ed. Broughton, the well-known "finger" billiard player of this city is out with a challenge to play a game of twenty-one points at three cushion with the winner of the present tournament. He offers to use his fingers, the other player to play with a cue.

PARTY IN NEED OF REPAIR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Prominent Democrats from many States will attend the reception to be given at the Manhattan Club, February 22, when plans for reuniting the party in the nation will be discussed.

AT NEW YORK HOTELS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. F. Howell is at the Park Avenue. F. Farre is at the Imperial.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

LARGE BLOCK OF UNION STOCK SOLD.

TRANSFER INVOLVING THOUSANDS REPORTED MADE.

McKittrick's January Shipments Break Records—Search for Arizona Oil Begun—Western Union's Gusher Again Flowing—New Hope Gives Up.

A large block of Union Oil Company stock changed hands yesterday. On reliable authority it is learned that in the neighborhood of 2500 shares of this security were purchased through a local banking house for something like $130,000, or $60 a share. The principal seller is said to have been Senator Thomas R. Bard, who is one of the heavy stockholders of the Union.

The Union Oil Company is one of the large dividend payers in the State. Its recent quarterly dividend of $76,722 is a sample of what that company has been able to pay for some time past. On the floor of the local exchange the price asked is $59 a share, with few shares to be obtained at that figure. The capitalization is $10,000,000, and the par value of the stock is $100.

MCKITTRICK'S RECORD BROKEN.

January's shipments from the McKittrick field broke all previous records. The total amount of oil shipped was 256 cars, which is in the neighborhood of 30,000 barrels. For some time past the production of the field has been checked by limited transportation facilities. Producers are now anxious to have the Southern Pacific extend its line one or two miles west from Olig, the present terminus. A petition asking for this extension is now being circulated among the producers.

START MADE IN CAMELBACK.

The Rand Oil Company raised its first derrick Tuesday near Camelback Mountain, northeast of Phoenix. The company appears to be the first there with a really definite plan backed by the necessary skill and experience, and it is promised that a thorough exploration of the field will be given before it is abandoned. Fully a hundred locations have been made in the vicinity by those who hope to profit by the company's enterprise, but it is probable that this will be the only well bored unless success attends the venture. The formation of the vicinity varies from decomposed granite to conglomerate red sandstone, blue shale and slate cropping out at a number of points. The ground has been declared eminently favorable for oil by every expert who has examined it.

NEW ROAD NEAR COMPLETION.

The new road from Kern City to the Kern River oil fields will soon be completed, the bridges across the river and the Beardsley canal being about finished. The road will result in a saving of several miles, and will take most of the traffic from the district through Kern City.

WESTERN UNION GUSHER.

Well No. 4 of the Western Union Oil Company in the Santa Maria oil field, north of Santa Barbara, has broken loose again. Reports from the field are that oil is flowing over the casing, and indications are it will be a great producer.

END OF NEW HOPE.

AFTER THREE YEARS GIVES UP.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 5.—The New Hope company, which has been drilling on the north side of Poso Creek for nearly three years, has finally abandoned the attempt to get oil there. The utmost difficulty was encountered in getting down on account of the heaving sands, the hole filling up with them at times for hundreds of feet. The greatest depth ever reached by the company was about 1100 feet, and nothing was found that resembled oil except a thin streak of tar. When this tar was struck the men felt that a strike had been made, spread rapidly, and there was intense excitement over it, it being thought that the Kern River field had been extended for eight miles. Two companies are still at work on the north of the creek, the Defiance Minerals and the People's Union. Neither has been successful in the discovery of oil in paying quantities, although the first named has excellent showings.

EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

One of the jolliest trolley parties of the season was given yesterday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Stimson, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myrick of Boston. The party left Los Angeles at 6 o'clock in a private car for Santa Monica. A fish dinner was served at the Pavilion, and the return trip was made at midnight. The guests were entertained throughout the evening with negro melodies and selections, rendered by colored men. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel W. Myrick, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra T. Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bundrem, Maj. and Mrs. John H. Norton, Jr., and Mrs. J. J. Fay, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Braly, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tufts, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van der Leck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fleming, Mrs. Cora Clark, Miss Lila Fairchild; Messrs. Horace Henderson, Charles Henderson and Charles Praesent of Chicago.

Orange Street Whist Club.

The Orange Street Whist Club, which was recently reorganized for the season, met yesterday evening with Dr. and Mrs. John W. Trueworthy at their home on Garland avenue. The club members include the following named: Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Cates, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hinton, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Trueworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. White, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Garretson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Botsford, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Henderson Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beebe, Senator and Mrs. R. N. Bulla, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Keuer, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Forve, and E. T. Earl. The following guests were present yesterday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Haskett, Dr. and Mrs. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Smith, Mrs. Bernard and Frank Smith.

Louis-Brown.

Miss Helen H. Louis and Chester W. Brown were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Louis, on North Union avenue. The wedding was a quiet one, witnessed by only a few friends and relatives. Rev. Henry C. Pierson officiated and he was assited by Rev. Thomas Hallowell. The groom formerly resided in Los Angeles, but for the past few years he has been engaged in business in Peru, South America. He has been visiting in Los Angeles for several weeks among relatives and friends. The bride is considered very prominent in social circles in this city, where she has a wide acquaintance. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the "Owl" yesterday afternoon for San Francisco. From there they will go direct to Peru, their future home.

Dancing Party.

Miss Esther Burchard entertained a few of her young friends with an informal dancing party, given at the Broadway Hotel Tuesday evening. The party was held in the hotel lobby. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Stella Warfield, Aileen Alderson, Florence Barker, Lucia Wood, Martha Wood, Dorothy MargueHte Seymour; Masters Eugene Van Trees, Henry Hamilton, Jesse Brilliant, Ben Jack, Stanley Gibson and Clay Wood.

Florodora Whist Club.

Mrs. M. G. Herrera entertained the members of the Florodora Whist Club yesterday afternoon at her residence on South Alvarado street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, poinsettias and ferns. Mrs. Frank Pitner captured first prize and the second was won by Mrs. Thomas Horner. At the close of the game refreshments were served. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Bryson two weeks from yesterday at her home, corner of Second and Hill streets. Those present were Mmes. M. W. Everhardy, Ferdinand Smith, Frank Pitner, Thomas Horner, George W. Walker, Edwin Metler, Frank Bryson, F. Reetkowsky, Hawley, T. E. McShane, Joseph Pascholy.

Altar Guild Bazaar.

The reception and sale held yesterday at the home of Rev. J. J. Wilkins on West Seventh street was a financial and social success. The affair was under the auspices of the Altar Guild, which is composed of the young ladies of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, and they acted as a reception committee and had charge of the handkerchief and candy booths. The booths were handsomely decorated with tropical foliage and flowers. During the afternoon Mrs. Henry T. Lee presided at the tea tables.

Charity Ball.

The charity ball to be given at Kramer's this evening for the benefit of the Children's Hospital, promises to be the social event of the season. More than eleven hundred invitations have been issued, and the society people have been very generous with their subscriptions. Those who have neglected to subscribe their money, in response to the invitations issued, will have the opportunity of doing so at the hall this evening.

Notes and Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cochran will leave today on the Sunset Limited to attend the Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

An interesting debate will be held at the Y.M.C.A. tonight at 8 o'clock. The question, Resolved, that the provisions of the Constitution of the United States shall be extended to outside possessions," will be discussed by four of the members.

FEDERATED WOMAN'S CLUBS GATHERED.

DETAILS OF OPENING DAY OF STATE CONVENTION.

Los Angeles and Other Southern California Representatives in San Francisco for First Meeting, Important in View of Coming National Event.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—The California Federation of Woman's Clubs is congratulating itself upon the fortituous beginning of the first convention in its history, and every indication points to a series of successful sessions. The delegates from the central and southern part of the State continue to arrive, and are rapidly enrolled and assigned to quarters. Mrs. F. E. Prior, president of the Wednesday Morning Club, Mrs. I. J. Reynolds and Mrs. Lou V. Chapin came in from Pasadena last evening, and are at the Sutherland, where Mrs. Strickland Clark of Los Angeles, Mrs. Ella Enderlein and Mrs. Llewellyn of Los Angeles are also quartered. Mrs. W. T. Lewis, president of the Ebell Club, came in this morning, and is at the Renton, while fifteen members and delegates from various Southern California clubs are at the Pleasanton, and beld there an informal meeting this morning.

The various committees were hard at work all the forenoon getting the machinery of the convention in running order, and transacted a large amount of business. The interest was most intense in the work of the Nominating Committee, as Mrs. Lovell White's resignation from the head of the ticket made it necessary to choose a new candidate for the presidency.

Rumors were rife of a contest over this important office, more important now, in view of the approaching biennial meeting of the National Federation, but these were set at rest by the unanimous decision of the committee in favor of Mrs. Kate I. Bulkley, president of the Oakland Ebell Club, the oldest of California Woman's Clubs. Mrs. Bulkley is chairman of the Programme Committee, and one of the most popular of Northern California clubwomen.

The selection of Mrs. Bulkley as president is the sequel to the division in the California club upon the question of the admission of colored women to the General Federation of Clubs. In response to the circular sent out by the Executive Board of the National Federation of Woman's Clubs, the California Club discussed the color question, and its action upon the affirmative so displeased Mrs. White, its president, that she resigned, not only the presidency of the California Club, the most active and prominent organization in the San Francisco district, comprising in its membership 400 women, but also led to her withdrawal from the head of the State ticket. The vice-president of the California Club, through one of the newspapers, also resigned, stating over her own signature that her resignation was due to that of Mrs. White, but has not formally notified the club of her resolution, and the California Club, which has been most active in the State work and has done much to make the present meeting a success is placed in a most embarrassing position, and one with which the clubs generally sympathize. The formal meeting this afternoon was preceded by a council of the club presidents.

Mayor Schmitz opened the convention by an address of welcome. The assemblage that listened to his address was very different from the traditional gathering of "blue-stockings," and the well-gowned, well-poised and bright-faced clubwomen were quick to respond to the "points" in the Mayor's address, which expressed his views on the subject of woman suffrage. It was a typical presentation stereoptyped suffragists' argument, and might be said to be a political speech more moderate than might have been expected of a man of Mayor Schmitz's well-known socialistic tendencies, and had the great merit of brevity. He gave a brief review of woman's position in society under primitive conditions, and traced her up to the time when "woman" is spelled with a capital "W."

The welcome of the local clubs was tendered by Mrs. Louis Weinmann, and both were responded to by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, president of the C.F.W.C., who replied in her happiest vein. Golden Gate Hall is beautifully decorated with greenery and bunting, and here this evening a brilliant reception will be held. The clubwomen of the city have spared no pains to make this reception one of the most notable ever held in the clubdom of this State.

The club presidents of all the local clubs will act as hostesses, and with them the wives of the presidents of the universities will extend greetings to the delegates and their friends. In tomorrow's letter I will give details of this function, which promises to be one of great brilliancy.

Burglars Ransack Home at Lancaster and Take Valuable Articles—Goods Scattered on the Floors.

The police were notified yesterday of a burglary at Lancaster, which was one of the most successful in the history of that town. Tuesday afternoon during the temporary absence of A. Halsey, his residence was thoroughly ransacked. When the family returned the household goods were piled on the floors. There was much which the burglars might have stolen, but they were evidently looking for articles of value not difficult to carry.

Valuables were left on the floor, but the thieves secured two diamond rings, a gold watch and other jewelry of the total value of $150. The burglary is supposed to have been committed by tramps, of whom there are many constantly passing through Lancaster. A reward has been offered for the recovery of the goods and the capture of the burglars.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Ruskin Art Club.

The art environment of Sicily in the eleventh and twelfth centuries was the subject studied by the Ruskin Club yesterday, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Housh. Mrs. W. J. Washburn had prepared a fine map of the island, which she explained in a short talk, touching on the myths developed in certain localities and other features bearing on art atmosphere. Miss M. E. Abbott gave the early history of Sicily, tracing especially the rise of the family of Hauteville and its accession to the kingship in Roger, his sons and grandson. Mrs. H. G. Brainerd read a paper on Palermo. Mrs. J. C. Fletcher gave personal reminiscences of this city, and exhibited some very beautiful specimens of carved amber, a specialty of Catania. Miss A. M. Leroy described the Capella Palatina at Palermo and the cathedral of Monreale.

"Twentieth-century Boy."

Charles A. Kinou, superintendent of manual training in the city schools, gave an address on the above topic yesterday afternoon at the Child Study Circle of the Casco-street school. Miss Stone, special teacher of music, spoke on "The Relation of Music to the Development of the Child's Faculties," and Mrs. Jennie Donohue, principal of the school, spoke on "Promotions." Several songs were sung by the pupils of the third and fourth grades, and Miss Munden gave piano selections. There were twenty-nine patrons of the school present.

Santa Monica Coterie.

A meeting of the Santa Monica Coterie was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Josephine Dexter on Third street. Mrs. M. D. Featyer read a paper on "The Government of Russia." Mrs. Dexter read a paper on "The Present Ruler of Russia." A musical selection was given by Mrs. Vermille.

Mrs Alice A. Fitch of Los Angeles was received as a new member of the club. The Coterie is preparing to entertain a large delegation of the General Federation of Women's Clubs when that federation meets in Los Angeles.

SILVER-PLATED FAKER.

"But He Was Such a Nice-looking Young Fellow and Such a Good Talker."

A silver-tongued young man, with a silver-plating proposition, is reaping a harvest of silver coin from the housewives of Los Angeles.

He sells a solution for silver-plating water faucets, brass door knobs and other like articles about the house, but the stuff doesn't stick more than about twenty-four hours, and disappointment is sure to follow in the wake of the purchase.

Yesterd.. he worked East Los Angeles, and a lady who had been taken in came to The Times office with her plaint.

"I was fool enough to buy the stuff, though I knew about it, for I had been caught once before.

"But he was such a nice looking young fellow and such a good talker.

"I—huh—I like to have my faucets look nice and bright, and thought I'd try it again; but in twenty-four hours it just looks like frost, and tomorrow morning the frost will be gone.

"But he was such a nice looking young fellow and such a good talker.

"He told us how he was selling it for a San Francisco firm, just to introduce it, at 15 cents a bottle, but after this it could only be bought at 50 cents. Of course I knew that wasn't true, but there—he was such a nice looking fellow and was such a good talker.

"Some women bought six bottles, and I thought the public ought to be warned against the fraud, for it is just throwing one's money away.

"But—huh—he was such a——

"Oh, my, yes; it worked beautifully when he tried it for you.

"And he was such a——

"Yes, indeed; when I put it on the faucets it looked just like silver, but now it's only frost.

"But he was——

"Oh, yes, tell the people about it, for it is a clean swindle."

SAVINGS BANK INTEREST. The annual report of the Massachusetts Bank Commissioner proves that the number of banks which paid 4 per cent. interest on deposits has fallen from 114 to 55. The average rate is now 3.75 per cent., against 3.81 per cent. a year ago. The banks have increased their investments in railway bonds, while their holdings of national bank shares are declining.

COST OF RE-EQUIPMENT. It was believed that one of the several reasons for the low price of United States steel securities is the fact that too small a sum has been allowed for equipment depreciation. It was pointed out that the Carnegie company put aside for this purpose as much as 15 per cent. annually, while its successor allows but 4 per cent. Semi-officially the company has taken notice of this criticism, and permits it to be understood that the amount set aside is entirely for contingencies, and does not represent outlays for repairs, accidents, etc., actually made. These charges, it is said, are made against the product in hand. This practice, of course, reduces the net return on that product by the amount of the outlay, but its effect is declared to be that at the end of the year the plants of the corporation are in practically as good condition as at the beginning. This, in effect, signifies that the $9,000,000 already set aside for depreciation is in addition to these charges, made from time to time.—[American Banker.

SITUATION IN CURRANTS. Private mail advices from Patras, Greece, to a New York house, referring to the situation in currants, state: "The steadiness reported hitherto has been maintained, and the markets close at full prices, notwithstanding the limited business doing. Holders in the provinces are very firm and unwilling to sell; the arrivals in consequence are limited. The total shipments to December 31 compare as follows with the two preceding seasons:

To—	1901. Tons.	1900. Tons.	1899. Tons.
England	44,301	31,184	43,322
United States and Canada	14,900	4,145	14,852
Australia	3,400	2,275	4,147
France	441	31	1,005
Continent	29,579	2,185	15,000
Totals	92,579	40,280	91,467

"In the foregoing shipments to December 31 last are not included those for the continent and England, per several steamers lately, which have taken together over 4,000 tons. Two weeks in January 1 are estimated to be about 28,000 tons. The currants deposited with the 'Currants Bank' up to December 31, for the Retsina are officially given as 12,700 tons."

COTTON GOODS. The movement of the cotton crop is still playing an important part as a factor in the cotton-goods situation. Up to the present time it has been on such a liberal scale that buyers are being governed by it to such an extent that it restricts their operations to providing for current requirements, checking any inclination to purchase ahead in such staple lines as are usually in growing demand during the latter part of January. Practically its influence reaches no further than this. There is no visible effect upon the attitude of sellers, and there is a general absence of pressure to secure orders at the expense of values. Houses representing Southern mills report quite generally that their manufacturers are indifferent toward the crop figures up to date, and are willing to take their chances of the developments of the next few weeks under the belief that the invisible supply is very much short of what it was at this time last year. With no unsold stocks of any moment and with forward production under orders to a considerable extent they are in a position to do this without weakening. The current demand, meanwhile, grows slowly in volume, but grows at steady prices.

Cotton, midland uplands, spot, New York, 8 5-16 cents; print cloths, 28-inch, standards, 2 cents; gray goods, 38½-inch, standards, 4 cents; brown drills, eastern, standard, 5¼@6 cents; brown drills, Southern, standard, 5%@5¾ cents; brown sheetings, Southern, standard, 5¼@5½ cents; brown sheetings, Southern, 3-yards, 5¼@5¾ cents; brown sheetings, Southern, 4-yards, 5¾ to 6; 4¼@4¾ cents; denims, 9 ounces, 11½@12½ cents; ticklings, 8 ounces, 9½@10½ cents; standard fancy prints, 5 cents; standard staple ginghams, 6¾ cents; fine dress ginghams, 8 cents; kid finished cambrics, 3¾ cents.

Business in the print-cloth division of the market is restricted by the difficulty of placing orders for any near delivery. Prices are without change. Regulars, 2 cents per yard. There has been no change in wide goods of any extent; 38½-inch 5.13-yard standards, 4 cents.—[Journal of Commerce.

CITRUS-FRUIT SHIPMENTS. There were shipped from Southern California Tuesday 99 carloads of oranges and 3 of lemons. The total shipments for the season, November 1, 1901, to date, are 2331 carloads, of which 398 are lemons.

FORTUNES GIVEN AWAY. The notable feature of the general prosperity of 1901 was the number of fortunes given away as gifts for educational purposes by rich men throughout the United States. Giving only those whose gifts exceed $1,000,000, the aggregate reaches the inconceivable amount of over $85,000,000. The list is as follows:

Andrew Carnegie	$44,200,000
Mrs. P. D. Armour	1,000,000
Mrs. Emmons Blaine	1,000,000
J. P. Morgan to Harvard	1,000,000

GREAT DEMAND FOR CANDY. When times are bad and money scarce among the great mass of people the first inclination is to economize in the matter of luxuries. There is ample proof that such has not been the condition during the past year, at least if candies may be regarded as a luxury. Manufacturers of sweet goods say they have not known such a demand for their products in forty years as existed during 1901. Reports from factories show that the production of candies was increased fully 25 per cent. over the previous year, and prices were quite satisfactory throughout the year. Some factories did not report quite 25 per cent. increase, but the only reason for not doing so was their lack of capacity to supply the demand for their goods. They made all they could and sold it as fast as made, some even keeping their traveling salesmen off the road weeks at a time in order to catch up with orders. Some factories with available room for work made larger increases. And there was no accumulation of stocks in store. Everything went as fast as possible to satisfy a seemingly insatiable demand for candy. This condition was not limited to Milwaukee, which is one of the greatest candy manufacturing centers in the United States, but was general throughout the country. Reports from nearly every candy manufacturer in Wisconsin note their inability to supply the demand for their products. And there has been a broadening of the market field for Milwaukee-made sweets, notably from Ambrosia chocolate, for which there have been calls from Southern Mexico, Australia, New Zealand and other distant countries. Other manufacturers of sweet goods have had foreign demand for their goods. All of this has come unsought, as the home demand was all that could possibly be supplied. It has been a good year for the candy makers, which they needed, as they were sufferers during the half dozen years of hard times following 1893. The International Confectioner, of which Otto J. Schoenleber of this city is the Wisconsin representative, has an exhaustive review of the candy business of the city and State for the year in its Christmas number. Mr. Schoenleber has given Wisconsin candy makers and candy makers a world-wide prominence, which they richly merit.—[Milwaukee Sentinel.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

The potato market is very firm, stocks at primary points being much reduced. In Oregon and Nevada a good many were destroyed by the frost.

Stocks of onions at all points are light and prices are firm at full outside figures.

In the local market dried fruits are in light supply. Stocks of prunes and raisins at primary points are becoming very light. Prices all around are very firm. A further advance in raisins is looked for at an early day.

There is a good demand for oranges. Eastern buyers are in the market for f. o. b. purchases. For January the shipments of citrus fruit were only 2234 carloads. For the first two months of the season, November and December, the shipments were 2732 carloads, making for three months 4966 carloads.

Last season the first two months showed shipments of 2754 carloads, and January there were shipped 2891 carloads, making 5535 carloads for three months. The shortage for January this year was 567 carloads. It was less even than in 1900 by nearly 400 carloads. For the three months the shortage is about the same as for January, as the shipments in the first two months were practically the same each season. In February last season there were shipped 3380 carloads, and in March 4256. It is apparent that these months this season will show a big deficit as compared with last season, or even with 1900.

Apples are in active demand in the local market, the best being advanced to $2 per box.

Bananas continue to come in freely, and the demand is good.

All kinds of live stock are firm, and fresh meats are so in an equal degree.

Butter is firm at 57½ to 60 cents for creamery and 50 to 52½ for dairy.

Eggs have fluctuated some from day to day, going as low as 19 cents, and as high as 21 cents. They are rather scarce today (Wednesday) and are firm at 21 cents.

Local cheese is very firm, stocks being very light at the factory.

Feed barley is firm. There is no more than enough to go round until new crop is in, and the new crop is by no means a certainty. Choice hay is fairly held. Anything good to fancy brings $10 to $13 per ton.

Poultry, whether alive or dressed, is very scarce. The market is all but bare of live poultry. Dressed poultry is costing high prices to lay down. Turkeys in carloads lots are quoted at 16½ cents per pound.

Beans are quiet. Nearly all trade is in pinks. Prices are firm.

No changes are reported in cereal products.

Provisions are unusually steady. No quotable change what ever has taken place in ten days.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Today's stock market was a dull affair again, in spite of spasmodic efforts by pools to awaken a general movement. By the time they succeeded in moving prices at one point depression would develop at another, and in consequence the dull movement was irregular all day. Striking movements in closely-held high-priced stocks continued a feature. The significance of these movements was not disclosed, although traders sought to make the most of them for their sympathetic effect on the general list. These apparently sensational movements on a very small volume of trading are a natural consequence where the stock of a company is closely held for purposes of control, or centralized in the hands of a few powerful capitalists for investment, who are quite uninfluenced by the course of prices in the open market. Among the stocks so moving were the Chicago and Northwestern, Amercan Express, United States Express and Lackawanna, Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, which advanced 10½ yesterday and reacted 6½ today. The recent sensational upward movement in Lackawanna is associated with the rumors of control of that road in the interest of an outlay for the Wabash system. The Wabash stocks were very firm today in the same connection. Another center of speculation was in the local traction stocks, under the influence of published reports from Philadelphia of information of a securities company to hold Metropolitan Railway stock and possibly other local traction stocks. Manhattan was the most active of this group, and the Metropolitan Street Railway, after an upward spurt of 1¾, declined on profit-taking, falling 1¾ below last night during the day and closing fractions of 2¾ below it. The speculation in Amalgamated Copper was very feverish, the price running off 1¾ during the morning on the further break in London copper markets and the slump in Rio Tintos. The steadying of the London copper market and reports of a panic among the bears in Rio Tintos materially recovered the loss per to 1¾ over last night, and it was an effective factor in the late rally in the New York stock market. The speculative pool operating in Southern Pacific took that stock vigorously in hand, and pushed it up 3¾ on very large dealings. The general market rallied in sympathy. St. Paul rose 2 points over last night and a number of other transcontinentals about a point. Steel also developed some strength at the close. The recent buying of sugar continued, but its rise was only a fraction. There was no general influence effective in the market at any time beyond the disposition to dullness caused by the export movement of gold and the unsettlement incident to the Northern Securities Company. The bond market was only moderately active, but was inclined to firmness. Sales, par value, $1,747,000. United States refundings, 2s advanced ¼ per cent. on the last call.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Wheat lay almost lifeless today—the dullest market it has experienced for a long time. Routine news was indifferent, and on the whole, the pit lacked any feature to redeem it from lethargy. The early fluctuations were almost imperceptible, though, under the influence of corn, May at one time got ¾c under yesterday's close. There was almost no speculation. Cables were slightly lower, but improved with the day. There were some selling orders, and the local crowd sold at every opportunity, though not to any great extent. The usual statistics were slightly bullish, but helped little. May opened ¼ to ⅜c lower at 70@71¾, and sold up to 72¼. On the corn break May slowly declined to 71¾, but reacted on covering, the small reaction in corn and the improving cables. May closed a trifle weaker, ⅛ to ¼c lower, at 71¾. Corn, while not so dull as wheat, was a weak and quiet market. Sentiment was generally bearish, regardless of bullish news from the country. May corn closed ⅛ to ⅜c lower, at 43¼. Oats were dull and featureless. May closed ⅛ to ⅜c lower at 44. After a fairly strong and higher opening, provisions sold off with the grain slump. May pork closed 5c lower; lard a shade lower and ribs unchanged.

The leading futures closed as follows:

London Financial Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Commercial Advertiser's London financial cablegram says: "The tone of the stock market was good today, the partially-successful pursuit of Gen. De Wet's forces stimulating buying. The American department was still neglected. The copper situation is looked upon with disfavor, as are New York gold exports. In the afternoon, however, New York bought South Africa on a revival of old consolidation rumors. Rio Tintos closing 65¾, after having touched the extreme of 44½. Anaconda closed at 6¾-16, or ⅛ down for the day. Anglo-American breweries were firmly bought in anticipation of the removal of the war tax on beer in July. Canadian Pacific jumped on Berlin buying. It is understood that the Charter Trust Company has received subscriptions to the amount of £7,000,000."

California Dried Fruit.

FULLERTON.

HONEY STRONG ON BEES.

FULLERTON, Feb. 5.—H. A. Honey, formerly owner of the Fullerton water- works, will leave soon on an extended visit through Cuba and Porto Rico with a view of engaging in the bee business on a large scale if the finds a suitable location. He now has 100 stands of bees in Santiago Cañon, ships honey in large quanties annually, and will increase the number of stands to 500. Unless it rains soon Mr Honey will move his bees to Ventura county, leave an experienced man in charge, and then will leave on his southern trip.

FULLERTON BREVITIES.

Orange county has been assigned the subject of "Bacteria" for discussion at the Southern California Farmers' Clubs' meeting to be held at Pomona in April. C. C. Chapman, Theodore Caley and A. A. Mills have been ap- pointed a committee to represent the Fullerton-Placentia club at this semi- annual meeting of farmers' clubs.

Sandy Gardiner is taking an ad- vanced course in mining in the Rolla, Mo., college.

G. G. Bayha of Los Angeles, who own a large vineyard and olive or- chard at Yorba, has installed an olive oil mill. It is operated by a gasoline engine, and turns out 100 gallons of pure olive oil daily. Two hundred gal- lons of oil was the output Friday and Saturday. It sells for $2 a gallon.

C. W. Overton decided a few days ago to have the bees removed from the residence he recently purchased from Mrs. P. Pfeninger. A Pomona bee man offered to do the job if given the bees and honey, to which Mr. Over- ton readily consented, but he was sur- prised when he saw 1015 pounds of good honey and fourteen swarms of bees removed from the roof. The honey is worth 5 cents a pound.

ELKS OF RIVERSIDE ENTERTAIN LAVISHLY.

FIRST BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OF LODGE CELEBRATED.

Elaborate Decorations, Stirring Speeches, Mock Installation, Music, Dancing, Cards and Supper Make Up the Event—Woman's Club to In- corporate.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 5.—Riverside Lodge, No. 643, Benevolent and Pro- tective Order of Elks, entertained on a lavish scale at the Odd Fellows' build- ing last evening in honor of the first birthday anniversary of the lodge. Through the courtesy of several other fraternal organizations, the entire sec- ond and third floors of the building were at the disposal of the lodge. The decorations in the lodge room, the dancing hall, the banquet room and in the hallways were elaborate and beau- tiful, a wealth of palms, growing plants, smilax and other greenery being arranged with rare artistic effect.

The royal purple and white elks' hoofs were much in evidence. Music was rendered by a Los Angeles orches- tra, and supper was served throughout the evening. Exalted Ruler H. T. Raymond made the welcome address, which, with a mock initiation and stirring speeches by Rev. M. C. Dotten and Chas. M. J. Daniels, combined to make the early part of the evening especially pleasant. Dancing and cards were in- dulged in later. The committee in charge consisted of M. J. Twogood, F. T. Morrison, F. D. Lewis, S. D. Pelton and W. R. Dowler.

SAN BERNARDINO.

LIGHTING RATES FIXED.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 5.—Some weeks ago the City Trustees passed an ordinance providing that, beginning the first of next month, the rates charged for electric lights within the corporate limits shall be fixed and reg- ulated by the Trustees, instead of the supplying company, or companies. Last night had been fixed by the board as the time for taking up the rates for coming year. When President Han- son asked if there was any representa- tive of the San Bernardino Electric Company present, prepared to furnish any information that would as- sist in fixing rates allowing an in- crease of more than 6 per cent. to the company on its investment, no one re- sponded, although there was a repre- sentative on hand to see what was do- ne. The ordinance, as prepared by the City Attorney, was then read and the figures for lights agreed upon. The rates adopted by the board makes a cut in the price for incandes- cent lights ranging from 30 to 50 per cent. The rate for arc lights is fixed at $6.50 a month, what the city is now paying, and no more may be charged for commercial arcs. The Electric Company insists that the City Trustees are not vested with legal power to fix the rates for lighting, and the new ordinance, if effective, will at first not diminish the com- pany's $135 per month local lighting bill, probably not be settled until it reaches the Supreme Court. The board will meet next Mon- day evening, when the ordinance will be further considered.

M'KINLEY MONUMENT FUND.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVITIES.

The Supervisors passed an ordinance yesterday, making it a misdemeanor for a bicyclist to ride past a pedestrian on a sidewalk anywhere in the county and outside of the incorporated limits of any municipality.

A franchise for an electric street-car line on Colton avenue, from Mill street south to Colton, was sold yesterday by the Supervisors to the San Bernardino Valley Traction Company, whose bid was $166.

Rudolph R. Rutledge, who is charged with forging the name of A. J. Cram on numerous checks, was yesterday held to answer by Justice Thomas on a forgery charge in the Superior Court. The defendant's attorney offered no evidence, but the chances are the case will be hard-fought in the Superior Court.

John E. Ward yesterday refused an offer of $18,000 for fifty feet frontage on the south side of Third street, east of the Commercial Hotel. The frontage is occupied by three small one-story buildings.

Eleven persons were arrested yester- day for violating the anti-spitting or- dinance. One went to jail and the others paid fines of $1 and $2.

The Supervisors yesterday granted the Edison Electric Company a special permit, good for two years, less one day, to build a pole line between San Bernardino and Colton. The company will furnish power to operate the Trac- tion Company's electric road.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Blank of Fort Madison, Iowa, are guests at the home of A. L. Mespelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Doolittle of Los Angeles are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Draper.

M. Levy left today for San Francisco.

HOLD-UPS NOT "IN IT."

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ONTARIO, Feb. 5.—The cleverest "grafter" that ever came to town has gone and left a lot of people here feeling "cheap" in more ways than one. He worked an old, old racket, but found easy "suckers," and doubtless his blessing will long rest upon Ontario.

He is a stranger and arrived Saturday afternoon, announc- ing that he would give a free show that evening in A. O. U. W. Hall. The place was filled with young men, including some of the would-be sports. Mr Smoothy (no other name known) stepped upon the stage and told his auditors he was going to swindle them; he is truthful, for he kept his word.

Holding up a "gold" watch he asked how much somebody would give, and a young fellow said "ten dollars." The trick- ster took the money and then handed it and the watch to the bidder. Everybody expected a "snap" of the same sort, and when cigars were offered they jumped to put up $5, and even $10 a box. Smoothy took the money and handed out the "smokes."

Then the "easy marks" looked disappointed, and the stranger announced that he would appear again last night, with household goods to sell, and bade all a pleasant "good night." This didn't look just right and those who had been caught made a rush for the platform and de- manded their money back.

The stranger drew a pistol and calmly announced that he would give them two minutes to clear out. They left in a hurry, and he disappeared with $200 that had been generously do- nated by his victims. They are sorry, and he didn't come last night.

ONTARIO.

FAMILY REUNION.

ONTARIO, Feb. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Horton celebrated their twenty-sev- enth wedding anniversary and also the seventy-sixth birthday of Mrs. Horton's father, C. R. Morse, and the seventy- fourth birthday of her mother, Mrs. H. A. Morse, yesterday, by a reunion of the family and old friends at their home on West B street. Fifteen sat at the dinner table. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. B. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. James Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Hakes of Williamsburg, Iowa; Mrs. Alma Clark, Henry Denslow, Mrs. Eliza Powers, Mrs. Ella Brown and Miss J. A. Morsey. Six of these were old people, whose ages ranged from seventy-three to eighty-six years, mak- ing an average age of seventy-seven years and ten months.

A. H. Jandus and wife of Chicago are here for a short visit.

N. W. Harris, a well-known eastern banker, and his wife and daughter are here for the winter, staying at the Casa Loma.

This afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Suess on Fourth street, Miss Rosa Suess and Arthur G. Frame were married. They are well known here and have many friends.

Rev. H. W. Knickerbocker of Los An- geles has been engaged by the members of the Unitarian Church to conduct services for them here. The first service will be held next Sunday evening.

H. Kendall of Brookings, S. D., ar- rived yesterday to spend the winter.

DEATH'S HARVEST AT SANTA BARBARA.

CHIEF OF POLICE MARTIN A VIC- TIM OF PNEUMONIA.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 5.—Chief of Police Daniel W. Martin died at his home on Anacapa street, at 1:55 o'clock this morning, from the effects of an at- tack of pneumonia. A few days ago Mr. Martin was attacked with la grippe, which, at the time, was not thought serious, but it soon developed into alarming conditions, and compli- cations, and in a very few days run its course.

Mr. Martin was a native of Mis- souri, and was 46 years of age. He came to Santa Barbara about twenty years ago. For several terms he was City Marshal, and when the new charter was adopted, he was ap- pointed Chief of Police, which office he has held ever since. He was con- nected with a number of fraternal or- ders, in each of which his standing was good. With his friends he was very popular, and he was liked by all who came to know him, or had busi- ness dealings with him. He leaves a widow and six children. Mrs. Mar- tin, at this writing, is also very ill with la grippe.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at Odd Fellows' Hall.

MRS. MARY GREEN.

Mrs. Mary Green died this morning, at the age of 75 years. Mrs. Green had been a resident of Santa Barbara for many years. Her husband, John Green, made the first gas ever made in this city.

N. B. DARRELL.

N. B. Darrell of the San Marcos Ho- tel, who, in attempting to take a heavy trunk down stairs a few days ago, fell, fracturing a hip and sus- taining internal injuries, died Monday morning. Pneumonia set in shortly after the accident, and medical aid was unavailing. Mr. Darrell had been a resident of Santa Barbara for many years. He was born on one of the Bermuda Islands, and was 73 years of age. He leaves a widow and two chil- dren, Mrs. Carpenter, proprietress of the San Marcos lodging-house, and John Dugan, Chief of the fire depart- ment.

NO DAMAGE BY FROST.

While all parts of Southern California have suffered more or less from the late heavy frosts, Santa Barbara and vicinity escaped any serious results. One of the most severe tests was made in the Montecito Valley, where, at an elevation of 700 feet above ocean level, the most tender vegetation has gone through the season without a blemished leaf or petal.

LARGE ESTATE DISTRIBUTED.

A decree of distribution in an im- portant estate has just been filed with the County Recorder in this county. The decree was issued out of Judge Coffey's court in San Francisco, and af- fects property situated in twenty counties in this State. The property in question was left by the late Alex- ander McNee, a capitalist, who died nearly three years ago. McNee, leav- ing no family, his entire estate goes to two sisters and three nieces. One of the sisters, Helen Shaw Jackson, re- ceived $10,000 in cash as her share, the balance being divided equally be- tween Margaret H. Lawrence, Mary H. Jackson, Nella R. Hart and Netta C. McIntosh. The real estate consists chiefly of town lots, and small farm- ing tracts, situated partly in this city and county.

SANTA BARBARA BREVITIES.

The fifth anniversary of the Y.W.C.A. held in the Presbyterian Church last night, was largely attended, and much enthusiasm was aroused for the asso- ciation by the stirring addresses made. The programme was an excellent one, consisting of music by the Episcopal choir and addresses, chiefly by speak- ers from abroad. At the business meeting held earlier in the evening, J. F. Diehl, H. Dawe, J. A. Walton, B. B. Williams, J. M. Warren and W. S. Edwards were elected directors for the ensuing year.

Two new voting precincts have been established in the northern portion of the county. One will include territory between Santa Maria and Los Alamos, and will be known as the Caveaga pre- cinct, with polling place in the vicinity of the oil wells. There will be about 150 votes in this precinct. The other will have its center at Betteravia, and will have a total of from 300 to 350 votes. The polling place will be at the sugar factory. The territory will be taken from Santa Maria and Guada- lupe precincts.

The Supervisors have appointed view- ers to survey the proposed coast drive, and to make estimates of the cost and damages. The viewers will report at the next meeting of the board, in March, when action will be taken as to whether the drive shall or shall not be constructed.

A string of tools weighing over two tons, and 150 feet of cable have fallen into an oil well on the Underhill ranch, near Los Alamos. The well is the prop- erty of the Prima Vera Oil Company. The drillers have sent to San Francisco for a slip socket.

The Santa Barbara Lumber Com- pany has sent north an order for 2,000,- 000 feet of lumber, of which 2,000,000 is for the new hotel, the rest for other projected buildings in this city. Five cargoes are expected to reach port during this month.

As the work of excavating progresses at the Burton Mound, Indian relics are being continually unearthed. At present the collection nearly fills a good-sized room. Some well-preserved bones and skulls have been procured.

The Johnson Fruit Company has on exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce a box each of oranges and lemons that would be prize winners at any fair on the Coast.

C. W. Rowley, a member of the State Board of Pharmacy, has returned from San Francisco, where for several weeks he has been attending a meeting of the board.

Elwell McDonald, an eastern rail- road man, is spending a few weeks in Santa Barbara with his family. He is employed by the Vanderbilt system.

SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY.

PIONEER WOMAN KILLED.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Feb. 5.—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Sellers, one of the pioneer women of the county, was held here today. Her death was a very sad one. She was sitting in the parlor of her home reading a book, Charles Priest, who was employed at the Sellers home, was just outside the house cleaning a rifle. The gun was accidentally discharged and the bullet passed through the wall of the house and struck Mrs. Sellers. It entered the brain, causing instant death.

SAN LUIS OBISPO BREVITIES.

At the regular city election in April a proposition will be submitted to the voters to issue $1000 bonds to buy land for a city park. The election will easily be carried by those favoring the park, for already fully three-fourths of the voters of the town have signed a petition favoring the project.

James Martinoni Grand Secretary of the Druids, paid an official visit to Mission Grove of this city tonight and was given a banquet. Visitors were present from the Guadalupe and Cuyu- cos groves.

A. C. Gibson of this city and Miss Flora M. Brophy of Templeton were married in San Francisco yesterday.

Norman Sandercock has commenced building a residence at Morro and Pismo streets.

H. C. Moore, who embezzled money entrusted to him by the Tribune of this city, was allowed to plead guilty in the Justice Court and was given a light sentence in the County Jail.

Thomas Lauritzen, a bicycle rider, collided with a cart today and was thrown under the cart and run over, sustaining ugly but not serious injuries.

George Knapp, recently a constable in this city, has been arrested in San Francisco on a charge of highway rob- bery. It is alleged that he held up a man on Turk street.

Sues Haggin for Quarter of Million Dollars Alleged Commission Due Him on Mining Deals.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dis- patch.] Athole B. Reader, who an- nounced in October last his marriage to Ella Lawles, head of a Wall-street stenographic concern, has sued James B. Haggin, the millionaire horse- owner and banker, for $352,980. He says he was engaged to negotiate for mines in Peru for Haggin, and that he was to get 10 per cent. of the cost price on such mines, as Haggin agreed to buy. In accordance with the contract, he says, he negotiated with 358 mines, for which the defendant took mining titles and agreed to pay £520,000, or slightly over $2,500,000. Ten per cent. is what Reader wants.

DREADFUL FAMILY TRAGEDY.

WATERLOO (Iowa) Feb. 5.—Mrs. Ed Kushner and two children were burned to death in their home last night in a fire caused by the overturning of a lamp. One other child was fatally burned, and three others seriously in- jured.

STORM BREWING.

Facts That Threaten to Lead to a Very Serious Clash.

Overindulgence in liquor and overtaxed by a long spell of ailments are the causes that bring many a man to a state where he needs confi- dence to make him over, and to remove all the causes that are dragging him down. "Cupi- dene" cleanses as no other cleanser does. It revives the vitality that has been depressed by careless habits. It braces and restores a shattered constitution to healthy and vigorous manhood. Cures Colds at Once

During the last year more sufferers from colds, whether in the head or lungs, have been cured by Halpruner's Wonderful Medicine than all the other medicines combined.

What is the use of wasting words and suffering with a cold when you can get relief within two minutes time after taking Halpruner's?

People who know the value of Hal- pruner's Wonderful Medicine never have colds any more—they keep this remarkable medicine in their home, where they can get at it quickly as soon as they feel the first symptoms of cold.

For a cold in the head they inhale the vapor by pouring a few drops of the medicine in their hands and holding them beneath the nostrils—also taking a teaspoonful every hour or so. The inhalations give immediate relief and the internal dose drives out the cold and the cause of it.

If the cold is in the throat or lungs they rub the medicine in until they know it has penetrated deeply and is doing the work it was intended to do. Internal doses are also good for a cold in the throat and lungs, for Halpruner's seeks the seat of the trouble and removes the causes quickly and permanently.

All druggists sell Halpruner's Won- derful Medicine—50c and $1 a bottle. If you find one who does not ask him to get it for you. If he will not get it and tries to talk you out of it go to the next drug store and demand the genuine until illness came upon me three years ago. I first noticed it by being irregu- lar and having very painful and scanty menstruation; gradually my general health failed; I could not en- joy my meals; I became languid and nervous, with griping pains frequently in the groins.

"I advised with our family phy- sician who prescribed without any im- provement. One day he said,—'Try Lydia Pinkham's Remedies.' I did, thank God; the next month I was better, and it gradually built me up until in four months I was cured. This is nearly a year ago and I have not had a pain or ache since."—BONNIE DELANO, 3948 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Trustworthy proof is abundant that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saves thousands of young women from dangers resulting from organic irregularity, suppression or retention of the menses, ovarian or womb troubles. Refuse substitutes.

ECZEMA'S ITCH IS TORTURE.

Eczema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and in- flammation; little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard, dry and fissured. Eczema in any form is a tormenting, stubborn disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable; the acid burning humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire. Salves, washes nor other exter- nal applications do any real good, for so long as the poison remains in the blood it will keep the skin irritated.

BAD FORM OF TETTER.

"For three years I had Tetter on my hands, which caused them to swell to twice their natural size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of run- ning sores, very pain- ful, and causing me much discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetter had progressed too far to be cured, and they could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S. and was completely cured. This was fifteen years ago, and I have never since seen any sign of my old trouble."—MRS. L. B. JACKSON, 1214 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo.

S. S. S. neutralizes this acid poison, cools the blood and restores it to a healthy, natural state, and the rough, unhealthy skin becomes soft, smooth and clear.

SSS cures Tetter, Ery- sipelas, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and all skin diseases due to a pois- oned condition of the blood. Send for our book and write us about your case. Our physicians have made these diseases a life study, and can help you by their advice; we make no charge for this service. All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence.

DR. HARRISON CURES

MANY WEAK MEN

Suffer from a loss of vitality, which has for its underlying cause a diseased condition of the vital veins which sup- ply the life blood of sexual power.

MANY MEN come to me after having resorted to all the ordinary methods for the cure of this condi- tion, and I find, according to their own statement, not even temporary relief had been received. Most of these cases had been treated by electricity, tonics and local appli- ances, which aggravate rather than remove the cause of trouble.

I CURE VARICOCELE in five days and without a single failure. Its attendant nervous disorders dis- appear and cannot return. The or- gans invariably take on a healthy development, and functional activ- ity is restored throughout the sex- ual system.

Why Old Chronic Disorders Are Not Cured.

In the more chronic cases of urethal trouble we find spots, patches and areas of inflamed sur- face due to neglected and badly treated conditions, which have be- come localized and are the sources of continual annoyance and irrita- tion.

The first essential in the treat- ment of these cases is to locate the trouble and to determine its na- ture and to ascertain if there is su- perficial ulceration and thickening of the walls of the canal, which is a mass of diseased tissue produc- ing disordered function of the or- gan. By the direct application of our local treatment we remove and cure these conditions in a few treatments.

We especially invite cases that do not yield to other methods of treatment. Free arranged to suit convenience of patients.

Many Men Treated for a Weakness Which Never Existed.

IN THE LARGEST PROPORTION OF CASES of lost vitality, prema- turenes and the train of symp- toms known as "weakness," cer- tain morbid conditions of the ure- thra and prostate gland, damaged by an improperly treated contracted disorder, or too often repeated and too long continued excitement so react on the organs that a condi- tion of diminished vitality and function is induced. Our knowledge of the morbid changes in the or- gans themselves is quite clear and full, but how these changes operate on the nerves and spinal cord center are mysterious to the medical profession.

AFRICAN CHURCH LOOKING INTO A DARK CHARGE.

Committee Will Report at Business Meeting—State Y.M.C.A. Convention Will Open This Evening—"Blind Pig" Sticking Case.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 260½ South Raymond avenue, Feb. 5.—The congregation of the African Baptist Church is all stirred up over a serious charge which has been brought against one of its flock. For years Jeff Hunton, a gardener employed by a wealthy Pasadena family, has had a very good reputation pointed at him. He has been sisters, and his actions have been such that he is unduly attentive to one of them. He denies the charge, with which he was confronted by the church people, right in church, but all the colored citizens knew something about the case. They say that the fellow was driven out of several Southern California towns during the past few years on account of this thing. His wife, from whom he is separated, is said to have declared that the sister was at the bottom of the entanglement. It is also declared that the other sister will not live with the relatives, because of their behavior in this matter. People with whom the brother and sister have roomed declare that the suspicion is well founded. Many of his acquaintances say that they know it to be a fact, and have had ample evidence.

The subject was brought before the church by a colored sister, who is warm in the demands that the man be punished or ousted from the community. The matter has become so intense that a committee has been appointed to investigate, and detectives are alleged to have been employed to obtain evidence that the matter may be brought before the business meeting of the church on the last Wednesday of each month.

LA VERNE.

CARELESS SHOOTING.

LA VERNE, Feb. 5.—Several ranchmen at La Verne have had narrow escapes from stray rifle bullets, and while there was strong suspicion who the guilty party was, there was not sufficient evidence to warrant his arrest. Yesterday the rancher who had been most annoyed and alarmed by these frequent fusillades, was picking oranges when the bullets began to fly in quick succession through the trees. He hastened behind a telegraph pole for safety, but two bullets hit the pole. Hastily crawling on his hands and knees across his orchard he got his family under shelter and then made a reconnoiter of his neighbor's grounds, where he found the son of an Englishman and a friend practicing rifle shooting at a target, which was only a thin board, and the bullets that hit it went through as though it were a sheet of paper.

Instead of apologizing for his conduct, the young man poured forth a torrent of abuse and ordered the rancher off his place. The case will probably be ventilated in the court.

BIG LAND AND WATER PROPERTY SOLD.

EDGEMONT COMPANY BUYS OUT EAST WHITTIER.

Extensive Plant and Probably One of Most Complete in Country Transferred, but Price not Stated—Board of Trade Elects Officers.

WHITTIER, Feb. 5.—The East Whittier Land and Water Company has sold practically all of its East Whittier property to the Edgemont Water Company. The transfer includes the East Whittier Company's land, wells and pumping plant at El Monte, the big ditch, over thirteen miles long, the distributing system, and the unsold land in the original tract, amounting to about 140 acres.

The ditch has a capacity of between 800 and 1000 inches, and the nineteen wells at El Monte will supply more than that much water. One hundred and fifty inches in shares are owned by parties possessing land under the ditch, and it has been the custom to sell large quantities of water by the run to persons who did not own water. The requirements on the ditch have been less than 200 inches. It is the intention of the new company to sell 250 inches of water, in addition to that now owned by subscribers, and arrangements have been made with the real estate firm of Isbell & Gregg to dispose of this stock at $350 an inch. Negotiations are also in progress with the land owners in the La Habra Valley for the delivery of 200 inches of water in this hitherto dry section. To do this it will be necessary to put in several miles of pipe line, and an additional pumping plant. This will open a large tract, in a practically frostless belt, and possessing a soil that has been proven to be right for citrus fruits and walnuts.

Nothing definite regarding the price can be learned. The East Whittier Land and Water Company was organized in 1899, with Simon J. Murphy, the Detroit millionaire lumber dealer, as president. The system was completed in 1892, with a pumping plant with a capacity of 1,500,000 gallons. Since then additions have been made, and the system today is probably one of the most complete in the country.

The winter home of Mr. Murphy is not included in the transfer, nor is any of the property of the Murphy Oil Company.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The directors of the Whittier Board of Trade last evening elected C. E. Cook secretary, and appointed a special committee consisting of O. M. Souden and Isaac Collins to investigate the possibilities of securing telephone connections with La Habra Valley. The standing committees are: Manufacturing, Lewis Landreth, W. A. Vernon, J. T. LONG BEACH.

GROCERS ORGANIZE.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 5.—The Retail Grocers' Association of Long Beach was organized last night. Mayor C. J. Walker was elected temporary president and F. O. Knight secretary and attorney. The purposes are to wage war on deadbeats and supply a central organization through which the grocers can collect hard bills and correct the various abuses from which the trade is suffering, such as the selling to consumers by jobbers and manufacturers, short weights and measures, and unfair competition. It is proposed also to cooperate with the other associations throughout the State to secure necessary legislation and the abatement of various undesirable practices.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES AT SANTA MONICA.

UNPLEASANT PROSPECT BEFORE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

To Canvass or not to Canvass Reorganization Vote the Question, for Either May Mean Contempt of Court in Los Angeles Tomorrow.

SANTA MONICA, Feb. 5.—The City Trustees are contemplating the cheerful prospect of being in contempt of court if they do not canvass the vote of the late reorganization election, and also of being in contempt if they do canvass that vote.

The members of the board have been ordered to appear in the Superior Court in Los Angeles before Judge Conrey, Friday, to show cause why they should not be enjoined from the canvass. Under an order which has been issued by Judge York of the Superior Court, they are commanded to canvass the returns, or appear before him Friday, and show why they have not done so.

The suit to prevent the canvass was brought by H. X. Goetz, as a citizen. The suit to compel the canvass was brought by the Good Government League. The office of City Attorney is vacant, and the board has appointed the law firm of Bicknell & Trask of Los Angeles to act as its representative in both suits. The Good Government League has employed J. W. McKinley, Esq., of Los Angeles, and Tanner & Taft of this city to prosecute its suit.

Among citizens generally there is expressed a hope that the cases will be settled speedily. It is believed that long-drawn-out litigation would be very bad for the town. If the city remains in the sixth class, then the two Trustees to be elected in April to fill the places now occupied by President Robert F. Jones and N. R. Folsom, will have four years to serve, and the other city officers then elected, will have two years to serve. If the city is reorganized, as proposed, then the officers elected in April will serve only for one year, at the end of which period the reorganization will go into effect.

The Good Government League has a man employed taking a copy of the census list recently adopted by the City Trustees. The copy will be compared with the unofficial enumeration taken under direction of the league.

SANTA MONICA BREVITIES.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Weir of Champaign, Ill.; H. L. Johnston of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hoffus of Sharpsville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Barker of Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Asa P. Bliss of Los Angeles are staying at Hotel Holborow, Ocean Park.

W. H. Langan of Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. R. Berens of Kent, Eng.; Mr. and Mrs. Anna F. Barnes of New Haven, Ct.; Mrs. A. J. Mitchell of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. J. R. Dudley and child of Golden, Colo., are staying at the Arcadia.

The material is being delivered at Ocean Park for the repairs which are to be made on the pleasure wharf. Sixty piles are to be driven. Actual work is to commence in about a fortnight. J. D. Mercereau is the contractor.

The Klaus Lady Orchestra, composed of Misses Pauline, Gertrude and Jeanette Klaus and Miss Gibson, arrived at the Arcadia today, and will be at that hostelry during the season.

H. Hirschel-Cohen and family of Victoria, B. C., have taken the Kimball cottage on Ocean avenue for the season.

FREE LIBRARY BOOMING.

POMONA, Feb. 5.—The work of the public library for the first month since its opening as a free institution, in charge of Miss M. E. Prentiss and her assistants, Miss M. E. Topliff and Mrs. L. P. Minier, has been most gratifying. The board of library trustees met yesterday afternoon, and the reports submitted showed 754 membership registrations since January 1, and a home circulation of 3220 books, and reading-room circulation of 1454 books, making a total circulation of 4674 volumes for the past month. The home circulation in January, 1901, was only 1316. The daily average for January, 1902, was 123.8, as against 50.6 of January, 1901. There are now 6595 volumes in the library.

Once or twice a year the good housewife has a thorough house cleaning. The house has been swept and dusted every day in the year, but the housewife knows that in spite of vigilance dust accumulates in cracks and corners, and is only to be removed by special effort.

It's the same way with the body. You look after it every day. You take all the ordinary precautions of cleanliness and health. Yet the body needs its special cleaning to rid it of the accumulations of waste and poisonous matter which invite disease. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, taken regularly once or twice a year, would save many a sickness. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and cleanses the body of poisonous accumulations.

"Last spring I had a severe attack of pneumonia, which left me with a bad cough, and also left my lungs in a very bad condition," writes John M. Russell, Esq., of Brent, Cherokee Nat., Ind. Ter. "I had no appetite and was so weak I could scarcely walk. My breast was all sore with running sores. I got two bottles Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I believe saved my life. I cannot express my gratitude to you. I am able now to do very good work."

requires physical and mental ability of a high degree to withstand its hard labors. The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, has a depressing effect, and soon headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. Such was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweinhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says:

"An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pains that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to give and Nerve Plasters a trial. In three days I was again on my route and in two weeks I was free from pain and gaining in flesh and strength."

CROWDS INCREASING.

Boyle Heights Revival Attracts Largest Audiences Since Opening of the Special Services.

The greatest crowd that has attended any meeting since the opening of the revival services in the Methodist churches, over two weeks ago, assembled at Boyle Heights Methodist Church last night. Chairs filled every space big enough for a chair, and people sat on the dge of the platform, the steps and on the altar railing.

Evangelist Potter took his text from I Peter iv, 18: "If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungrody and the sinner appear."

He made the obvious application of his text and clung closely to it throughout his discourse. A large number of penitents sought the altar, most of them being adults. Thirty persons have professed conversion since Monday night.

Last night Evangelist Billhorn sang by special request, "Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love," of which favorite hymn he is the author. The effect upon the audience was marked.

Accent.

Close Call.

Clara: I had an awful time when I refused him.

Maud: How do you mean?

Clara: Why, he took it in earnest, and I had to explain that I didn't mean it.—[Town Topics.

Maude: Kitty, do you know what awful things people are saying about you?

Kitty: No, dear; and I suppose you do not know what terrible things people are saying about you?

Maude: Perhaps, on the whole, it is well that neither of us should be enlightened.—[Boston Transcript.

Dr. Meyers & Co.

But a small percentage of men escape without some disorder that requires a specialist's care and attention. It is not only the economy of having a disease cured promptly and positively, but safety and self-regard compel a man to seek the best means of regaining health and vigor.

We are entirely unlike other physicians who advertise as specialists; unlike them in all respects. The men who seek our aid are not attracted by the size of our advertisements, or by our promises, or what we say; but it is known that for a generation men have been cured here when all others failed, and many of the leading family doctors advise you here if your disease is of a private nature. Dr. Meyers & Co. is the legitimate and largest institution for curing men. Write for sealed particulars of our home treatment and book of valuable information, sent free.

Suits for Men.

The reduced prices on men s suits are reducing the stock just about as rapidly as we could reasonably expect. The cut prices at which men's suits and overcoats are selling are down below the wholesale cost line. The materials and work of making the garments are worth the prices now charged. You can judge for yourself. We want you to see the suits and overcoats. We want you to be convinced that our prices are, as we claim, only sufficient to cover the materials and making.

Over-coats $6.65 Were $10.00
Men's all wool blue and black overcoats made of heavy-weight kersey; cut in the proper 42-inch length; also gray and tan top coats; good, warm, serviceable coats that we have sold up to now at $10, offered during the sale at $6.65.

Over-coats $7.65 Were $12.00
Men's all-wool brown, blue and black kersey overcoats; also tan covert and gray herringbone stripe top coats. A well made and finished line that is worth $12.50. To be placed on sale at $7.65.

Over-coats $9.65 Were $15.00
Men's durable overcoats made of blue and black kersey; blue clay worsteds and black cheviots; also a line of tan covert and whipcord top coats. A line that has been on sale up to now at $15, at $9.65.

Over-coats $11.65 Were $18.00
A line of men's stylishly made top coats and swell long coats, with very full backs. The top coats are made of tan and gray covert or blue kersey and the long coats of Oxfords and mixtures; exceptionally good values at $17.50 and $18. Sale price $11.65.

Suits at $4.65 Were $8.50
Suits which we have sold until now at $7.50 and $8.50. Men's all-wool suits made in cheviots, tweeds and cassimeres in medium and dark colors, fancy stripes, checks and mixtures; also a limited number of all-wool blue Oregon cheviot suits in both single-breasted and double-breasted sacks. BUSINESS.

Clearances for Los Angeles banks yesterday amounted to $650,151.44, and for the corresponding day a year ago to $408,178.41.

The water-bond money is on deposit in New York, $1,000,000 to the credit of each of two Los Angeles banks. The distribution to the stockholders will probably be made from the New York banks. When this is done the Los Angeles banks' deposits will each be increased about $800,000.

There are well-founded reports of local sales of the stock of a great local oil company. The amount involved is about $150,000.

Spasmodic efforts by pools continue in New York's stock market without developing continued strength in any particular line. Wheat was dullest it has been in a long time at Chicago.

WATER COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED.

Late yesterday afternoon the Council appointed a Board of Water Commissioners, to have management and control of the city's newly-acquired water system until the election of a new board by the people at the next city election, on the first Monday in December next. The board comprises seven members, the names selected being as follows: James C. Kays; Herman Silver; J. M. Elliott; C. H. Toll; L. A. Grant; Frank W. King; Maj. H. T. Lee. These names were selected by the Council from a list of twenty-one submitted by the Chamber of Commerce. The personnel of the board is a guaranty that the duties committed to that body will be discharged faithfully and with efficiency. The names are those of representative citizens, in whom the entire community will have confidence. The Councilmen are to be commended for the wisdom of their choice of men for the important work which will devolve upon the Board of Water Commissioners.

The Council also adopted an ordinance to govern the management of the waterworks system. Some of its more important provisions are that no person shall be eligible for membership in the Board of Water Commissioners who has not been for at least five years a qualified elector of the city; that members of the board shall receive no salaries, but shall be paid $10 per day for each day of actual service; that provision shall be made for the payment of water rates at the central office, dispensing with outside collectors. Full power of administration of the waterworks system is vested in the board. The salary of the superintendent is fixed at $5000 per annum, and he is required to report once a month to the board. Employes are to be appointed by the board upon merit alone, after an examination of a practical character, to the end that those selected may be especially qualified for the work required of them. Politics and religion are not to be considered nor allowed to have influence in the selection of employés, and dismissals are forbidden except for immoral conduct, insubordination, or incompetency. All moneys collected for water service are to be deposited in the city treasury in a fund to be known as the water revenue fund, which is to be subject to appropriations by the Council for the operation, maintenance, extension, betterment and enlargement of the water system, and for the purchase of other water properties, as may be desirable. It is further provided that the Council may establish a sinking and interest fund out of the water revenue fund for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds issued for the purchase of the water system. To the Council is reserved the sole power to establish and regulate water rates.

In the main this ordinance appears to be an excellent measure, well calculated to serve the purpose for which it has been enacted. The provision for the payment of water rates at the central office is of doubtful wisdom and economy. The plan will necessitate the employment of extra help in the office, and one or more outside collectors will be needed to look after delinquents. The Council will probably find it expedient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of the waterworks purchase bonds out of the water revenues. This question should at least be gone into very carefully, to the end that, if possible, the water system may not only be self-sustaining, but may pay for itself with the maturing of the purchase bonds. Such an achievement would indeed be a great triumph. At the present rates to consumers the water system is paying a large revenue. But there will be need for every dollar of this revenue, and no reduction of water rates will be safely possible for some time to come.

CODDLING CRIMINALS.

There are few countries in the world where crime prevails to such an alarming extent as in these United States. Americans take a just pride in their country's preëminence in wealth, industry, and material progress, but they have ample reason to feel a sense of shame and humiliation when they contemplate the prevalence of crime in nearly all sections of the country. And, furthermore, nearly all kinds of crime appear to be on the increase rather than the decrease.

Our laws against crime are, as a general thing, severe enough in theory, but there is a deplorable amount of laxness in the enforcement of these laws. In this respect we are behind almost every civilized nation on the globe. We allow the smart lawyer altogether too much latitude, and by reason of this he is enabled to juggle with the law, to make it, often, a jest and a byword, and by invoking its delays and its technicalities, to defeat the ends of justice in many cases. Judges are much to blame in this matter for exercising undue leniency and our higher courts are not blameless, for they often grant new trials upon grounds which appear trivial, and in other ways favor the lawbreaker when the evidence of guilt is conclusive. The law is often thwarted to such an extent as actually to protect the criminal against the consequences of his crime instead of dealing out adequate and just punishment. These things explain, in part, the prevalence of crime.

Then, it is a question whether we have not made prison life altogether too pleasant to subserve the ends of justice. A convict sent to prison for a term of years, if he behave himself, can have, so to speak, "all the comforts of a home." The work he is required to do is not laborious, the hours of work are not long, he has plenty of wholesome though plain food, a comfortable place to sleep, and kind treatment if he prove obedient to the rules and regulations of the institution. Thus the prison has been robbed of much of its terror for evildoers.

Another encouragement to crime is the mawkish sentimentalism that leads many persons—mostly women—into a false sympathy for criminals, which often tends to increase crime in some degree, by creating in the mind of the criminal the idea that he is something of a hero. A case of this kind—in which, fortunately, some silly women received a well-merited rebuke—is related in the Salt Lake Herald, as follows:

"A party of women with philanthropical inclinations presented themselves laden down with crackers, butter, preserved peaches and other delicacies, which they announced were for Jacob Champley, accused of abandoning his family and taking up his abode with a young woman, lured from home and friends under promise of marriage. Champley was absent at the time in court to answer to proceedings instituted by his wife. Jailer Shea learned that he had worked upon the sympathies of the women on the occasion of a previous visit and had represented himself to them as penniless, half fed and in a world of trouble not of his own creation.

"John Shea is a big-hearted fellow himself, popular with every inmate of the jail despite his direct, gruff style, and always ready to reach down into his own pockets when the occasion warrants. But his blood boiled when he heard the story. He had in mind a penniless, starving family of little ones that his lodge of Elks had rescued from hunger and freezing only a day or two before.

"'Do you know what that man is here for?' he demanded.

"'No, but he is alone and in trouble and we want to do what we can to make his lot less miserable.'

"'Well, I will enlighten you a trifle. That man is here for abandoning his wife to shift for herself; he ruined an ignorant young girl who thought he would marry her, and then threw her out without a single dollar in the world when he had plenty in his pocket. The girl is now aiding in bringing him to punishment. He had nearly $100 when he was arrested and has plenty of money now in the hands of Sheriff Naylor. He gets three good meals a day, plain fare to be sure, but plenty of it. If he wants these luxuries he can send out for them and pay for them with his own money.'"

This is but one case out of thousands. Flowers and knick-knacks are lavished upon all sorts of criminals by foolish women, while the victims of their crimes are generally forgotten, as in the instance above cited. The case of Mrs. Soffel, wife of the warden of the Allegheny-county (Pa.) jail, is another case of misguided sympathy on the part of a silly woman for a desperate criminal. As the dispatches have related, she aided two desperate men—who were under sentence of death for murder—to escape, and accompanied them in their flight from justice. As a result, this foolish woman is lying dangerously wounded, while the two men were fatally shot by the officers who recaptured them. Feminine sympathy for convicted murderers does not often go to so extreme a length, nor lead to consequences so serious. But the principle is much the same, whether mawkish sympathy for lawbreakers take the form of flowers and knick-knacks, or of saws to enable them to escape.

An Oakland dispatch to The Times, under date of January 31, told of the conviction, in that city, of Charles Merrill (a pal of W. F. Case, who is under arrest in this city, charged with highway robbery.) Merrill was tried on a charge of highway robbery, he and Case having held up a Chinaman and robbed him of $20. For some reason the jury returned a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. The dispatch adds that "Merrill's wife sat beside him, and he held his baby girl upon his knee during the trial." Of course, the "baby girl" was brought into court for no other purpose than to work upon the sympathies of the jurymen, and the trick was evidently successful, as the jury found the prisoner guilty of petty larceny instead of the graver crime of highway robbery. The judge who tried the case was evidently guilty of a grave indiscretion in permitting to be carried out so obvious a scheme to influence the decision. Neither the wife of the accused nor his "baby girl" was on trial, and neither should have been allowed to occupy a place beside him. Such tricks are cheap and contemptible. The fact that they are often permitted in our courts has no small influence in defeating the ends of justice, bringing the law into disrepute, and increasing the prevalence of crime.

Is it not about time to stop our coddling of criminals, and spend a portion of our sympathies upon the victims of their crimes?

CURRENCY.

The Chicago Tribune recently published a wild-eyed story about the troubles of a Chicago man who spent several weeks in San Francisco, during which time he was trying in vain to get rid of a new twenty-dollar bill, but nobody would accept it, as they were all suspicious of paper money. In the same article is another mythical story about a Chicago newspaper man who received a cent in change at the Los Angeles postoffice, and carried it about for three weeks before he had a chance to dispose of it, which he ultimately did where he received it.

Of course, this is a gross exaggeration. It is true that California, as befits a great gold-producing State, has always shown a partiality for gold as compared with paper money, and gold was freely circulated here during the period when many young people in the East had never seen a gold piece. Of late, however, with the great incursion of eastern people to the southern end of the State, greenbacks have become quite common here, although they are still far less used than gold.

As to the story about the penny, that might apply in San Francisco, but not in Los Angeles, where, of late years, the penny has come into quite general circulation, along with other Yankee notions. Twenty years ago you couldn't pass a nickel in California, but now our people are beginning to learn the truth of the old axiom: "Take care of the pennies; the pounds will take care of themselves." The old-timers still have a profound contempt for what they term "chicken feed," but a new generation is growing up, to whom the ideas and days of '49 are ancient history.

As between gold and greenbacks, there is much to be said in favor of the former, from a hygienic standpoint. If some of the torn and tattered paper money that passes current in this country were examined under a microscope, the owners would drop it like a hot potato. There should be some provision made by the government for a more speedy and convenient redemption of worn and soiled currency, by new notes, as a vast amount of disease is certainly circulated in this manner. The Bank of England never issues a used note. Even if it has only been issued an hour previously, it is destroyed as soon as received, and fresh notes are issued. Consequently, English bank notes have a fresh, clean appearance that is sadly lacking in so much of our American currency.

With the opening of that new electric line to Long Beach, there is no reason why this pretty little seaport town should not have a decided boom. Long Beach has all the delightful advantages for one of the most charming and popular seaside resorts in the United States.

Chicago is already arranging a series of ping-pong teas, ping-pong luncheons and ping-pong parties for Prince Henry's entertainment. In fact, it is believed Chicago has the ping-pong craze more than a craze to see the German Emperor's representative.

AS TO CITIZENSHIP.

The refusal of Judge Allen of the Superior Court, recently, to grant citizenship papers to an applicant who plainly showed himself to be incapable of discharging the duties of citizenship intelligently, is deserving of the highest commendation. It appeared, from the applicant's answers to the simple questions asked him by the judge, that he had no idea as to what the lawmaking body of the country is called; did not know how the President is elected, nor who elects him; could not tell who is at the head of the army or the navy; and had not read the Constitution of the United States. Judge Allen, under these circumstances, very properly deferred the granting of naturalization papers until such time as the applicant can show better qualifications for citizenship. It is time, as he said in stating the reasons for his refusal, to put a check upon the admission to citizenship of foreigners who "know absolutely nothing about our government and our history, and who have not even taken the trouble to read the Constitution." Judge Allen informed the applicant that he would be glad to make him a citizen of the United States, and welcome him as such, when he shall have read the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, and shall have otherwise posted himself as to our form of government.

It is quite true—and "pity 'tis 'tis true"—that there are many native-born citizens who are hardly any better posted as to our form of government, our Constitution and our laws than the ignorant foreigner whose application Judge Allen very properly turned down. But this is no reason for the admission of more voters of that class. It is, rather, an argument against further increasing the number of ignorant voters. The standard of American citizenship should be raised, not lowered. The several States of the Union would do well to enact legislation tending to guard the ballot box more thoroughly than it is now guarded against the evils of ignorant voting. There is distinct need for such legislation in many, perhaps in most, of the States.

A NO PARDON FOR YOUNGERS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—"Flint and Gage Will Lock Horns," is the headline in a San Francisco paper. The general opinion here is that the Governor will lose not only his antlers, but his scalp, in the impending fight. Flint has become very strong here and hereabouts in the past few weeks, and the Gage men are down in the mouth.

The "push" about the Palace, who kiss Dan Burns's feet and sing the old tunes "lined out" for them, are getting fretful and fearful. The pot of politics is warming up and will boil pretty soon, and the gangsters don't know just what to do. The entire question with them is: "Is Gage a dead 'un?"

If Gage isn't dead on his feet in the gubernatorial race, he should take in his sign. The Times correspondent told a few days ago of the Gage campaign which has been started by Father Peter C. Yorke, the unfortunate Catholic priest who is such a thorn in the sides of educated Catholics, and whose mad craving for notoriety has brought such obloquy on his cloth.

Yorke, as was stated in The Times, advertised a lecture at Sacramento for the benefit of a Catholic church there. The subject of his talk was to be, "The Rights of Labor." Tickets were sold at $1 each, and the Clunie Theater was crowded.

The priest, instead of treating the subject promised, made a wild harangue for Gage. Yorke said that Gage had proved himself the friend of the workmen during the recent great strike here, and that the suffrages of labor were the rightful due of the present Governor. A claque in the lobby of the theater roared out its applause at every mention of Gage's name, and those in the front seats, who did not hear the machinery buzzing, imagined the Gage candidacy had received a popular ovation.

Sly old Dan Kevané, who runs Gage's political automobile, was hugging himself at the auspiciousness of the opening of his employer's fight for reëlection, and after the lights were out, he and a number of his cronies laughed over their liquor at the gold brick they fancied they had handed to the voters of the State capital. The story was too good to keep, though, and is now the joke of the State.

It seems that Kevane, under instructions from Gage, packed the Yorke meeting. The Sacramento Bee, the only newspaper of any influence in Sacramento, has consistently exposed Yorke as a charlatan and foe to honest labor; the Bee is also inimical to Gage on account of his political deviousness and debasement of his high office. The Bee, therefore, refused to advertise extensively the Yorke lecture, guessing rightly that instead of being a fair dissertation on labor, it would be an appeal to prejudice and a repetition of the old lies which have made Yorke the red-faced darling of the alleys of San Francisco, and the prophet of the walking delegates.

Three days before the priest was to strut the boards, Gage and his fellows found that Sacramento wasn't buying tickets for the lecture. The charity was entirely worthy, but not many laborers thought they could afford to spend the dollar which the ticket cost. Then Kevane, under orders from Gage, bought up a big job lot of tickets and had them peddled out at two-bits each to those who would buy, and gratis to others. The result was a full house, and with Kevane's gang whooping and yelling in the rear, Yorke was urged on to high and lofty oratorical tumbling in favor of Gage.

When Kevane went behind the scenes to shake Yorke's hand after the show was over, Yorke clapped him on the back and said, "Danny, you're hot stuff."

Old man Kevane grinned and murmured, "Well, that's what Henry says."

Now, let's see if either Dan or "Henry" is right about them being so warm. Gage's plan, as carefully detailed by Kevane to some friends, is to play the union card for all it's worth. He thinks that because Schmitz was made Mayor of San Francisco by the votes of union laborers, that is the only boat to row to victory. Kevane says, "Labor is the upper dog now, and we will wag his tail for him."

This is why Yorke has been hired to break the ice which has been gradually thickening about Gage, and which he rightly thinks must be melted now or never. Yorke is to speak early and often for Gage. The scheme is to get the priest, who never seems to work at his clerical job, invited to lecture on the "Rights of Labor" in the principal towns of all the counties of the State. Yorke is to work two levers—one with workingmen and the other with Catholics. He mentions the names of Gage and the Pope in the same sentence. First, he says that the San Francisco strikers and cutthroats were right; then he says the Pope said so, and finally, in the one breath, he attains his objective point by declaring that Gage was the Moses of the strikers; thus he makes Gage the friend of both laborer and Catholic; and, in his capacity of priest, the venal Yorke panders cunningly to the passions of his hearers.

So, with unionism as their battle-cry, the Gageites have begun the active combat to capture the still far-off convention. At present they see no further than the strike issue. But Gage knows he is in trouble. He knows that the unions are poor props to lean on. Even at the labor convention in Vallejo, a few weeks ago, when Gage received a feeble indorsement, there was a divided sentiment which warned the incumbent that if he wanted to hold his job he must hustle hard.

The fact is, labor will have none of Gage. It would be absolutely impossible to throw the vote of the unions of San Francisco to him. Many of the union men are already dissatisfied with Mayor Schmitz's actions, and it is assured that neither Gage nor Schmitz could hold them together. They know that Gage did nothing for them in the strike but pose on his own dunghill. The unions lost the strike and know it. Today unionism controls nothing here.

The Gage men talk of his strength in the northern counties. They reckon wrong, for Gage will get nothing from the hardy miners. Jake Neff dislikes and distrusts Gage, and Neff has more influence with the miners of the upper counties than anyone else. It is well within the range of possibilities for Neff to head an anti-Gage delegation at the convention. The miners are not to be led by the idle chaff of demagogues like Yorke and by the yelpings of the yellow press.

So much for the north. In the south, Gage grows weaker constantly. Today he would not get thirty delegates from Los Angeles county. San José is preparing to make a noble fight against him and his ring of rowdies there. Thomas Flint will show his strength in the election on May 19, at San José, to a degree which will paralyze the plug-uglies led for Gage by Johnnie McKenzie.

"Reform" is the watchword of the Flint men in Santa Clara, and it will be reform and not unionism which will win the contest for the Governorship. Flint is known as an honest man; he has never broken a promise or made a pledge which could not see the light of day. This is counting for him now. The two papers of any consequence in San José, the Mercury and Herald, are hot for Flint; the Gilroy editors are with him, and only the political looters and toughs of the valley abide with Gage.

Here, the Chronicle and Call are against Gage, the Examiner is for the unions, the Bulletin is now and always for sale to anyone, and the Post is, of course, with the railroad which owns it. Flint has the support of all the good and the strong, and certainly has every chance of success.

THE PLAYHOUSES.

THE BURBANK. "The Liars" is a cunningly-constructed comedy that scintillates with epigrammatic wit and that shows with true and subtle satire the folly of facile duplicity. The Frawley Company at the Burbank Theater yesterday afternoon in a special matinée gave it a worthy production, wealthy in setting and painstaking, earnest and efficient in acting. It is to be regretted that the one performance will limit the number who saw it to comparative smallness, and it is to be hoped that the success, both artistically and popularly, will lead to further productions of the drawing-room drama, which the Frawley Company seems admirably fitted to superbly accomplish. The members of the company are far more at ease in this kind of play, which is the best of light comedy, than they are in the strained atmosphere and stilted characters of melodrama. To one who had seen them only in the unreal theatricism of Gillette's "Secret Service" the talent and conservative energy displayed in this performance of Henry Arthur Jones's social transcript would be a revelation.

Charles Wyndham first produced "The Liars" in London, then John Drew had it in this country, and it has since been played by Henry Miller and Otis Skinner. It became known to Los Angeles last fall through a week's performance by the Frawley Company. It is one of the best specimens of modern dramatic writing, showing present life with enough satirical exaggeration to make the point prominent. The point in this instance is that one lie breeds another, and that one another and still another, until lies permeate the atmosphere. Incidentally it shows that a man who makes love to another man's wife is building a whited sepulcher and that if a man don't love his own wife someone else will. Its conclusion is suddenly and not plausibly happy, but it puts an ending to a vexing series of falsehoods and does it without scandal. The man who concludes the action happily is a minor character until the last act, and then he assumes the sympathetic importance of a disinterested peacemaker. In the delivery of his conclusive bit of worldly logic Daniel Frawley reached a natural climax of much power and showed his sense of situation by his direct speech. Except for his indistinct enunciation his playing was excellent, showing with fine inference the Celtic humor and dashing philosophy of the peacemaker. Mary Van Buren as the prevaricating wife was infectiously playful in the weak vacillation of the part and justified the flirt's reputation as one of the most beautiful women in London. H. S. Duffield as the domineering husband was a splendid villain, and J. R. Amory showed a delicious specimen of English impotence in a titled henpecked husband. Miss Crompton delivered a few lines as a lady's maid with a fine appreciation of minor character and an artistic sense both of its inherent importance and of its relative value, together with the ability to give it understandable expression. Benjamin Howard had a good chance to project his invariable self-complacency and his pseudo importance as the vapid lover.

Most Pressing Need of Water Plant.

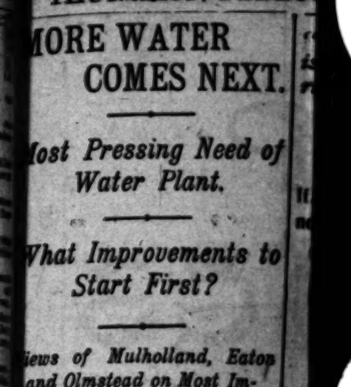
Views of Mulholland, Eaton and Olmstead on Most Important Question.

Now that the city is in possession of the waterwoks, what repairs, improvements and extensions shall be made first?



WILLIAM MULHOLLAND, SUPERINTENDENT OF WATERWORKS.

Superintendent William Mulholland of the Los Angeles city waterworks, Mayor Fred Eaton and ex-City Engineer F. H. Olmsted, were interviewed yesterday regarding the immediate and most pressing needs of the new water system, and their unified opinion is that, first and most important, a larger supply of water must at once be developed, adequate for all time and for the inevitable growth of the city; that the high surface area should be extended so as to include the business portion of the city; that new pumping plant should be constructed and new boilers installed to serve the old Buena Vista-street plant until new located; that an extension of the mains into the territory now insufficiently provided is a matter demanding immediate attention; and that, as soon as possible, an extensive system of meters should be installed.

IMMEDIATE ACTION.

Superintendent Mulholland of the water company, in discussing the matter yesterday, said: "In a general way, I would say that the first thing to do is to draw plans for a comprehensive system, adequate for the needs of a city of 200,000 population, making as far as possible of the present mains and making every improvement carried out in the future fit into the plan proposed. We have data at hand for such plans, and they will be submitted to the new water commission soon as it shall have been qualified. The first specific improvement to be carried out should be the installation of a new pumping plant and boilers at the present Buena Vista-street station, and the extension of a main to Angeleño Heights reservoir. This unit would be 6000 feet long, and the total cost of all improvements will be about $20,000.

"Operations and additions in the existing system are needed. These will be affected by gradually enlarging some of the mains and extending others.

"There is ample water in the basin section of the city, but the consensus of opinion among engineers is that the entire method of distribution should be changed by cutting out the present area of 'beauty unadorned,' as others say it is up to the women to say what they consider is the proper caper in the matter.

"Perhaps the most important problem that confronts the city is that of an adequate water supply. The consumption during the summer months has been about all that the supply would warrant. One method of developing would be to sink wells at the reservoirs and pump from them into the main conduits. An infiltration system might be constructed there in the future, but it would necessarily be of a temporary nature, and much work would be wasted.

"The water might be abstracted by one of other methods from the subsoil of the Los Angeles River, below the point of diversion of the Zanja. This is the lowest ditch from the river, and takes all the surface flow of the water below the point of diversion. This improvement would be of a permanent nature, and would be a part of the development, for it would procure water now going to waste beyond the limits of the city. At this point the river valley could be narrowed up to about 2000 feet in width and bordered by the city have demonstrated that the bedrock averages about 125 feet below the surface. According to the testimony of expert witnesses in the suits brought by the city of Pomeroy and Hooker, the Crystal Springs and the West Side water basins, the quantity of water passing through these narrows is, at the lowest computation, 500 inches. Should this amount be developed it would be a big gain, as by no possible chance could it interfere with the flow for domestic purposes within the city limits. The development must include at the head of the main supply, on the Pomeroy and Hooker lands, but unfortunately, the right of way to enter on and prosecute work of this character has not yet been acquired.

"The growth of the city has been at a rate that, naturally, there are a number of old pipes which should be replaced, but this may be done gradually. A complete system of

Views of Mulholland, Eaton and Olmstead on Most Important Question.

Now that the city is in possession of the waterworks, what repairs, improvements and extensions shall be made first?

WILLIAM MULHOLLAND, SUPERINTENDENT OF WATERWORKS.

Superintendent William Mulholland of the Los Angeles city waterworks, ex-Mayor Fred Eaton and ex-City Engineer F. H. Olmsted, were interviewed yesterday regarding the immediate and most pressing needs of the new water system, and their united opinion is that, first and most important, a larger supply of water must at once be developed, adequate for all time and for the inevitable growth of the city; that the high surface area should be extended so as to include the business portion of the city; that the pumping plant should be connected and new boilers installed at the old Buena Vista-street plant as soon as located; that an extension of the mains into the territory now included, or provided is a matter demanding immediate attention; and that, as soon as possible, an extensive system of meters should be installed.

IMMEDIATE ACTION.

Superintendent Mulholland of the water company, in discussing the matter yesterday, said: "In a general way, I would say that the first thing to be done is to draw plans for a comprehensive system, adequate for the needs of a city of 200,000 population, making it as far as possible of the present plan, and making every improvement carried out in the future fit into the plan proposed. We have data at hand for such plans, and they will be submitted to the new water commission as soon as it shall have qualified.

"The first specific improvement to be carried out should be the installation of a new pumping plant and boiler-house at the present Buena Vista-street station, and the extension of a main to the Alpine Heights reservoir. This main would be 6900 feet long, and the total cost of all improvements would be about $20,000.

"Additions and additions in the pumping system are needed. These would be affected by gradually enlarging some of the mains and extending others.

"There is ample water in the business section of the city, but the consensus of opinion among engineers is that the entire method of distribution should be changed by cutting out the present mains and connecting this with the pumping-plant system. It has been found that an additional pressure of 30 feet would give what is desired. The present contract existing for the operation of the Buena Vista-street pumping plant insures a pressure of 150 feet, that we now have.

"In carrying this, additions to the system should be made, which additions should be done in conjunction with the equipment for a larger supply of water. Perhaps the most important question that confronts the city is that of securing an adequate water supply. The consumption during the summer months has been about all that the supply would warrant. One method of developing would be to sink wells at the pumping works and pump from them through the main conduits. An infiltration gallery might be constructed there in the near future, but it would necessarily be of a temporary nature, and much money would be wasted.

"Water might be abstracted by one of two other methods from the subterranean flow of the Los Angeles River, below the point of diversion of the Zanja system. This is the lowest ditch from the river, and takes all the surface flow of water below the point of diversion. This improvement would be of a permanent nature, and would be a good investment, for it would procure water now going to waste beyond the limits of the city. At this point the river bed could be narrowed up to about 1000 feet in width and bordered by the city have demonstrated that the bedrock averages about 20 feet below the surface. According to the testimony of expert witnesses in the suits brought by the city against Pomeroy and Hooker, the Crystal Soda and the West Side water companies, the quantity of water passing through these narrowed in, at the present station, 500 inches. Should this be developed it would be possible, as by no possible chance would interfere with the flow for agricultural or domestic purposes within the city limits. The development must begin at the head of the main supply, on the Pomeroy and Hooker lands, and, unfortunately, the right of way to enter on and prosecute work thereon has not yet been ad-

"The growth of the city has been at such a rate that, naturally, there are a number of old pipes which should be replaced, but this may be done gradually. A complete system of meters should be installed, but this is not pressing."

TOO LOW PRESSURE.

Ex-Mayor Eaton thinks that the business section of the city is not adequately supplied with water. "There are," said he, "plenty of mains, but the pressure is too low. The Buena Vista-street pumping plant will remedy this to a great extent, but I would suggest that the whole business portion be included within the high surface area. If the high surface mains were extended as far east as Los Angeles street, south to Seventh street and north to the Plaza, embracing all the territory within these boundaries, and if this extension were followed up with the development of more water it would be a great step in advance. Then the large mains should be extended into outside sections that now have no fire protection, and the result would be not only a better service, but the great waste now due to small pipes would be obviated."

MORE WATER.

"The city should get control of the Highland and the West Side water companies' plants as soon as possible," said F. H. Olmsted. "Two years ago there was a shortage in the water supply, and the first step is to preclude a repetition of this. The headworks contract should be carried out with all speed; but, in my opinion, the question of hydrostatic pressure is secondary to that of a bountiful water supply."

RAILROAD NOTES.

A Raymond and Whitcomb excursion party from the East is due here Friday next. It is a business men's mid-winter party, numbering about fifty, and comes over the Southern Pacific.

The next party will be what is known as the Mardi Gras party because it visits New Orleans at the carnival season and then comes on to the Coast. It will be here about February 15.

J. A. De Garmond, recently accountant in the passenger department of the Southern Pacific at Spring and Third streets, goes to the freight depot to assist William S. Pottock, general freight agent.

A. P. Yerrington comes in from Redlands to succeed Mr. De Yarmond.

W. A. Rule, brother of Ferd Rule of the Salt Lake route, a Kansas City banker who has been here for some weeks, leaves today in his private car for home. He will visit Phoenix, Ariz., on the way.

The excursion trains to Santa Ana yesterday were well filled. Hundreds of tourists paid the flourishing city a visit.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The action of the City Council in lifting the ban on tall buildings is expected to mark the beginning of the period of the greatest building activity in the history of Chicago. Structures to cost $21,228,000 have been planned for immediate construction, and $4,300,000 is to be put into other big downtown buildings in the near future.

Didn't Get Well of Anything.

"I spent three weeks with a friend in Dayton last winter. She was using Postum Coffee exclusively as a beverage at meals. I said, 'I thought you were so fond of coffee that you could not be induced to give it up.' 'Well,' my friend said, 'We got to liking this Postum Coffee, for it serves as a food as well as a beverage, and we have all felt so much better since leaving off the old coffee.'

"I learned to make the Postum and made it fine, so when I went home I began to serve it to my husband instead of the old-fashioned coffee. About a week afterward I asked him how he liked the coffee, and told him I had been trying a new kind. He says, 'I think it is most excellent. Is it Mocha or Java, or a mixture?' I told him that it was the famous Postum we had read so much about, and he most jumped from his chair in surprise, but the change has become a fixture and he will never give up Postum and go back to the old-fashioned coffee, for we not only like it better, but we feel so much better in every way." AT THE CITY HALL.

COMMISSIONERS NAMED FOR WATER DEPARTMENT.

ORDINANCE FOR MANAGEMENT OF PLANT ADOPTED.

Council Meets Twice in Adjourned Session and Transacts Important Business—Charter Provisions Limit the Powers of the Newly-elected Water Board.

Late yesterday afternoon the Council adopted the ordinance providing for the operation and management of the water plant, and named the following seven men to constitute the Board of Water Commissioners:

JAMES C. KAYS,
HERMAN SILVER,
J. M. ELLIOTT,
C. H. TOLL,
L. A. GRANT,
FRANK W. KING,
MAJ. H. T. LEE.

The Commissioners are expected to qualify and take charge of the plant at once. The board is composed of five Republicans and two Democrats, Kays and Elliott.

All the appointees are well known. James C. Kays is an ex-Sheriff and was a member of the board of arbitrators that made a valuation of the water plant in 1898; J. M. Elliott is president of the First National Bank; C. H. Toll is cashier of the Southern California Savings Bank; S. A. Grant is a prominent contractor; Frank W. King is a member of the firm of Hawley, King & Co.; Herman Silver was president of the last City Council, and Maj. H. T. Lee is a member of the law firm of Lee & Scott, special counsel for the city in the water litigation. All the men were greatly surprised last night when informed of their appointment by a Times reporter. Maj. Lee expressed a fear that he may not be able to serve, owing to his connection with the water litigation as special counsel.

These seven men were chosen by the Council in executive session, from a list of twenty-one names submitted by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, at which the twenty-one eligible men were selected. The list was turned over to the Council after 4 o'clock, and that body at once went into caucus.

At the request of the Chamber of Commerce directors it was agreed that the list of twenty-one names should not be made public. The men chosen on the list of twenty-one and omitted from the water board, it was feared, would feel that they had been slighted and submitted to an unnecessary humiliation. At the conclusion of the secret caucus, at 6:30 o'clock, the Councilmen filed into the chamber for the second adjourned session of the day, and the names were presented and ratified. The ordinance as amended was then presented and adopted. Todd alone voting in the negative. In explaining his vote Todd said:

"On account of the stand I have taken that the selection of the commissioners should be left to the people, I am compelled to vote against this measure. However, I wish to say that I believe the commission appointed will reflect great credit on the Council."

On motion of Bowen the clerk was instructed to send a note of thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for their co-operation in planning for the management of the waterworks and the selection of commissioners. The clerk was also instructed to notify the commissioners of their selection and of the necessity of qualifying immediately.

AGREEMENT REACHED.

An agreement regarding the terms of the ordinance for the control and management of the water plant was reached at a caucus held at the City Hall Tuesday evening, at which Bowen, Blanchard, Allen, Pierce, Powers and Walker were present. Todd has definitely refused to play with his colleagues on the waterworks ordinance, as he says he is in the minority and his opinions do not count; Lauder says he voted for the report of the joint committee as it was prepared in the regular manner, although there are several provisions which are not quite to his liking. In the caucus yesterday Lauder made a strong fight against giving the superintendent of the water system a salary of $4800 a year as proposed. He declared that Engineer William Mulholland was content to work for the water company at a remuneration of $250 a month, and that he could see no reason why the city should pay a man of equal ability $400. McLain refused to meet in caucus Tuesday night for reasons best known to himself. He is extremely suspicious of the intentions of other members of the Council and evidently preferred to be unhampered by caucus procedure.

BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED LAST EVENING.

The ordinance as it was finally reported yesterday was prepared by Councilman Bowen along the lines agreed upon by the six Councilmen at the Tuesday night caucus, being a slight modification of the ordinance originally submitted by Chairman H. W. O'Melveney of the joint committee.

THE ORDINANCE.

The ordinance is styled "An ordinance providing for the operation and management of the domestic waterworks system of the city of Los Angeles," and is as follows:

The Mayor and Council of the city of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

Section 1. The domestic waterworks system of the city of Los Angeles shall be under the control of seven (7) commissioners, who shall constitute the Board of Water Commissioners. The members of said board shall be elected at the general municipal election to be held on the first Monday in December, nineteen hundred and two (1902.) Thereafter their successors shall be elected at each general municipal election thereafter held, such successors to hold for the term of two (2) years. No person shall be eligible for election as such commissioner unless he is, and has been for at least five years next preceding his election, an elector of the city of Los Angeles.

Said commissioners shall receive no salary, but shall be allowed $10 per diem for actual attendance at all regular meetings.

Sec. 2. The said commissioners shall at their first meeting elect a president of said board, and shall fix his term of office. The president of the board shall hold office until his successor has been elected, or until his membership on the board expires.

Sec. 3. The board may employ such engineers, inspectors, watchmen, bookkeepers, draughtsmen, clerks, collectors, workingmen and such other employés as shall be necessary for a proper discharge of their duties under this ordinance.

Sec. 4. The board shall establish all necessary rules and regulations for its government and for the performance of its duties, and for the regulation and conduct of its officers and employés, where the same may be necessary (except from laborers) exact a bond for the faithful performance of all their duties, in such sums as may be fixed by the Council. Said bond shall be approved by the Mayor and shall be filed in the office of the City Clerk.

Sec. 5. The board shall, within nine months from their qualification, provide for the collection of the water rates to the end that the same shall be payable at the office of the said board.

Sec. 6. The board shall hold regular meetings not oftener than once each week, but at least once a month, at a place and time be fixed by resolution entered on its minutes. No changes in place or time of regular meetings shall be made without a resolution passed at least two (2) weeks before the time the change is to go into effect. Such special meetings may be held as the commissioners may deem necessary, upon the call of the president, notice having been first served on said commissioners. All meetings shall be public. In every case where a power is exercised under this ordinance by the board, the vote thereon shall be taken by ayes and noes.

Sec. 7.—The board is authorized to appoint from the members of its clerical force a secretary who shall act without receiving any extra compensation therefor. The board shall keep and preserve a record of all its proceedings, and copies of all papers pertaining to the transactions of the board. The secretary of the board shall keep a record of all its transactions, specifying therein the names of the commissioners present at the meetings and giving the yeas and nays upon all votes. He shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board.

Sec. 8. The Board of Water Commissioners shall have charge, superintendence and control:

(1.) Of all lands, reservoirs, pipe lines, conduits, mains, services, fire hydrants and connections, and other appliances owned by the City of Los Angeles and used in and about any connection with its domestic water system, and such others as it may hereafter acquire.

(2.) Shall establish rules and regulations for the collection of the water rates prescribed by the Council, and all other moneys to be received by said waterworks system, and shall designate an officer or employé who shall be responsible for their collection and safe keeping until paid over to the City Treasurer.

(3.) Shall promote, suspend or dismiss any member of the department, subject to the regulations hereinafter provided.

(4.) Shall provide for the maintenance of said system in complete order and repair, and for such displacements and betterments as may be needed from time to time, and shall make such extensions of said system as they deem necessary.

(5.) To perform any and all other acts or things necessary to fully administer the said domestic waterworks system of said city of Los Angeles.

Sec. 9. Said board shall appoint a civil engineer of not less than five years' practical experience, and one who has had at least five years' practical experience as a hydraulic engineer, who shall be designated the superintendent of the waterworks. Said appointee shall be the executive officer of said board. Said superintendent shall have control over all employés in the operating department of said domestic waterworks system, and shall have full control and management of carrying into effect all matters determined by the board. He shall hold his office at the pleasure of the board, and shall receive a compensation of $5000 per annum. He shall serve the board exclusively and shall not be engaged in any other business while he is in its service. He shall receive no compensation except his salary. He shall report to said board at least once a month the condition of the said system, and shall make such recommendation and suggestions as in his judgment will tend to the welfare of this department.

Sec. 10. Said board shall likewise appoint a skilled accountant, who shall be designated as the auditor of the domestic waterworks system. Said appointee shall prescribe the manner and form of keeping all accounts pertaining to said waterworks system, and shall exercise general supervision and control of the same. He shall hold his office at the pleasure of the board, and shall receive a compensation of $2000 per annum. He shall serve the board exclusively, and shall not be engaged in any other business while he is in its service. He shall receive no compensation except his salary. He shall report to said board at least once a month, and at all times upon demand of said board make a statement of the financial condition of said domestic waterworks system in such form as may be designated by said commissioners.

Sec. 11. In the appointment of all subordinates the commissioners shall make the same after such examination as they may prescribe. Such appointments shall be made upon merit alone, and said examinations shall be practical in their character, and shall relate to those matters only which will fairly test the relative capacity of the persons examined to discharge the duties of the position to which appointments are to be made. The political or religious affiliations of applicants shall be disregarded. No employé in this department appointed after the first Monday in January, 1903, shall be dismissed from the department, except for immoral conduct, insubordination, or unfitness to perform the duties of the position to which he has been appointed. Charges against members of this department must be formally made, and shall be finally passed upon by a board, consisting of the Mayor, City Attorney and president of the Council, after giving the accused due hearing, and under such rules and regulations and forms of procedure as the said Mayor, City Attorney and president of the Council may adopt to govern said hearings.

The superintendent and auditor and all laborers are excepted from the provisions of this section. Continuous service for five years last past in the employment of the Los Angeles City Water Company shall render such employé eligible for appointment hereunder, without further examination for the position so occupied by said employé.

Sec. 12. All moneys derived from the water system shall be deposited with the City Treasurer, and shall be known as the "water revenue fund," which fund is hereby created, and said fund shall be used solely and exclusively for the operation, maintenance, extension, betterment and enlargment of said domestic waterworks system, and for the purchase of other water properties or systems, from which there shall be appropriated by the Council such sums as may be deemed necessary to meet the requirements of section 16; excepting that should it be deemed advisable, the Council may establish a sinking and interest fund out of said funds, for the payment of bonds issued for the purchase of said plants by the city.

Sec. 13. The Council shall appropriate from said water-revenue fund such amount as it may deem necessary to meet the estimates of the said Board of Water Commissioners filed under section 16 hereof. Said fund shall be named the "water-operating fund," and is hereby created, and said fund shall be kept inviolate for the purpose of meeting the expenses incurred on account of said water system, and shall not be paid out by the City Treasurer on any other account, nor shall any of the moneys of said fund be used for any other purpose. Every demand drawn on the Treasurer on account of said waterworks system shall state that the same is for the purpose of the domestic waterworks system.

Sec. 14. All demands upon the water-operating fund and water-revenue fund shall be presented in the manner required, and be subject to all conditions contained in sections 200, 210, 211, 212, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220 and 221 of the charter of the city of Los Angeles.

Sec. 15. It shall not be lawful for any officer or employé, or either, of said department, to retain or use for any purpose any moneys which shall be paid on account of said waterworks system for service connections, or on account of any matter connected with said waterworks system, but all moneys so paid shall be deposited with the City Treasurer on or before the day of the next succeeding date of collection.

Sec. 16. The board shall, semi-annually, on the first Monday of March and on the first Monday of October of each year, present to the Council a statement of any proposed extensions, their location and estimated cost; and shall at the same time accompany the same with a list of supplies estimated to be required for the said water system for the ensuing six (6) months, stating in clear and explicit terms the quantities and kinds of articles needed and how and when they shall be delivered. After the Council has made the appropriation provided for in section 13 hereof, the board shall invite proposals for furnishing the said supplies by advertising therefor at least ten (10) days in the official newspaper, or in any other manner the board may provide.

The board shall provide, and the said advertisement shall state, such regulations as it may deem necessary for security to accompany all bids, the presentation and time of opening proposals, the terms upon which said contract shall be awarded, and security for performance thereof; but the said board may enter into contracts not in writing and without advertising, for the payment of any sum of money not exceeding $300.

The provision of Article XX, section 207, of the charter of the city of Los Angeles shall, so far as the same can be made applicable, apply to the provisions of this section.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent said Board of Water Commissioners from presenting said statements and estimates at other times between the above-mentioned dates; but the same may be made at other times, in the discretion of said board, when conditions demand the same, in addition to the dates above mentioned.

Sec. 17. The said board shall have no power to determine the rates that shall be paid by the consumers for the use of domestic water in the said city of Los Angeles, but the power to regulate and establish said rates is hereby expressly reserved to the Council of the city of Los Angeles.

Sec. 18. The board shall, on or before the first Monday in December of each year, transmit to the Council a report in writing for the fiscal year. Such report shall contain a general statement of the receipts and disbursements made by said department, and statement of such betterments, additions and extensions as have been made, and such other matters as pertain to the business of the department during the said period. The said board shall make such recommendations to said Council, as to the future work of the department, as the said board in its judgment deems necessary.

Sec. 19. It shall be the duty of the Council to furnish suitable offices and furniture for the said Board of Water Commissioners and its employés, and all necessary stationery, and also a suitable workshop, yard, material, tools and machinery, including pumps, and all the necessary horses, vehicles and harness and stabling and feed for such horses, as may be necessary for the use of said department, the same to be paid out of the water-revenue fund.

Sec. 20. That the office hours of the superintendent of said waterworks shall be from 8 o'clock a.m. to 5 o'clock p.m., and that eight hours shall constitute a day's work of all officers and employés in this department, excepting watchmen, whose duty it shall be to be on watch in person or by substitute at all times, provided in case of emergency the head of this department may require extra work from its employés, at same rate of compensation for regular service.

Sec. 21. Each of said commissioners shall be deemed a city officer within the meaning of section 18 of article XX of the charter of the city of Los Angeles. No commissioner shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract relating or pertaining to the domestic waterworks system. Any contract entered into, wherein any commissioner or commissioners shall have any interest, either directly or indirectly, shall be void.

Sec. 22. Until the qualification of commissioners to be elected as provided in section 1 of this ordinance, at the general election to be held upon the first Monday in November, 1902, the following-named persons, to wit, James C. Kays, Herman Silver, J. M. Elliott, C. H. Toll, L. A. Grant, Frank W. King, Maj. H. T. Lee, shall be and are hereby appointed as commissioners of said Board of Water Commissioners, to manage, control and administer said water system and enforce the provisions of this ordinance.

SYRUP OF FIGS

Acts Gently;
Acts Pleasantly;
Acts Beneficially;
Acts truly as a Laxative.

Syrup of Figs appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and to the healthy, because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal virtues of Syrup of Figs are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinally laxative and to act most beneficially.

say enough to express their pleasure at the spirit of cooperation shown by these representative men under such trying circumstances.

It is not generally known that a simple suit begun in the Superior Court to restrain the Council from transferring the water bonds to a John Doe corporation would have been fatal to the transfer. Had the anti-bond forces been apprised of the intended sale a few hours before it happened, the city would still be on the anxious seat. For this reason it became necessary to have the money and bonds actually in escrow and the plant in the possession of the city before the transfer to the bond company was made.

In view of the litigation that has occurred between the city and the company in the past the confidence shown by the water company is the more remarkable. It is not too much to say that the citizens and city officials feel grateful to the water company for extending the helping hand that brought the city into the haven of municipal ownership. By their courage and magnanimity the directors of the company have settled forever tedious litigation and put the water plant for the present beyond the reach of unlicensed meddlers.

CHARTER AMENDMENT.

COUNCIL TO HAVE CHARGE.

At the adjourned session of the Council yesterday afternoon a committee was apointed to consider the important question of charter revision. Several times Mayor Snyder has called the attention of the Council to the need of immediate action if the amendments are to be placed before the Legislature for ratification at the next session. The Council has been waiting for the sale of the water bonds, and now that the deal has been consummated and the water plant is in the hands of the city, work is to be begun at once. Pierce made the motion yesterday as follows:

"Resolved, that a committee be appointed to draft amendments to the present charter of Los Angeles; said committee to consist of the nine members of the City Council and eight citizens to be appointed by the President of the Council; also that the general public be requested to suggest any amendments which may seem desirable to them, said proposed amendments to be typewritten and addressed to 'Charter Revision Committee, City Hall.'"

Bowen seconded the resolution when Todd rose to object to the omission of the Mayor's name from the committee list.

The Mayor first brought this matter to the attention of the Council, and as a matter of simple courtesy he should be included in the committee," said the Eighth Warder.

After some discussion Pierce accepted the amendment to his motion, stating that he had named the Council merely because that body would have to pass upon the matter finally. The Mayor was thereupon appointed a member of the committee. President Powers has not yet selected the eight citizens.

Temple-street Grading.

Mayor Snyder and City Engineer Ford of the Temple Street Change-of-Grade Commission yesterday made official inspection of the property along the street which, it is alleged, will be damaged by the proposed improvement. Nearly all the property owners were on hand to present their claims to the commission. The claims already filed with the commission amount to over $60,000, but nearly, if not all of them, will be scaled down. One well-informed official stated yesterday that $30,000 will probably cover all damages to property on account of the proposed change of grade.

Money Paid Over.

Yesterday morning a check for $75,-000, signed by S. H. Mott and W. H. Perry, was deposited with the City Treasurer. This amount was paid by the water company on account, pending the final accounting with the city for the amount due under compromise agreement. Tuesday's receipts of the gas system was also approved, the franchise was likewise granted.

Gas Company Permit.

President T. S. C. Lowe, Jr., of the Citizens' Gas Company yesterday made application of the Street Superintendent for a permit to dig in the streets. The necessary affidavit that the company intends to furnish gas for lighting purposes only was filed with the Street Superintendent and a formal demand was made for the issuance of the permit. Superintendent Lowe was out of town yesterday, having departed on a ten days' vacation for his health, and the responsibility of issuing the permit fell upon Chief Clerk Clyde Taylor. He refused to issue the permit without investigating all phases of the question. President Lowe declared that he would sue the company for damages unless the permit was issued. The pipes in Pasadena avenue from Orange Grove avenue to Fair Oaks avenue, in Fair Oaks avenue from Pasadena avenue to Avenue 21, in Avenue 21 from Fair Oaks avenue to Albion street, in Albion street from Avenue 21 to Main street, and in Main street to the Plaza, are to be abandoned.

After communicating with Superintendent McGuire Clerk Taylor announced last night that he will issue the permit as the City Attorney considers the law to be mandatory upon him to do so.

STATE LAW ON BULLFIGHTING.

Deputy City Attorney Hewitt reported to the Council yesterday afternoon that there is a State law regulating bullfights, and that it is not compulsory for the city to pass an ordinance on a matter which is covered by State law. At the session on Tuesday President Powers called the attention of the Council to the construction of a pen near Washington Gardens, and on motion the attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance prohibiting such exhibitions as are planned. In the opinion submitted yesterday section No. 8 of the statute relative to cruelty to animals is quoted as follows:

"Any person who shall cause any bull, bear, cock, dog or other animal to fight for his amusement or for gain, or injure each other, or any person who shall permit the same to be had on any premises under his charge or control, and any person who shall encourage, aid or be present at such fighting or worrying of such animal, as a spectator, shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

Todd spoke in defense of the originator of the bullfighting enterprise, saying that they are planning only innocent amusement and that the District Attorney was consulted before-

Council Notes.

A district map of the Pacific States Telephone and Telephone Company, asking for underground conduits on Grand street, one-half block south from Pico street, on St. Vincent Place, and on Seventh street from Spring street to Grand avenue, was received.

A bond of the California-Pacific Railway Company to guarantee the franchise on Vermont avenue from Santa Monica avenue to San Bernardino street, was approved, and the franchise formally granted to the company. The bond of M. J. King for the construction of a sewer system was also approved, and the franchise was likewise granted.

...ay enough to express their pleasure at the spirit of coöperation shown by these representative men under such trying circumstances.

It is not generally known that a simple suit begun in the Superior Court to restrain the Council from transferring the water bonds to a John Doe corporation would have been fatal to the transfer. Had the anti-bond forces been apprised of the intended sale a few hours before it happened, the city would still be on the anxious seat. For this reason it became necessary to have the money and bonds actually in escrow and the plant in the possession of the city before the transfer to the bond company was made.

In view of the litigation that has occurred between the city and the company in the past the confidence shown by the water company is the more remarkable. It is not too much to say that the citizens and city officials feel grateful to the water company for extending the helping hand that brought the city into the haven of municipal ownership. By their courage and magnanimity the directors of the company have settled forever tedious litigation and put the water plant for the present beyond the reach of unlicensed meddlers.

CHARTER AMENDMENT.

COUNCIL TO HAVE CHARGE.

At the adjourned session of the Council yesterday afternoon a committee was apointed to consider the important question of charter revision. Several times Mayor Snyder has called the attention of the Council to the need of immediate action if the amendments are to be placed before the Legislature for ratification at its next session. The Council has been waiting for the sale of the water bonds, and now that the deal has been consummated and the water plant is in the hands of the city, work is to be begun at once. Pierce made the motion yesterday as follows:

"Resolved, that a committee be appointed to draft amendments to the present charter of Los Angeles; said committee to consist of the nine members of the City Council and eight citizens to be appointed by the President of the Council; also that the general public be requested to suggest any amendments which may seem desirable to them, said proposed amendments to be typewritten and addressed to the Charter Revision Committee, City Hall."

Lewis seconded the resolution when Pierce rose to object to the omission of the Mayor's name from the committee.

The Mayor first brought this matter to the attention of the Council, and as a matter of simple courtesy he should be included in the committee," said the Eighth Warder.

After some discussion Pierce accepted the amendment to his motion, saying that he had named the Council merely because that body would have to pass upon the matter finally. The Mayor was thereupon appointed a member of the committee. President Summers has not yet selected the eight others.

Temple-street Grading.

Mayor Snyder and City Engineer Lelord of the Temple Street Change-of-Grade Commission yesterday made an official inspection of the property on the street which, it is alleged, will be damaged by the proposed improvement. Nearly all the property owners were on hand to present their views to the commission. The claims already filed with the commission amount to over $60,000, but nearly, if not all of them, will be scaled down. A well-informed official stated yesterday that $30,000 will probably cover the damages to property on account of the proposed change of grade.

Money Paid Over.

Yesterday morning a check for $75,- [illegible] was paid by S. H. Mott and W. H. [illegible] was deposited with the City Treasurer. This amount was paid by the Edison company on account pending the final accounting with the city for the amount due under compromise agreement. Tuesday's receipts of the [illegible] amounted to $2858.40, and last Monday $80.50 was paid into the treasury.

LAW ON BULLFIGHTING.

City Attorney Hewitt reported to the Council yesterday afternoon that there is a State law regulating bullfights, and that it is not competent for the city to pass an ordinance on the matter which is covered by a State law. At the session on Tuesday Councilmen Powers called the attention of the Council to the construction of a [illegible] in Washington Gardens, and on motion the attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance prohibiting such exhibitions as are given. Hewitt spoke in defense of the originators of the bullfighting enterprise, saying that they are planning only innocent amusement and that the District Attorney was consulted before-

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

MONEY FOR MORLEY; AIR FOR ELLSWORTH.

BASEBALL MEN'S TROUBLES KNOCKED INTO COURT.

Ellsworth Claims to Have Originated the Ball Idea for Chutes Park, but Says Morley Has Played Foul on a Co-operation Agreement.

James F. Morley and the Los Angeles Baseball Association were made defendants yesterday in a suit begun by Elmer A. Ellsworth, who alleges that Morley has played him false in the baseball venture at the Chutes Park.

Ellsworth believes he is entitled to half of Morley's holdings.

It is alleged in the complaint that Ellsworth it was who in May, 1900, conceived the plan of conducting ball games at the Chutes, and upon consultation learned from the park management that such an arrangement could be made. Thereafter Ellsworth says he told Morley of his plan, not disclosing place or parties, whereupon Morley proposed that they two coöperate to carry out the plan; that plaintiff cease negotiations in his own name; that he show the defendant place and persons and favorably commend him as a suitable man to promote the scheme, and that defendant thereupon do all the rest—the business to be conducted in Morley's name for the equal benefit of both. It was further proposed, it is alleged, that a corporation should be formed and that the plaintiff and defendant should therein and in the profits thereof share and share alike.

This proposal from Morley, says Ellsworth, was accepted, and the necessary disclosures made, pursuant to and in reliance upon the above agreement.

The association was soon formed, but Morley, it is alleged, obtained 52 per cent. of the capital stock and controls the whole business.

During the years 1900 and 1901 many games were played and thousands of dollars rolled in for Morley, but not one cent for Ellsworth, the allegation being that Morley has failed and refused to let him into the profits and denies that Ellsworth has any interest therein.

Suit is therefore brought to straighten out the alleged tangle and to enjoin Morley from disposing of any stock. Ellsworth wants an accounting for half the Morley stock and dividends and a decree declaring that Morley holds the property in trust for him. J. M. Stewart, Esq., is plaintiff's attorney.

Mr. Morley has little to say on the subject. He treats the matter very lightly and thinks there is no foundation for the suit.

QUEER DEFENSE.

SNICKERING BURGLAR.

Smiles and smothered laughter were indicative of the enjoyment that Francisco Martinez got out of his trial in the criminal court yesterday on a charge of attempt to commit burglary.

He thought his prosecutors were awfully funny people.

The complaining witness was José Antonio Machado of Ballona, who says that Martinez, a laborer on his ranch, tried to file into his house through a front window, on the night of January 5, so that he took a shot at him. Machado had been bothered by former attempts at burglary, which he had frustrated, but on the night of the shot he set watchers on the outside, who captured Martinez, when he tried to get away. The next morning they found a big file under the window, with which instrument the culprit had pried open the shutters on the window, and, when Machado heard him, he discharged his gun through the open window.

It was a narrow escape for Martinez; he dodged just in time—a few of the shot cutting his coat sleeve and lodging in his shoulder.

The defendant's defense was novel. He said he never had any intent of committing larceny, but that he was attracted to the house by one of the Machado daughters, who had asked him "to prove that he was a man."

This is denied by the daughters. They say they never spoke to him.

But he wasn't so gay when the jury found him guilty as charged. He will be sentenced Saturday.

Machado is an old Californian, whose realty makes him worth $100,000, if a cent, and he lives in a five-room 'dobe. It developed yesterday that on the night of the burglary episode, everybody was sleeping in the same room—Machado, two daughters and Mrs. Brunette, a friend—properly and decently distributed in three beds, however. The shutters, as exhibited to the jury yesterday, were remarkable for their resemblance to barn doors; they were very heavy, and made of redwood.

Martinez was defended by James D. Rymert, Esq., assisted by J. Irving McKenna, Esq.

MONEY WANTED.

"ANIMAL KINDNESS SOCIETY."

The Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has asked the county for a monthly allowance of $100.

In making the application the attention of the board is called to the fact that the last Legislature amended the law so as to authorize the Supervisors of each county to make an appropriation for such purpose not exceeding $150 a month. The society in this county is actively engaged in the work of investigating, preventing and bringing about the punishment of cruelty to animals, and to that end employs Humane Officer Oliver, whom the city pays a salary of $50 a month.

Now, contends Dr. F. A. Seymour, president of the society, such salary is not adequate for the work the Humane Officer performs, and the society desires to increase it. But the income of the organization is uncertain, comprising the city's allowance, money received as fines from time to time imposed for violation of law, and a small amount of dues from its members.

"This," says Dr. Seymour, "is not sufficient to provide for the needs of the work. In addition to increasing the salary of the officer, the society has numerous incidental expenses to meet. If we had the money, our good work could be advanced in many ways."

KELLY IN COURT.

SAYS HE IS NOT A ROBBER.

William Kelly, notorious in Los Angeles as one of the Myrtle-Case-Kelly trio, who is charged with robbing Maj. Klokke and Attorney Powers, was arraigned in the criminal department of the Superior Court yesterday. His pals, Charles Myrtle and Frank Case, pleaded guilty on Tuesday, and will be sentenced tomorrow morning. But Kelly proposes to stand trial.

Kelly's trip from jail to judge was conducted by the sheriff.

"No," said the prisoner in a husky whisper, like that of the stage villain, "I have no means to employ an attorney, and want the court to appoint one to defend my case."

F. H. Thompson, Esq., was appointed.

On the charge of robbing Maj. Klokke the defendant immediately pleaded guilty, but asked for Friday to enter a plea on the Powers hold-up.

Attorney Thompson urged the court to set the Klokke case for trial without delay, but the Chief of Police was reported to have preferred the trial of the Powers case first, and the matter was continued till Friday, to determine whether the defendant's request or that of the Chief should be granted.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

WIFE WINS. Judge York granted a divorce yesterday to Nellie Beauchamp on a cross-complaint charging non-support in a suit begun by her husband, Harry J. Beauchamp, who alleged desertion.

AGED EPILEPTIC. Warren Brashier, 72 years old, who has lived in the vicinity of Seventeenth and San Julian streets, was adjudged insane yesterday and sent to Highland. He suffers from violent attacks of epilepsy.

DAMAGES FOR HORSE. Judge Shaw gave judgment yesterday to H. D. Wilkerson for $100 against the Los Angeles-Pasadena Electric Railway Company. One day a horse belonging to Wilkerson happened to plant a foot on each of the rails while crossing the track, and a "short circuit" knocked the animal down. It died a month afterward from the shock.

KANAGY WILL. When Josiah J. Kanagy died in Long Beach on December 15, 1901, he left one twenty-five-foot lot worth $300, and bequeathed the property to eight heirs—$5 to each of seven and the residue to a daughter, Lorena Alice Kanagy, of Long Beach.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

SCHWARTZ A THIEF FROM BOYHOOD.

HE SAYS HE "JUST GOT INTO THE HABIT."

The Way He Got Away With the Plunder—Even Robbed His Friend—Neill Hurrah, a Railroad Man, Cheated Montgomery Bros. Out of a Watch.

Louis Schwartz, the tailor of the People's Store, pleaded guilty yesterday to four more charges of petty larceny. The man is one of the worst thieves that has ever come under the notice of the police department.

The detectives say he has been a thief from boyhood. He stole without reason and without excuse. He stole just because he loved to steal. The way he says it himself is, "I got into the habit of it."

His is an interesting case in criminology.

While a young boy he was sent to the reform school at Whittier, where he learned the tailoring trade and various other things—mostly to be cussed.

He came out with that strange craving to steal that specialists agree is an evidence of a diseased mind.

Last May he served thirty days in the City Jail for some petty embezzlement.

Eighteen months ago he got a job in the tailoring department of the People's Store.

Judging from the amount of the plunder found in his rooms, he must have been stealing nearly all of that time.

It was so fatally easy.

He is believed to have done almost all the shop-lifting as he was leaving the store on his way home from work.

Sometimes he used to slip small articles under the skirts of his coat, and take them into the water closet, where he fastened them on the inside of his clothing.

Many of the articles, such as the shoes, were too big to have been carried this way. It is not known how he managed these.

The bulk of the big clothes basket full of stuff recovered, however, consists of ties, shoes and stockings and bottles of perfumery and the like.

Schwartz was not suspected by the people in the store until the police got him.

His last theft was a handsome black silk skirt worth $25. It had been sold and laid aside. When the time came to deliver it, the skirt was missing.

The next day a messenger boy came to the store with the skirt and wanted to get an exchange tag.

The detectives were notified, and the boy was questioned. He said that Schwartz had given him the skirt to take to the store, and told him to get an exchange tag.

When he was brought up in the Police Court Saturday, he told the judge that he wanted to get a suit of clothes with the exchange tag; he said he couldn't imagine what led him to do it. He vowed at that time that it was his first offense.

He said that there was nothing in his room.

When the detectives came to search, they found enough stuff to stock a small dry-goods store.

Schwartz then admitted that the stuff all belonged to A. Hamburger & Sons, and said he stole it just because he got into the habit.

Since his plea was entered in the Police Court yesterday complaint has been made to the detectives by a tailor friend of Schwartz, who says that a bolt of cloth found in the room was stolen from his shop. He says that Schwartz used to often come there and sit with him and sometimes was left alone in the store.

Schwartz will be sentenced on the four charges this afternoon.

Slick Railroad Man.

Neill Hurrah, who is now in the County Jail waiting examination on a charge of embezzlement, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday for forgery.

He is accused of buncoing Montgomery Brothers, jewelers, out of a watch.

All railroad men are required by their employers to have watches of reliable make, and the railroad companies are accustomed to stand good for the watches at the jewelry stores, the price of the watch being taken out of the pay of the men.

The other day Hurrah came to the store and asked for a watch, giving a forged application signed with the name of James Murphy. Montgomery sent a wire to the railroad office and learned that James Murphy was an employé, and then let Hurrah have the watch.

Hurrah has evidently been a railroad man, and knows the ropes.

He will be examined February 8.

ASPHALT WORKS ON THE ARROYO SECO.

EAST SIDE CITIZENS PROTEST AGAINST THE PROPOSITION.

Declare That City's Water Supply Would Be Contaminated and That the Unpleasant Odors Would Be a Nuisance—Will Present Petition on Friday.

People living in East Los Angeles are moving against the Texas and California Oil Company, which corporation has made application to the Fire Commissioners for privilege to erect oil and asphalt works on the Arroyo Seco, between Avenues 19 and 20.

A petition, asking that the privilege be denied, has been signed by property holders on Avenues 18, 19, 20 and 21, and on adjacent streets, and will be presented to the Fire Commissioners Friday.

The petition recites the following reasons why permission to erect the proposed works should not be granted:

"It would be a public nuisance, causing unhealthful and unpleasant odors to contaminate the air.

"It will pollute and poison the waters flowing down the Arroyo Seco and the Los Angeles River.

"It will greatly depreciate the value of property in this locality, making it unfit for residence purposes.

"The city of Los Angeles owns some thirty-eight lots in this neighborhood and would be a great loser if this application is granted."

F. F. Stetson, owner of the cannery near the proposed location, said yesterday:

"While I have other objections to the location of oil and asphalt works near my property, none are so great as the certainty that the water will be contaminated, not alone in the Arroyo Seco, but also in the Los Angeles River. The arroyo empties into the river only 2800 feet above where the city proposes to erect its new pumping plant, to increase the city water supply. The drainage from the oil works would be unavoidably into the arroyo, and from there it would just as unavoidably run into the river, to be pumped into the city mains. We think we have a good case, and expect to be successful in preventing the erection of the objectionable works."

THE OTHER SIDE.

When seen last night, J. A. Cook, manager of the Texas and California Oil Company, said:

"Our company owns the property upon which it is intended to build a 200-barrel plant, and they can't stop us, for we will be in conflict with nobody. Our plans are all made, and arrangements completed for marketing the product.

"As to the contamination of the city's water, there is not the slightest danger of any such result. Our plant will be 700 feet from the river, on gravelly soil, and any waste that might escape will be absorbed. No sulphuric acid will be permitted to escape, as it is used over and over. Our works would not be a nuisance, but would be a benefit to the city."

MINES AND MINING.

SAGUARA SILVER MINE NOW PUZZLES EXPERTS.

KIDNEYS OF ORE FOUND, BUT OWNERS CONFIDENT.

Sunset Camp Has Been Opened Up Again—Miners of Northern Arizona Welcome Coming of Storm—Cripple Creek Wants Water.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Feb. 4.—The Saguara mine, near Wickenburg, from which such enormous values in silver were secured on the surface, has proved a puzzle to the mining experts. A bond was taken on the property and a working shaft was started. At a depth of only about ten feet this shaft passed through the surface ore and the miners struck into the ordinary granite rock of the country. In blind hope, however, the sinking was continued. The faith of the miners has been rewarded, for at the depth of 110 feet the shaft is again in ore much of the same character as found upon the surface. The size of the new ore body has not been determined, and it may prove only a kidney, but the owners are confident they have a benanza.

Sunset camp, in Northwestern Maricopa county, is being opened up again. To the excellent five-stamp mill has been added a Standard concentrator, and the mill is being run as much as is possible, limited only by the water supply. The property is now owned by Devine brothers. They have discovered a thirty-foot chute of ore on the 100-foot level that will run $12 in gold. In the same vicinity a number of other claims are being worked, the ore being packed on burros to the Sunset mill. Much of this ore runs high in copper, necessitating the installation of a concentrator. The nearest railroad station is Wickenburg, more than forty miles distant, over a waterless plain, and many are the difficulties to be overcome by the miners in the Harqua Halas.

The report that work has been begun on the Acme Company's smelter at Wickenburg is premature. There is no doubt that Wickenburg offers exceptional advantages for the erection of a custom smelter, and the residents of that camp are hopeful of securing at least a small furnace before the end of the year.

The miners of Northern Arizona are joyful over the coming of the storm. Almost all over Yavapai county snowfall has been reported, in some places to the depth of three feet. Scores of mines have been running on short time owing to lack of water, and at least a dozen of the reduction works will be enabled to double their output with a plentiful water supply. Placer miners, too, are preparing to wash the gulches and thousands of dollars' worth of placer gold will be taken in by the merchants of Prescott within the next sixty days.

HERE AND THERE.

HIGH PRICE OF WATER.

Local prospectors who have come lately from the Cripple Creek district of Arizona, report that the scarcity of water is fast becoming a serious question. Water has been so scarce in some places that as much as 15 cents a bucket has been charged. Nearly all the mines on Gold, Bull and Ironclad hills have closed down. The breaking of the Victor dam last summer made it impossible for the towns tributary to store enough water during the rainy season.

AGAIN WORKING PECK.

The Peck mine, in the Northern Bradshaw Mountains, was one of the great silver mines of Arizona thirty years ago, and has a record of hundreds of thousands of tons' net production. The property is now owned by Gen. Eagan, late Commissary-General. He has leased it to miners who have found a rich deposit of silver ore comparable with the best known in the palmiest days of the mine.

STRIKE WHILE GRADING.

While grading across the Wizard mine in Big Bug district, south of Prescott, the workmen on the new Bradshaw Mountain railway cut a magnificent ledge of gold ore, eight feet in width and 400 feet long. The graders claim the ore that they cut out, and have piled it up to be taken to mill at some future date. Their dump is worth at least $30 to the ton. The Wizard property is owned by J. P. Dillon of Prescott, and P. O'Donnell.

Nothing in England to Compare With the Los Angeles State Normal School, Says "Schoolmaster."

President E. T. Pierce of the Los Angeles State Normal School, experienced a surprise yesterday, when he received from Scotland a request for a copy of the Normal School annual catalogue. The request came from Allan Arniel, honorable secretary of the Educational Institute of Scotland, and inclosed clippings from the Schoolmaster, published in London, concerning this catalogue, in which it is said:

"One has a glimpse in such a book—a mere calendar of a training college—of the American temperament, clear, methodical, daring and delightful in innovation; a temperament whose efforts are shaking already the more sluggish blood of the older nations."

Of the Los Angeles Normal School the Schoolmaster says:

"In the matter of building, grounds, laboratories, amplitude of provision in every department of a training college, the elaborate completeness of its practice schools and kindergartens, we know of nothing at home to compare with it. There is a completeness about their arrangements that rather dwarfs our own nippling developments."

It must be borne in mind that these comments are from a high-class educational publication of London, Eng.

WHAT you pay for extracts is important, but what you get for your money is ten times more important. Burnett's Vanilla costs more because it is worth more.

SANTA FE

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Steals an Overcoat.

The residence of W. C. Leonard, No. 813 Carondelet street, was burglarized early yesterday morning. The thief made a hurried search through several rooms, burning matches to light his way, and stole an overcoat.

Jewelry Sneaked.

A sneak thief entered the room of Miss Fannie Kinnamon, No. 329 North Main street, yesterday afternoon and stole six rings and a watch chain. The jewelry was valued at about $50. The loss was not discovered until late last night.

Stitch Recovering.

J. H. Stitch, a saloon-keeper, who was injured in a collision between a Southern Pacific switch engine and a street car at Naud Junction, Tuesday afternoon, will not be permanently disabled, and his recovery is only a question of time. He is at the St. Agnes Hospital.

Fireman Injured.

Lieut. Frank Lieva of the fire department, a member of the No. 1 hose company, East Los Angeles, was painfully bruised yesterday in attempting to board a rapidly-moving electric car. He jumped for the step, but missed his footing, and was thrown to the street, striking on his shoulder. Lieva had been off duty until recently, because of injuries received at a fire.

McKinley Industrial Home.

The following subscriptions have been received to the fund for the McKinley Industrial Home for Boys: Valentine Peyton, $150; A. C. Haws, $50; Brosee Bros., $10; R. Magee, $5; Orr & Hines, $5; G. A. French, $2; Mrs. M. L. Bates, $5; G. M. Guinn, $5; C. M. Staub, $25; F. W. Hendel, $5; J. G. Staub, $2; previously acknowledged, $3017; total, $3281.

Thirty Miles of Hose.

Yesterday the Harper & Reynolds Company received two carloads of rubber hose, purely an American product, manufactured by the Bowers Rubber Company of San Francisco. It will be of interest to know that some of the rubber grew in the Philippine Islands. There are over 150,000 feet, enough to reach from the top of Mt. Lowe to the ocean, and it made a striking display, drawn by big truck teams.

Smuggled In.

Four newly-arrived Chinese were yesterday arrested by J. D. Putnam, United States Chinese Inspector, near Indio, for being illegally in the United States. They had all been supplied with American clothes, but could speak no English, and would make no explanation in Chinese or otherwise of their presence in this country. They had evidently just been smuggled in from Mexico. They will be tried before Commissioner Van Dyke Saturday.

Kicked Off a Bicycle.

C. W. Unger, who lives at No. 637½ South Olive street, was a victim of a peculiar accident near First and Spring streets yesterday afternoon. He was riding his bicycle, and attempted to pass a double team, hitched to a heavy truck. To avoid another team he had to ride very close to the horses. One animal kicked, and a shod hoof struck Unger on the knee, knocking him almost under the wheels of another wagon. He will be lame several weeks.

Runaway in Tunnel.

A runaway in the Third-street tunnel at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon resulted in painful injuries to F. H. Johnson of No. 1815 Husted street, and almost total demolition of his carriage and harness. Johnson had reached the center of the tunnel when his buggy collided with a street-cleaner's hand-cart standing in the middle of the road. This frightened the horse, which sprang to one side, overturning the buggy, throwing the driver to the ground and upsetting the street-cleaner, who was working near by. As the horse dashed east in the tunnel Johnson clung to the reins and was dragged some distance before he released his grasp. The horse was not stopped until it had turned north on Broadway with the remnants of the vehicle dragging at its heels.

BREVITIES.

Campbell's Curio Store will open in their new quarters Thursday morning, February 6, No. 329 South Spring street, two doors south of old stand. Come in and see the new store.

Rev. Dr. George Thomas Dowling's lecture on "Our Bible, and Where We Got It," will be delivered in Christ Church next Sunday evening, instead of tonight.

Meneley Quartette will give their second concert at Temperance Temple, Temple and Broadway, 8 p.m., this evening.

Dr. Michener has resumed practice at 307 South Broadway.

Obliging waiters, tasty cooking, at the Southern.

The literary society of the Woodbury Business College yesterday afternoon elected officers as follows: President, M. E. Alber; vice-president, Miss Flynn; secretary, Miss Polsen; critic, C. H. Cunningham.

CAMPBELL'S CURIO STORE

OPEN TODAY IN THEIR NEW STORE, 329 SOUTH SPRING STREET,

Two Doors South of Their Old Stand, Where They Established Fifteen Years Ago.

Fifteen years ago Mr. Campbell opened with a small stock of curios in a little tent on the ground occupied by the present building. Today he opens the finest curio store in the West.

During all these years, Mr. Campbell has personally collected among the Indians and Mexicans from Alaska to Yucatan, consequently he has many old relics that cannot be procured nowadays. These consist of old baskets, blankets, serapes, laces, bead work, stone relics, etc. He has on hand over one thousand baskets, representing all the different tribes of the West. Handsome Navajo blankets, old and new. Beautiful Mexican serapes, old and new, and absolutely the very finest line of fine Mexican drawnwork ever shown in Los Angeles. Mexican wax figures, carved and burnt leather, pottery, etc. Here you can see the famous Sitting Bull relics, which belonged to the wily old chief, who was killed at the Ghost Dance at Wounded Knee in 1890. Campbell's Curio Store, 329 South Spring street.

Owens River Valley.

Yesterday marked progress in the work of the William Penn Colonial Association of California, as eighteen persons left Long Beach to become settlers at Owenyo, on the C. & C. R. R. Among the number that are now on their way are the following-named well-known citizens: John S. Wilson, John Wilson, V. E. Wilson, A. M. Bonner, Frank M. Wilson, Robert White and two grown sons, also a Mr. Macy, recently from Iowa, and others. The families of most of these named accompany them. The secretary of the company, Mr. Cox, with offices in the Hamm Block, has recently returned from a trip to Owenyo, where he had gone to order lumber and building material for settlers. He also reports that the outlook for the colony is quite encouraging.

TERRIBLY SCALDED.

George Gregg, engineer at Hotel Angelus, was terribly scalded in the hotel engine-room at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and is now in a hospital so much injured that he will not be able to resume his duties for several weeks. It is the custom of the night engineer to blow off the steam in one of the boilers every morning, and yesterday, when he tried to do so, he found something wrong with a valve.

Gregg was summoned and tried to shut off the flow of steam. While he was near the pipe it blew off near the valve, surrounding him with live steam. He jumped for the valve, and although the steam was scalding his hands and feet, he closed it. Then it was found that he was seriously injured. Both hands were parboiled, the skin dropping off like a loose glove. His feet and legs were also scalded. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital for emergency treatment, and later removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] NORTHVILLE (Mich.) Feb. 5.—Lyman Mepslead, an old citizen of this place, died Saturday, but owing to the fact that he was a Christian Scientist, the signature of a doctor could not be obtained to the death certificate. Judge Webster and Prosecutor Hunt began an investigation, which resulted in the summoning of a Coroner's jury, which yesterday rendered the following verdict:

"We find deceased came to his death as a result of a complication of diseases mostly acute in form and character, and that his end was untimely and most miserable, owing to his being denied the medical supervision and treatment which was necessary.

"We find inhuman treatment accorded said deceased was by a so-called sect of Christian Scientists, in disregard of all basic and physiological laws."

EMPIRE OVER SEA.

British Shipowners Realize That United States is Soon to Enter into Race for Supremacy.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—British ship owners have been watching with great interest the efforts of the United States to foster the growth of the merchant marine, says a London dispatch to the Herald. Particularly has their attention been devoted to the progress of the Subsidy Bill in Congress.

It is not too much to say that they believe, if this bill becomes a law, it will deal a severe blow to British shipping.

is the "blend" of the Turkish tobaccos of which they are made!

Each kind of tobacco contributes something individual and separately characteristic to the perfect harmony of this blend.

Most Turkish cigarettes sold in America are made of tobaccos bought here in the open market. Every ounce of the fourteen different kinds of tobacco that are used in making DEITIES is selected by our resident buyers in TURKEY and "no better" selection for quality is possible. For this reason "No better TURKISH cigarette can be made."

EGYPTIAN EMBLEMS are the same as DEITIES but with cork tips.
